IHS Has Many Faces

Those who are a part of Irving High School have had a chance to view it from many angles. At first glance, we see the special occasions, those in which all take part: assemblies, Friday morning pep rallies during the football season, and Homecoming, the climax of much work and planning. As the year progresses, however, we begin to notice many more angles from which we see our school. Its formality, its informality, its friendly welcome, its clubs, its classes, its parties, its sports, its good-byes—all are angles from which we form the complete picture of IHS.

Pep Rallies, Assemblies Cast Colorful Image of IHS

"V-I-C-T-O-R-Y that's the Senior battle cry." "Beat the Buffs!" "We're from Irving, couldn't be prouder . . ." Tiger spirit shakes the gym as the student body cheers its team on to do its best. This view of Irving High is one that captures all the vivacity and spirit of the entire school. Toy Tigers work to add variety to pep rallies by performing colorful hand routines; Band members practice long hours to present popular new music at every pep rally. In addition, well-planned skits by the cheerleaders and Big Irvi Keepers provide entertainment.

Special occasions of the year are highlighted by assemblies, featuring the band and choral groups. Talent displayed in the Annual Red Cross Talent Show is also a popular attraction at IHS. Then, to round out the assembly schedule, the Student Council brings speakers to lecture to the student body.

Principal Norman Hughes uses Christmas assembly as opportunity to crack favorite Aggie joke.

Posters painted by the Art IV students make a colorful backdrop for a yell by Linda Clark and Bobby Willingham.

Clever skits such as this one always catch the attention of the football players.

The attention of the audience is focused on the Toy Tigers as they perform an original scarf routine.

Wearing full dress uniform, the band plays selections from "Mr. Lucky" at the joint band and choir concert held February 1.

Girls' Choir puts students in the Christmas spirit with yuletide carols.

Sophomores Place First In Float Competition

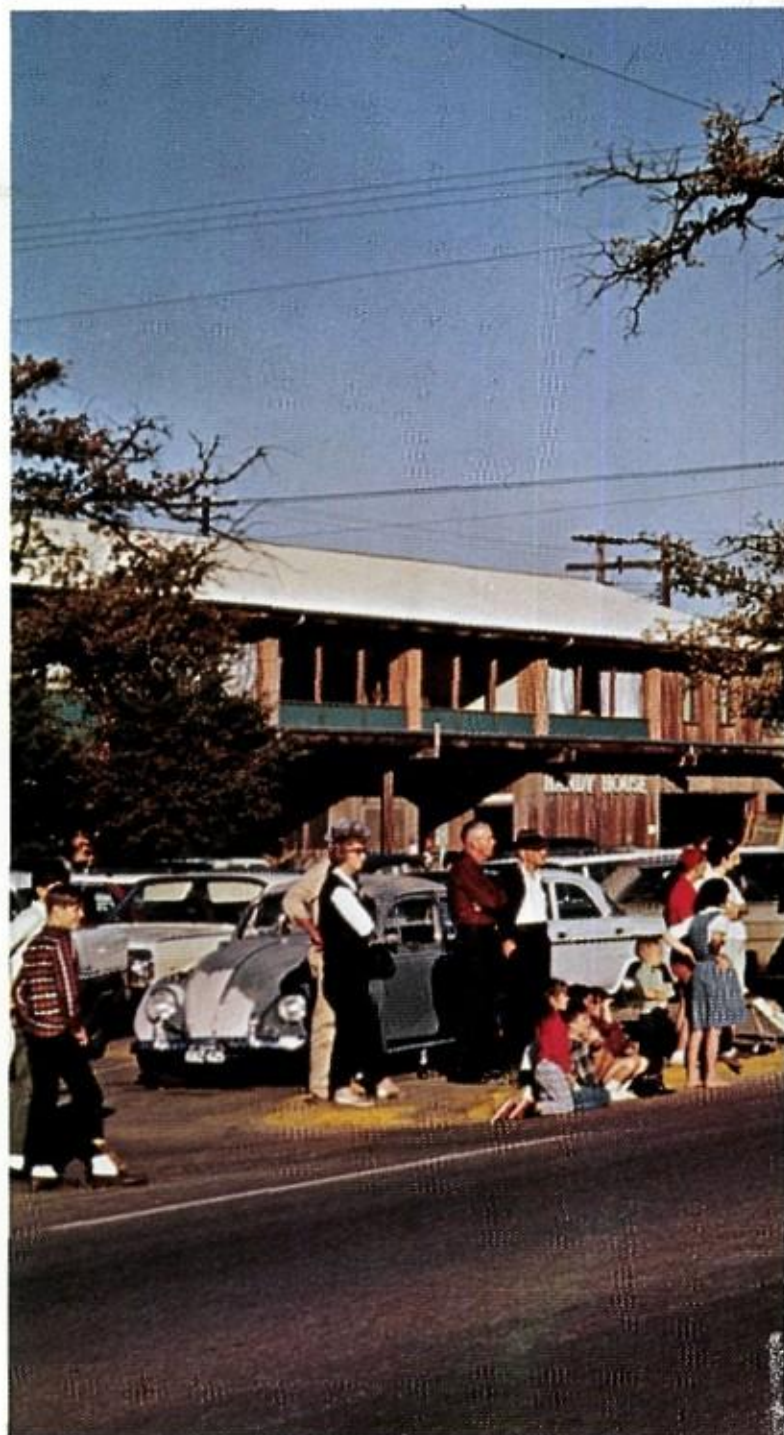

Beautifully decorated floats highlighted Irving's Homecoming '66. Each class presented to the public its interpretation of the theme "Tigers Worldwide."

Sophomores took first place with "The Roar Heard Round The World". The float, a globe resting in clouds, was done in a variety of colors, including a black and gold design of diamonds and rectangles.

Second place went to the Junior class for their float entitled "World Peace". The globe, done in blue and brown, was set against a crepe paper representation of the United States flag. On the back of the float stood a tiger making the symbolic "V" for victory.

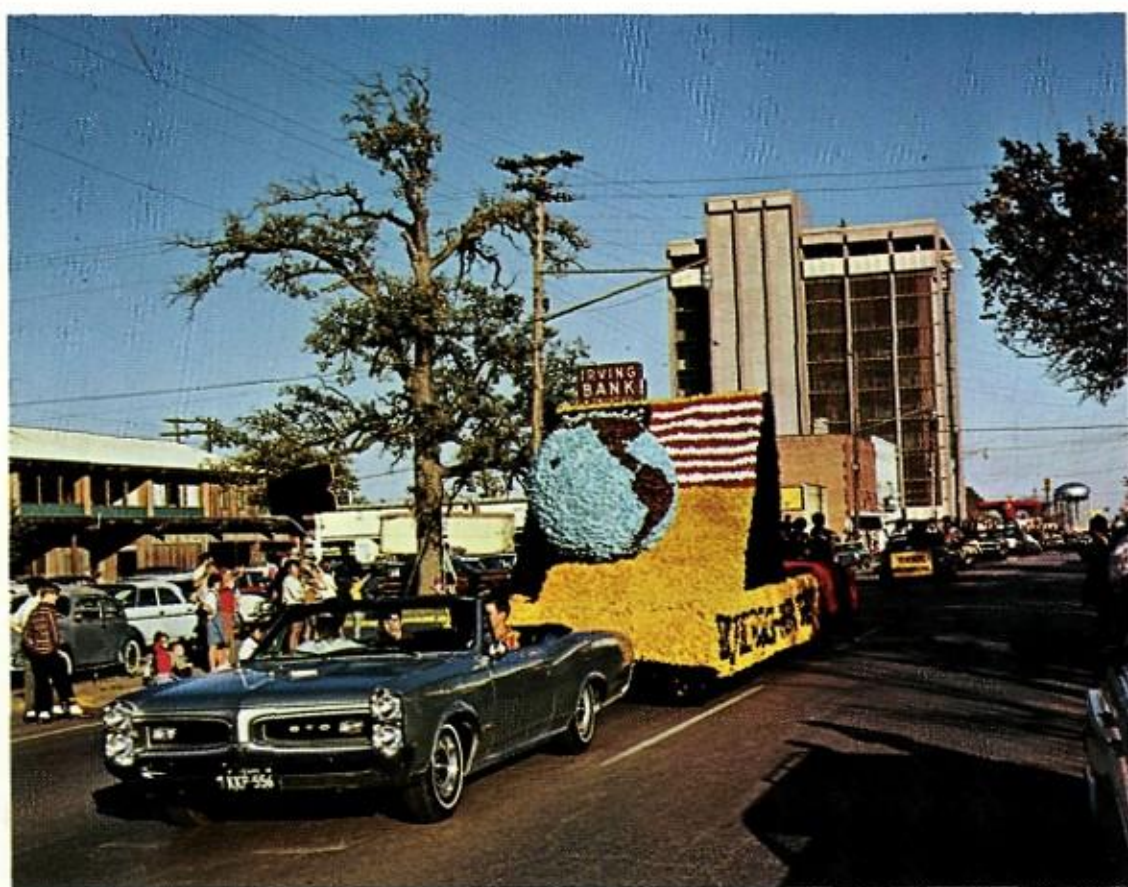

"Tiger Travels", the Freshman entry, was basically green, and displayed various symbols of travel. Their tiger, standing at the crossroads of Baghdad, Tokyo, and London, gained them a rating of third place.

Seniors proudly displayed the Spirit of '67, a well-constructed, eye-catching airplane. Because the Seniors realized they would soon be going their separate ways as they pursued their careers, they chose as their title, "Tomorrow Is Ours". This was depicted by a tiger flying to all parts of the world.

D.E. Club Triumphs in Car Competition

Riding through the Homecoming parade in a black and gold antique horseless carriage are the Tiger cheerleaders.

Blue and gold, club colors, decorates the car in which Charlotte Church, D.E. Club sweetheart, is riding.

Gail Todd is 1966 Homecoming Queen

Homecoming night drew crowds to see the '66 Tigers play the Grand Prairie Gophers. Halftime began with the announcement of winning float and car. First place trophies were presented to presidents of the sophomore class and the D.E. club. Then, as the band played "Stairway to the Stars", class princesses were escorted onto the field. Traditional roses and necklace were presented to the Queen by Kenny Hubenak, Student Council president. Danny Alston presented roses to the senior princesses. For the only time this season, senior Toy Tigers were allowed to wear mums. They performed a combination of the year's routines as the band played "Hennessey".

Bursting through the Homecoming banner, the Irving Tigers run onto the field amid the yells of excited fans.

1966 Homecoming Queen, Gail Todd, and Senior princesses Laura Crawford and Linda Harlin are elected by the student body and announced at the Homecoming game.

The yardage gained by Chuck Green came to little avail in the Tigers Homecoming bout with Grand Prairie.

Views of campus life are perhaps the most interesting angle of IHS. Students scurrying to classes, pouring over textbooks, studying in the library, yelling at pep rallies, playing sports, watching sports, dancing at parties, and just having fun can be seen at any given time on the campus.

Academic Year Begins with Proverbial Bang

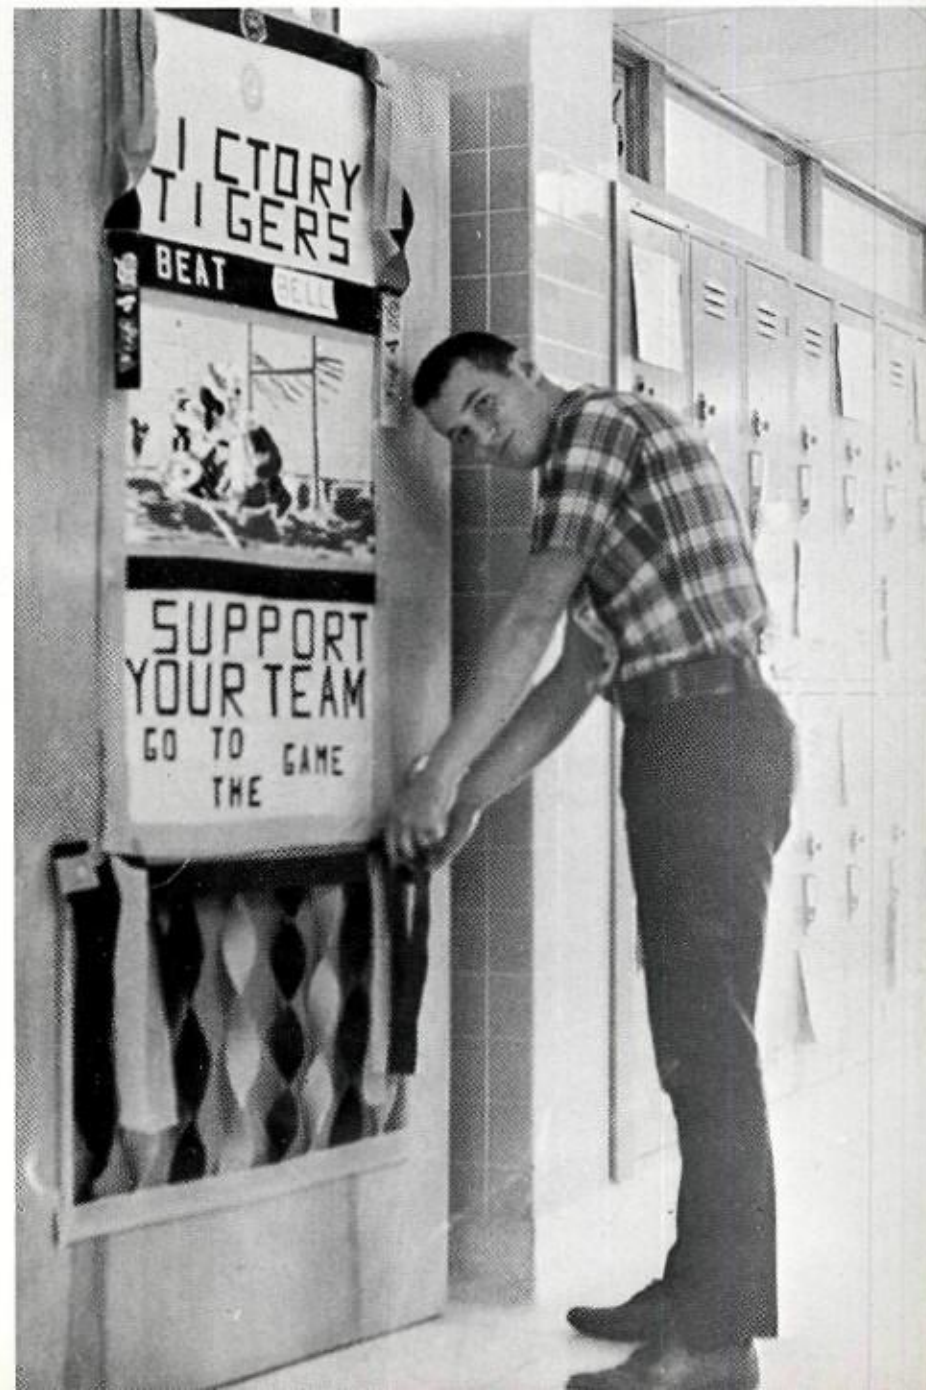

Fall at Irving High School is always a time of activity and excitement. Football games, decorating homeroom doors, pep rallies, electing class officers, choosing student council representatives, and studying all take top priority.

Freshmen grow accustomed to the many different halls and teachers. Sophomores heave a sigh of relief because they have left the fish stage. Juniors look forward to a great senior year. Last of all, the seniors remember that this is their final year at Irving High.

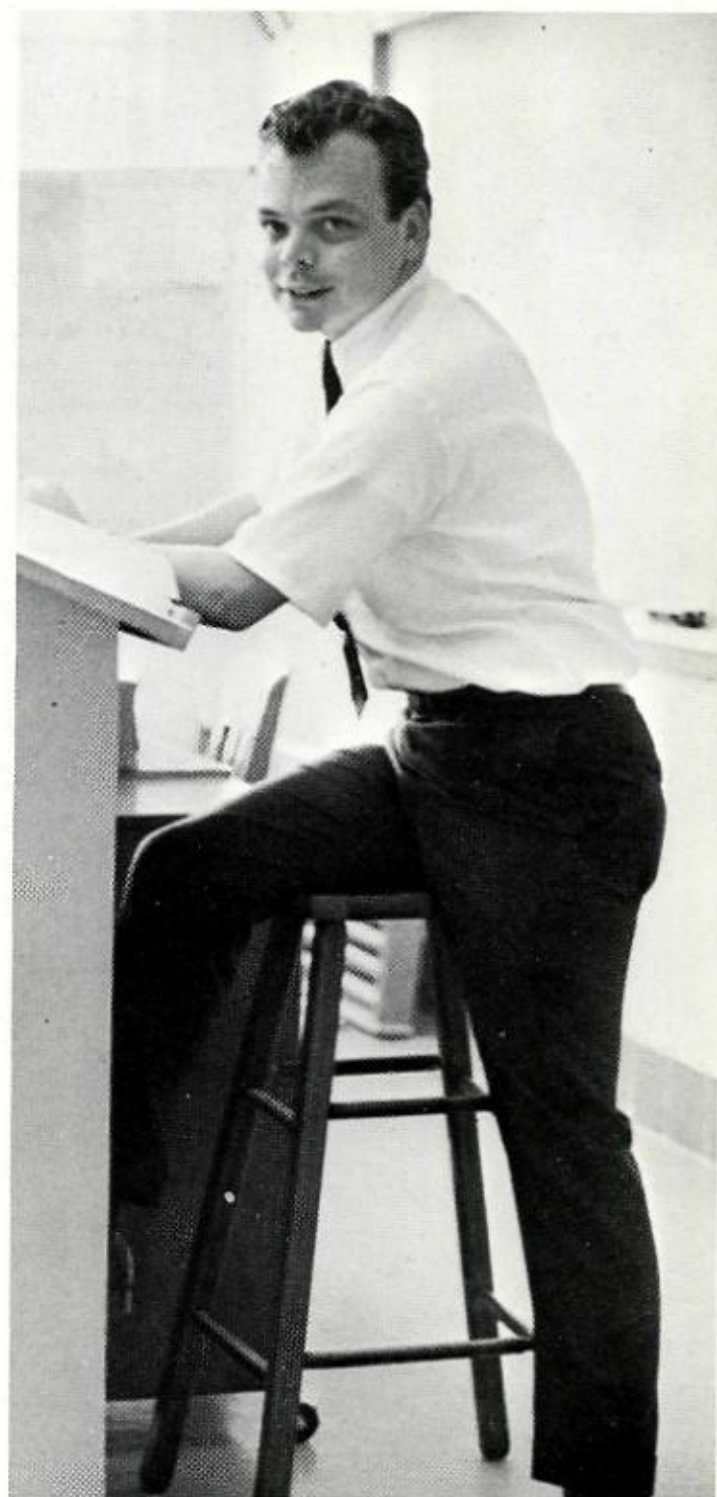

Rosemary Abernathy looks on as Mrs. Matthews explains the structure of the stereoscopic microscope.

Attaching a final piece of crepe paper to Mrs. Cassel's winning homeroom door is David Fuller.

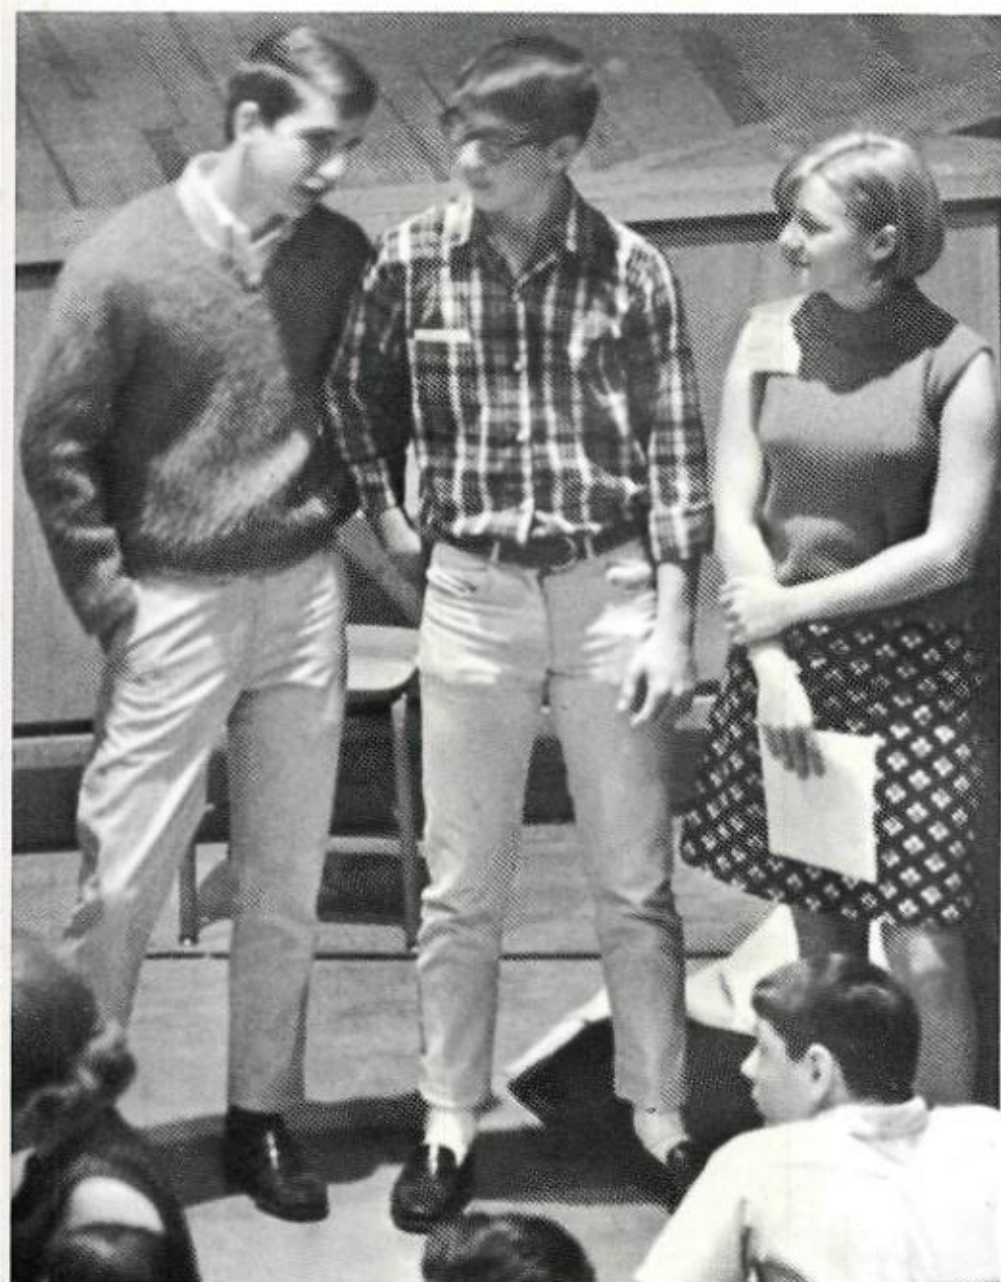

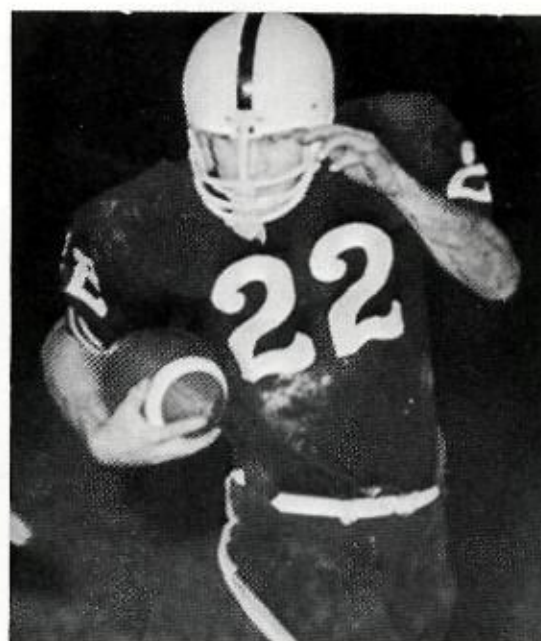

While searching for information for an English paper, senior Beckie Miller studies one of the reference books in our school library.

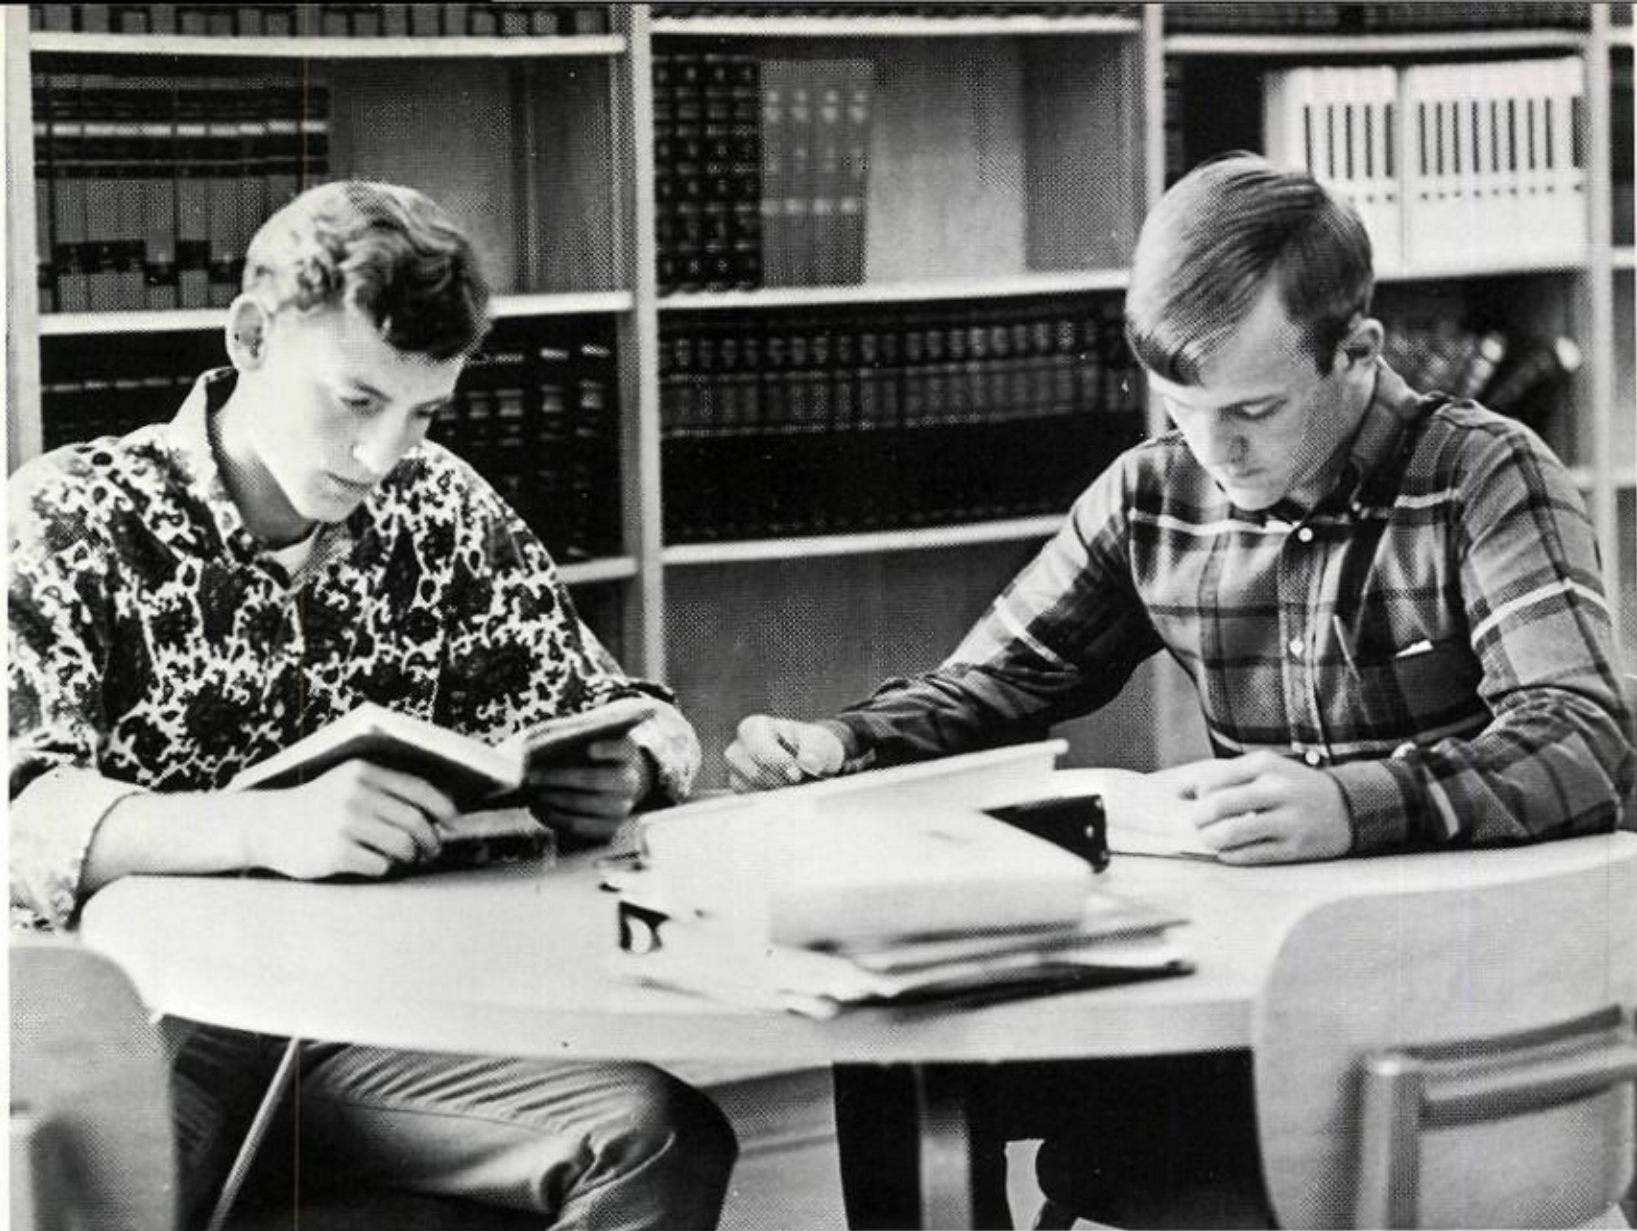

Mr. Leffingwell lectures on one of the many facets of the American system of government.

Discussing the possibilities of becoming a freshmen class officer are Skippy Heffernan, George Rivers, and Beth Nelson.

Junior Benny Collier lunges forward in an attempt to gain yardage.

Juniors Bill Zimmerman and Tommy Werry take full advantage of the facilities in the library.

While working in metal shop, Robert Carlyle and Larry Lawson receive technical and practical training in metal trades.

1966 Football Season Enlivened by Tiger Spirit, Enthusiasm

Each Friday morning the gym is filled with Tiger supporters ready to boost the team to victory. Big Irvi reigns at each pep rally as Tiger fans exhibit their vivacity.

Toy Tigers, cheerleaders, the band, and Big Irvi Keepers make pep rallies colorful, musical, exciting, and entertaining. Skits performed by cheerleaders and Big Irvi Keepers add humor to pep rallies. Toy Tigers perform hand routines to music played by the band.

Football season is not only practice time for the football team. The cheerleaders are busy learning new yells, the band new music and formations, and the Toy Tigers new routines. Pep rallies are the height of Tiger spirit.

After a weekly pep rally, Big Irvi and keepers exit to the fight song.

Performances of hand routines by Toy Tigers are always a welcomed part of pep rallies.

During a pep rally skit for the Richland game, Bobby Willingham and Jeanne Carter act as Chicken Man and the Commissioner.

A Senior tri-captain Damon Reeves assures IHS that the Tigers will fight for victory.

IHS Cheerleaders Awarded Overall Spirit Award

This summer our spirit-making six traveled to Sam Houston State College cheerleading school where their enthusiasm enabled them to win the overall spirit award. Being a cheerleader is not all "fun". It requires extensive practice, concentration, and imagination. Our cheerleaders have experience and ability which enables them to be an integral part of school life.

Mrs. Anne Uhr sponsors the cheerleaders this year with Jerrell Herron serving as captain. Keith Graham and Jeanne Carter also have places as cheerleaders for the Dallas Cowboys. Pam Loaring-Clark is a former cheerleader from Crockett Jr. High, and Linda Clark is a former Big Irvi Keeper. Senior Bobby Willingham is a member of the track team.

'Bad Seed' Performance Marks

Individuals interested in acting, directing, and play production exhibited their talents this year through the Thespian play production "Bad Seed". This year marks the twelfth anniversary of the Maxwell Anderson play. The cast received a standing ovation both nights, December 8 and 9.

Debra Black and Gail Chancey served as student directors. The cast included: Rhoda Penmark, Tina Neff; Kenneth Penmark, Ron Cowart; Christine Penmark, Vicki Jones; Monica Breedlove, Cindi Dixon; Emory Wages, Lindsey Horton; Leroy, David Hill; Miss Fern, Sherry Kelso; Reginald Tasker, Rick Huebner; Mr. Daigle, Joe Shaw; Mrs. Daigle, Gwen Crandall; Richard Bravo, Barry Sprouse; Messenger, Rusty Shaw. The play was under the direction of Mr. George Morrow, drama club sponsor.

Learning that her daughter is a murderer, Mrs. Penmark (Vicki Jones) explains to Rhoda (Tina Neff) that she will try to help her.

After a long separation from his granddaughter (Tina Neff), Mr. Bravo (Barry Sprouse) greets her as Monica (Cindi Dixon) looks on.

Play's Twelfth Anniversary

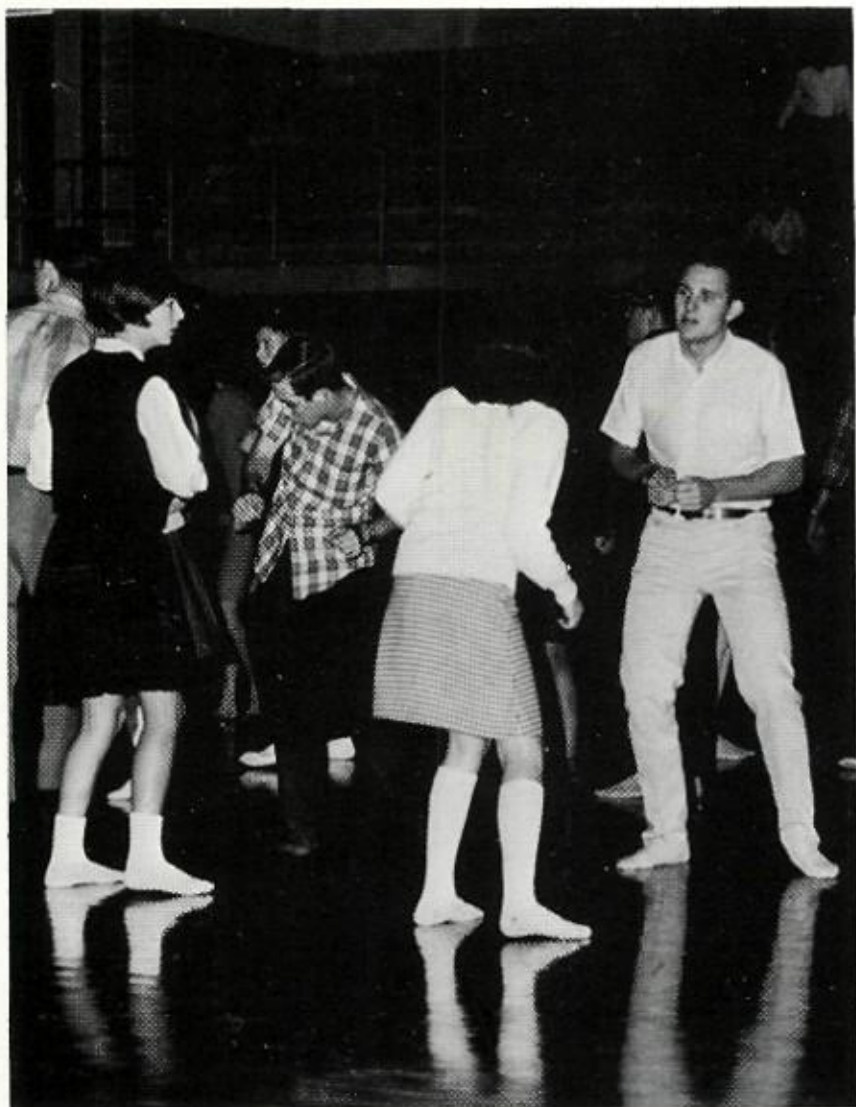

Before leaving, Mr. Bravo (Barry Sprouse) reminds Christine (Vicki Jones) that worrying will accomplish nothing.

Stricken with horror, Richard Bravo (Barry Sprouse) tells Christine (Vicki Jones) that Rhoda may have inherited an instinct to murder.

Warning Rhoda that he knows she is a murderer, Leroy (David Hill) threatens to break his silence.

Enjoying the sock hop honoring the basketball team are Nancy Hazelbaker, Ronnie Foster, Ginny Goodman, and Jerry Lynch.

Members of the council's social committee are Debbie Dortch, Pam Loaring, Clark, Sue Hodges, Linda Moffett, and Ginny Goodman.

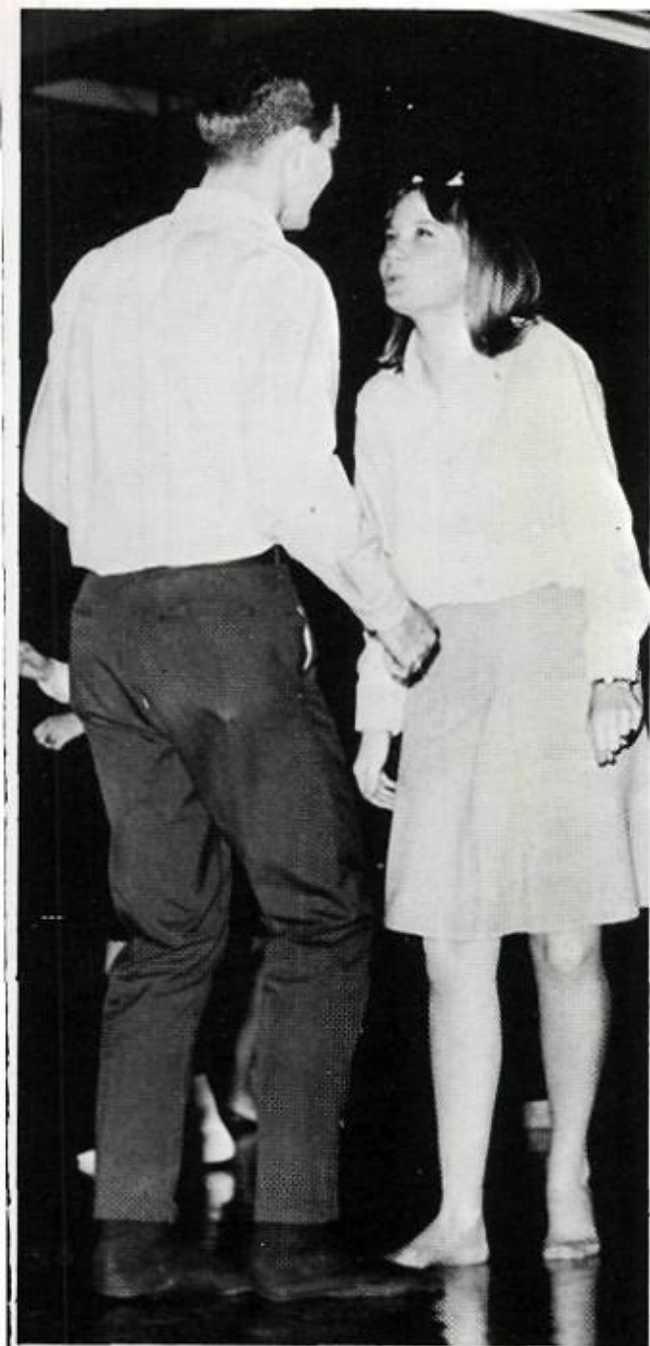

Council Turns Spotlight on Activities

Joyce Butts, Geri Harrison, Neal Valenta, Kim Crockett, Jeri Culwell, Wayne Dickson, Al Anderson, Skippy Heffernan, Rod Green, David Allen, Gail Chancey, Rickie Craft, and Vickie Jones are members of the publicity committee, Reporters Lindsey Horton, James Beaver, Jerry Self, Sherri Duke, and Carol Smartt survey a Rag issue for errors.

Purchasing a Friday 13 issue of the Tiger Rag from Janice Moyer is senior Pat Warren.

Scoops of School Year Covered By Rag Staff

Since 1941 the Tiger Rag has been giving participants practical training in journalism. Reporting accurately and impartially, the staff members are instructed by Mrs. Dorothy Sprinkle.

Available bi-monthly, the paper covers as many school activities as possible. The sound-off editorial column is a new and interesting feature. In addition to many interviews with students, the Tiger Rag prints adult opinions and encourages students to become informed on current events.

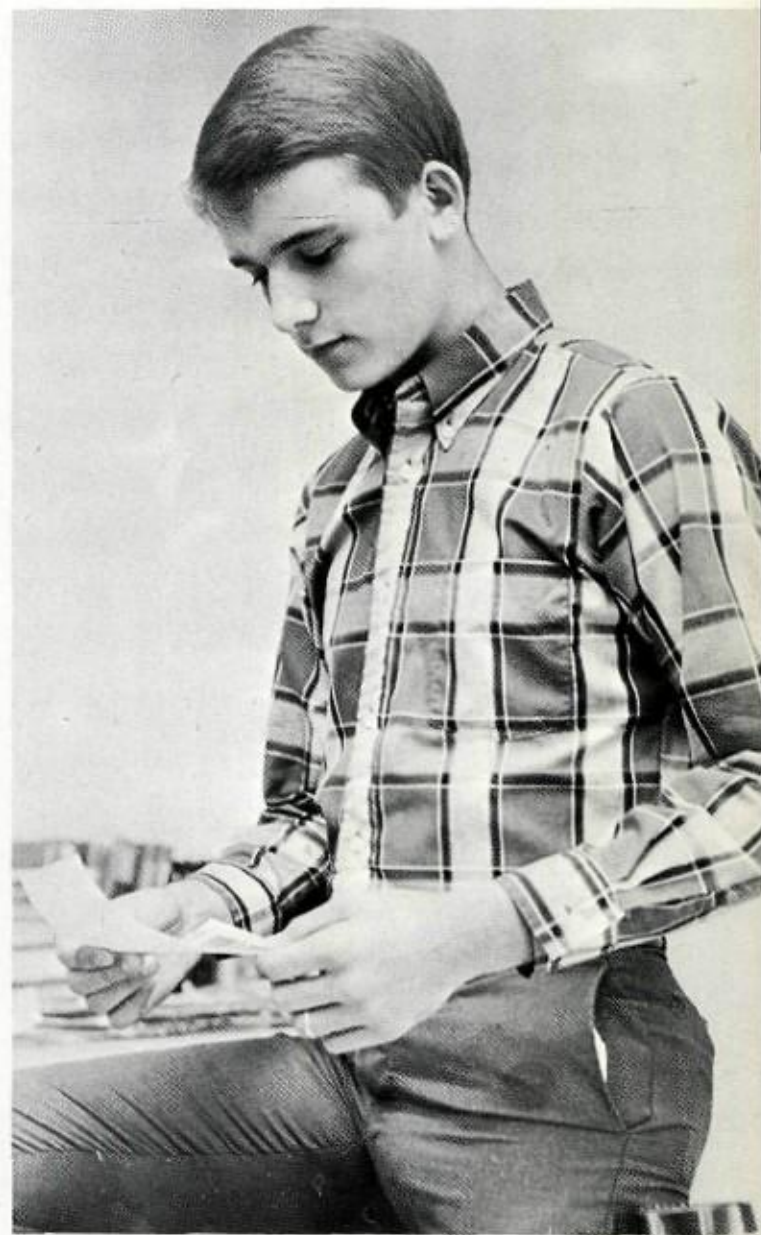

This spring the staff traveled to Austin to attend the UIL journalism convention.

Editor Janice Moyer and assistant editor Jackie Cherico prepare for the distribution of the latest Tiger Rag issue.

Using the dictionary is an essential part of newspaper work, as Mary Hardee learns.

Preparing a sports story, reporter Larry Sawyer examines a photograph.

Presenting a pep rally skit, Big Irvi Keepers portray characters from the popular comic strip "Peanuts".

Big Irvi Keepers Present Popular 'Peanuts' Skit

For five years, Mrs. Anne Uhr has been sponsor of the Big Irvi Keepers and cheerleaders.

Serving as Big Irvi Keepers for 1966-67 are Melody Rennie, Nancy Hazelbaker, Kathy Smith, Mindy Cadwalder, Gail Chancey, Vicki Jones, Pam Clendennon, and Becky Baker.

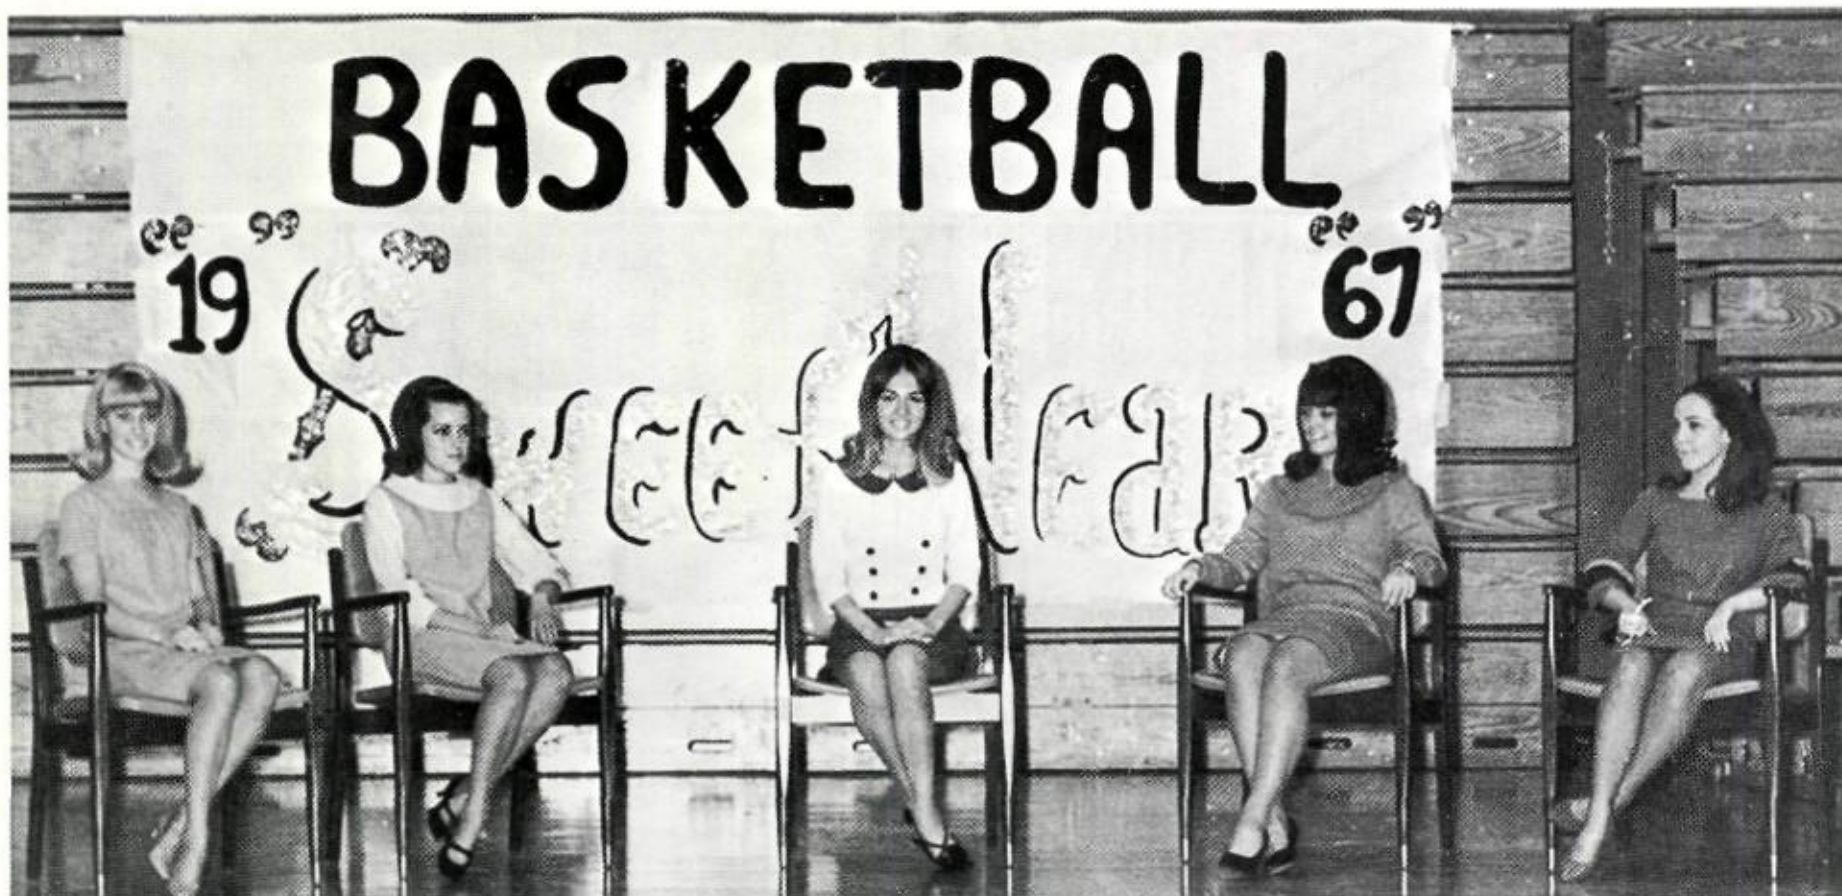

Senior Melody Rennie serves as captain of Big Irvi Keepers.

Symbol of Tiger spirit, Big Irvi leads the homecoming parade, as his keepers Vicki Jones, Pam Clendennon.

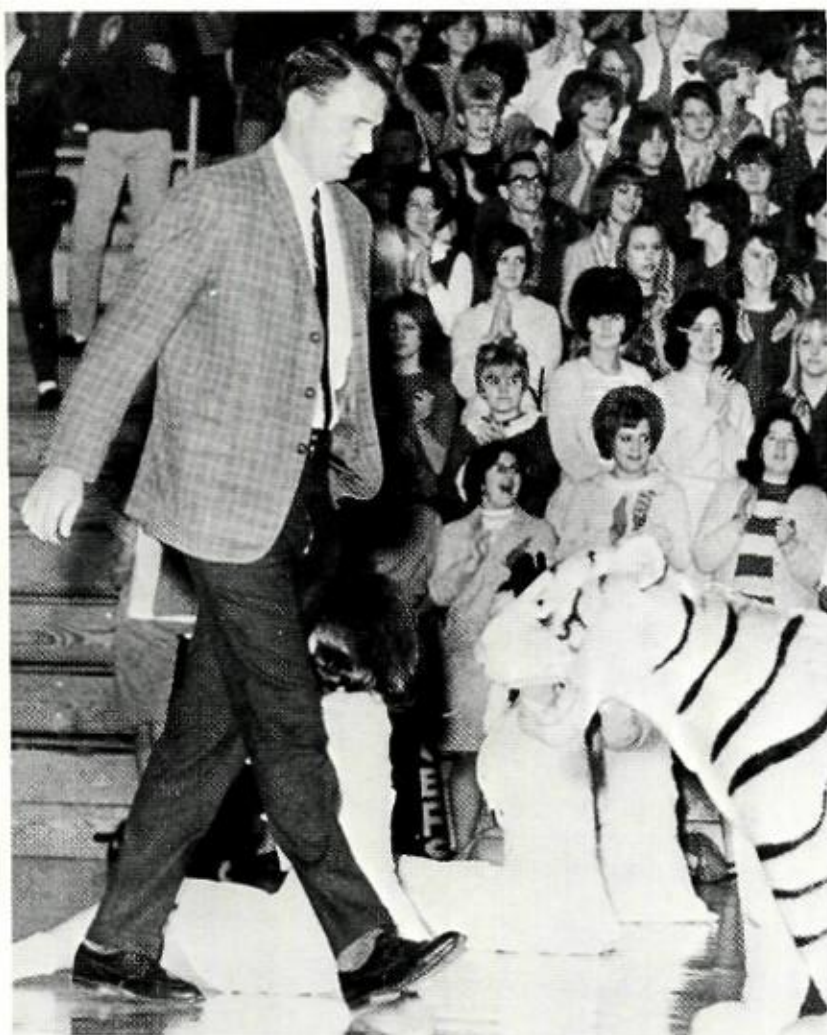

Kathy Smith, Mindy Cadwalder, Gail Chancey, and Nancy Hazelbaker wave to the crowds.

"66-'67 Basketball Sweetheart Linda Harlin and Princesses Phyllis Hoffman, Jeanne Carter, Jan Long, and Kim Crockett wait for the Tigers to begin the second half of the basketball game against Richland.

Winter Bounces in With Basketball

Coach Paul Ingle glances at IHS mascot Big Irvi as he starts to speak to the student body at the pep rally.

B-team roundballer Doug Haak eyes the hoop with the intention of sparking the team to a win as James Howard awaits the rebound.

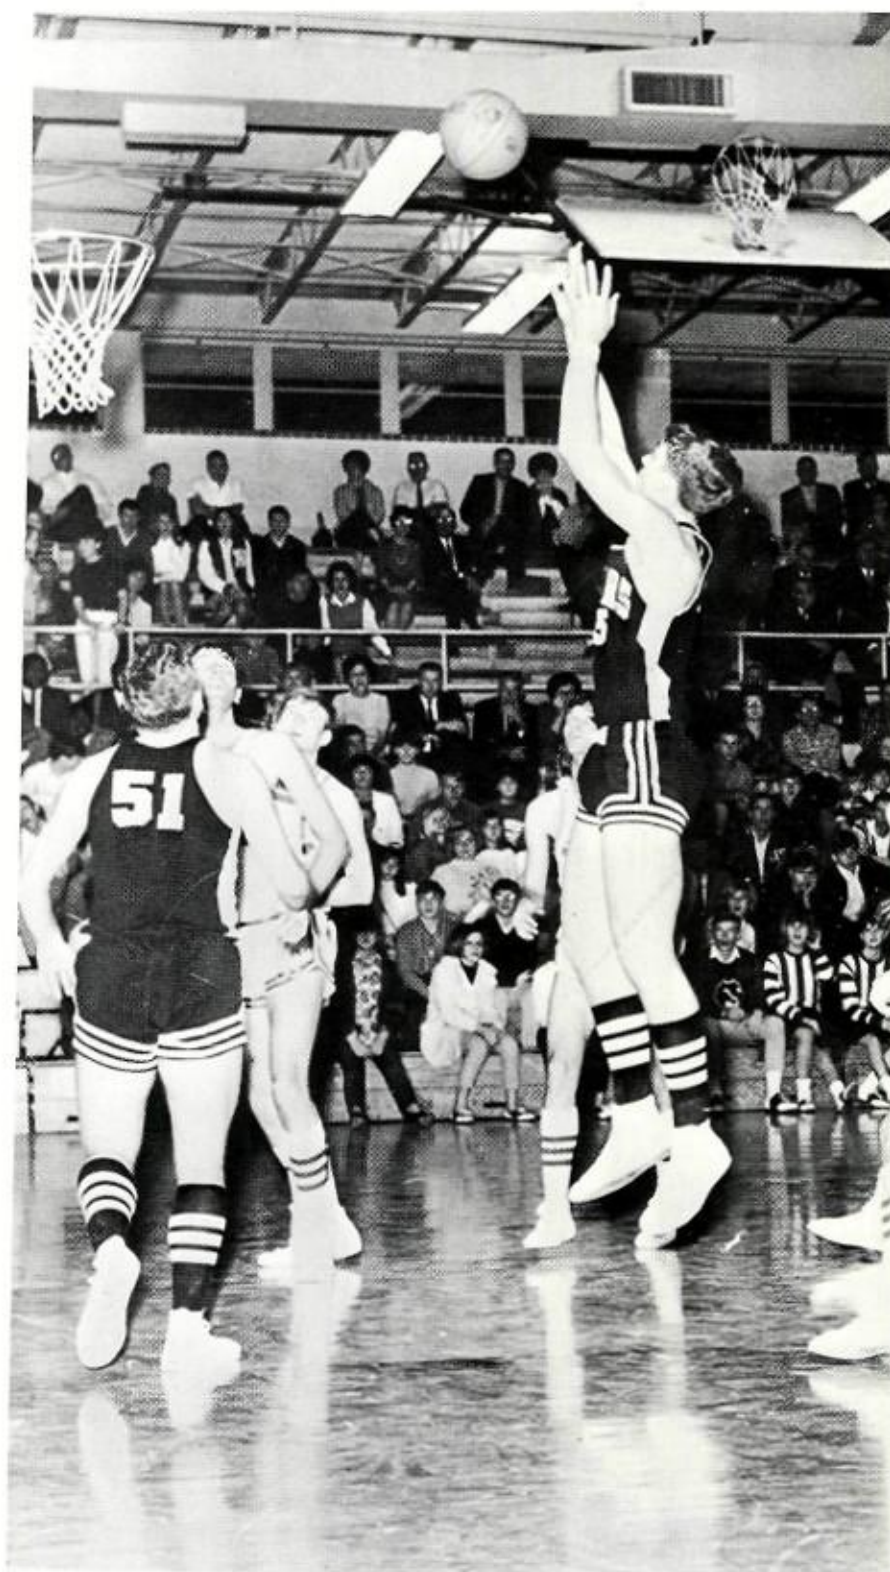

Cheerleader Linda Clark leads the student body in the "Roll Call Yell" in the pep rally held to honor the team.

Reaching for the jump ball is Kelvin Korver as Larry Jamieson stands by to help him in the action.

Kelvin Korver shoots toward the basket and Jerry Lynch waits for the rebound so the Tigers can score to victory.

'If a Man Answers' Is 1967 Senior

After being welcomed by Gene (Terry Littleton), Tina Brooks (Kathleen Crow) ignores the resentment of Chantal (Elaine Robbins).

As Mrs. Stacey (Monica Mote) looks on in amazement, John Stacey (David Hill) warns Chantal that she must break her three engagements.

"If a Man Answers," the senior class play of 1967, received a standing ovation both nights it was presented, February 16 and 17. This is the humorous account of a girl of French-Boston descent who marries a photographer. Her mother gives her rather odd advice on how to keep her husband happy.

Members of the cast include Monica Mote, Elaine Robbins, Terry Littleton, David Hill, Kathleen Crow, Ron Cowart, Linda Moffett, Bobbie Morse, Margaret Fallon, Chris Walker, Larry Nolan, Lori Girdner, and Karen Kunkel. The play was directed by Mrs. Dumm with the assistance of Gwen Crandall and Ruth Woodson.

Ticket sales totaled more than $2600, the most amount of money ever made by a senior class play. The money was used to finance the prom, held at the Apparel Mart.

Unsuccessfully, Gene Wright tries to convince Miss Stacey that his interest in her is only professional.

Play Offering

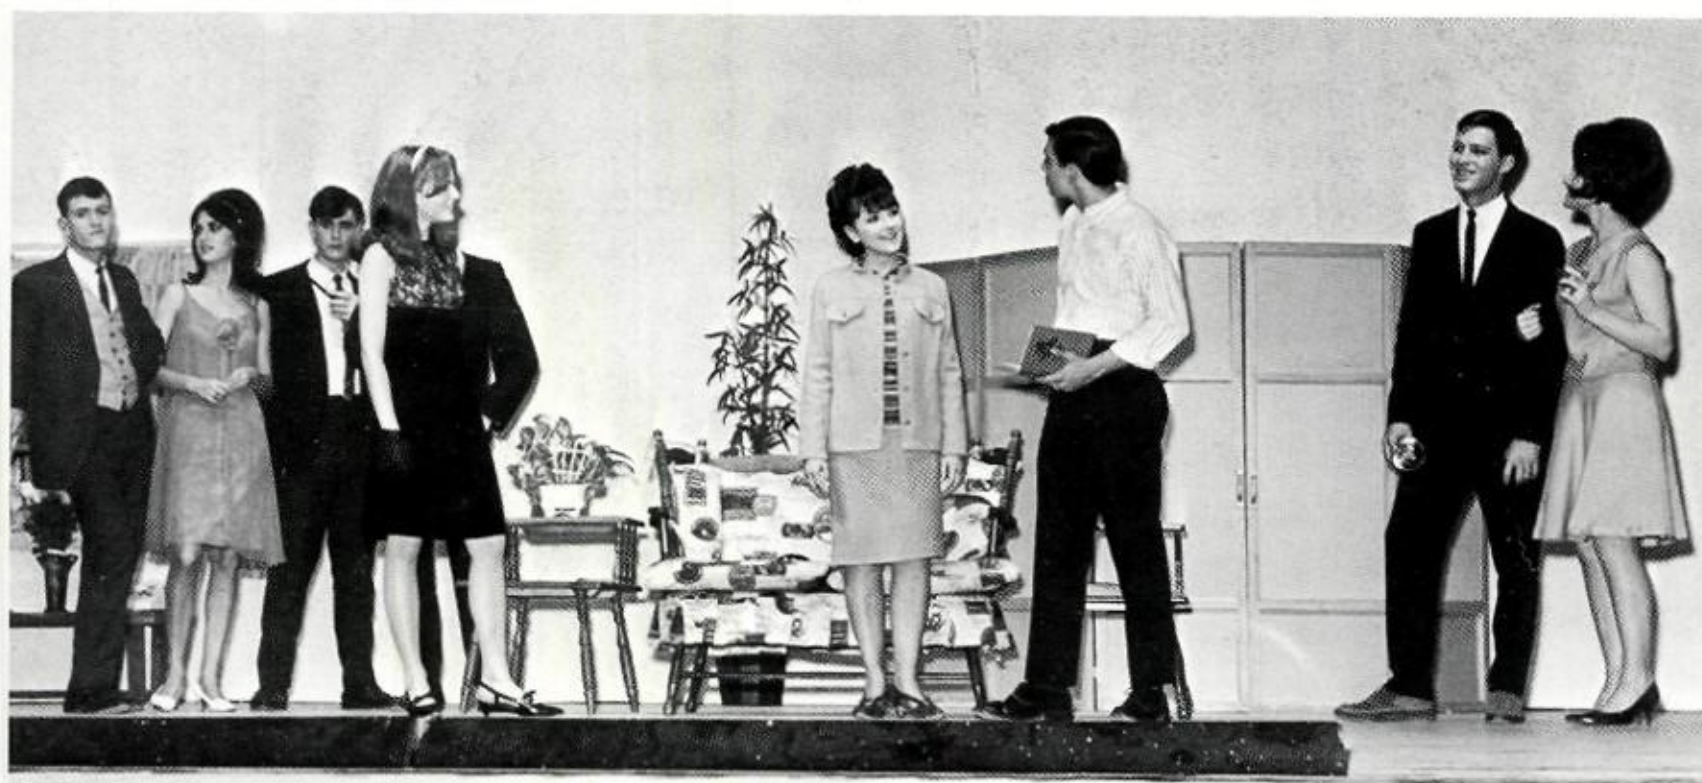

"But you are a figment!" exclaims Chantal as Robert Swan (Ron Cowart) unexpectedly visits the Wrights.

Party guests Jerrell Herron, Bobbie Morse, Mike Weger, Darwin Slaughter, Phil Lively, and Margaret Fallon, wonder curiously at the fact that Tina has told Gene that Chantal has trained him with a dog training book.

Typing exams is only a small part of teaching for Miss Marcia Miller, German and Spanish instructor.

Conducting an advanced general science experiment, Mrs. Jimmie Stephens uses white mice for a skin graft.

Mr. David York and Mrs. Barbara Carrell attend the going-away party held in honor of Mr. Wayne Martin.

Coach Paul Ingle pitches at batting practice to members of the baseball team.

Keeping up with current events and happenings in schools across the country are two of the many jobs handled by Mr. Norman Hughes.

Faculty Involved With Exams, Experiments, Extracurriculars

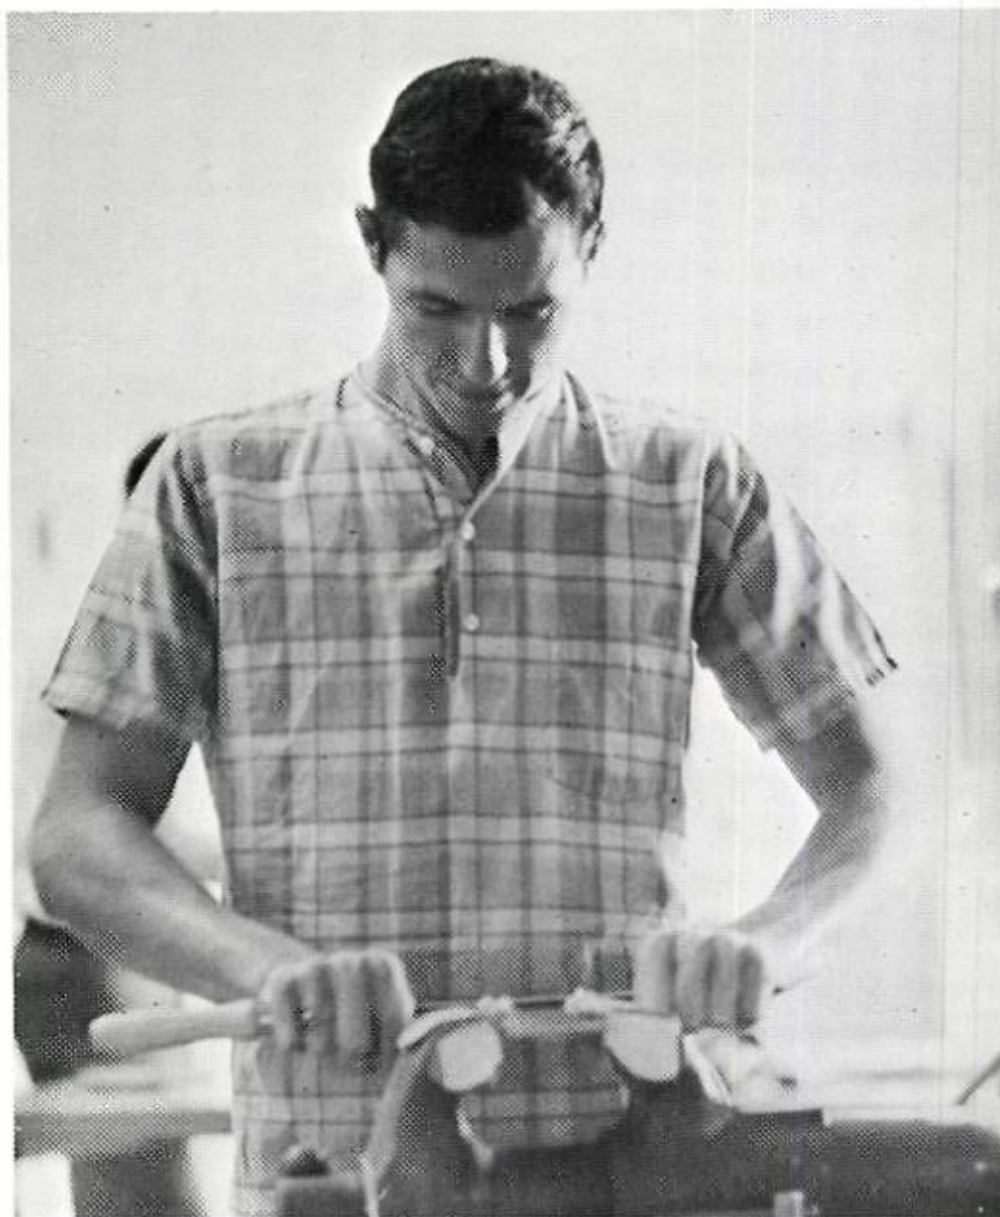

After mimeographing an English II paper, Mrs. Anne Bishop returns to test her class.

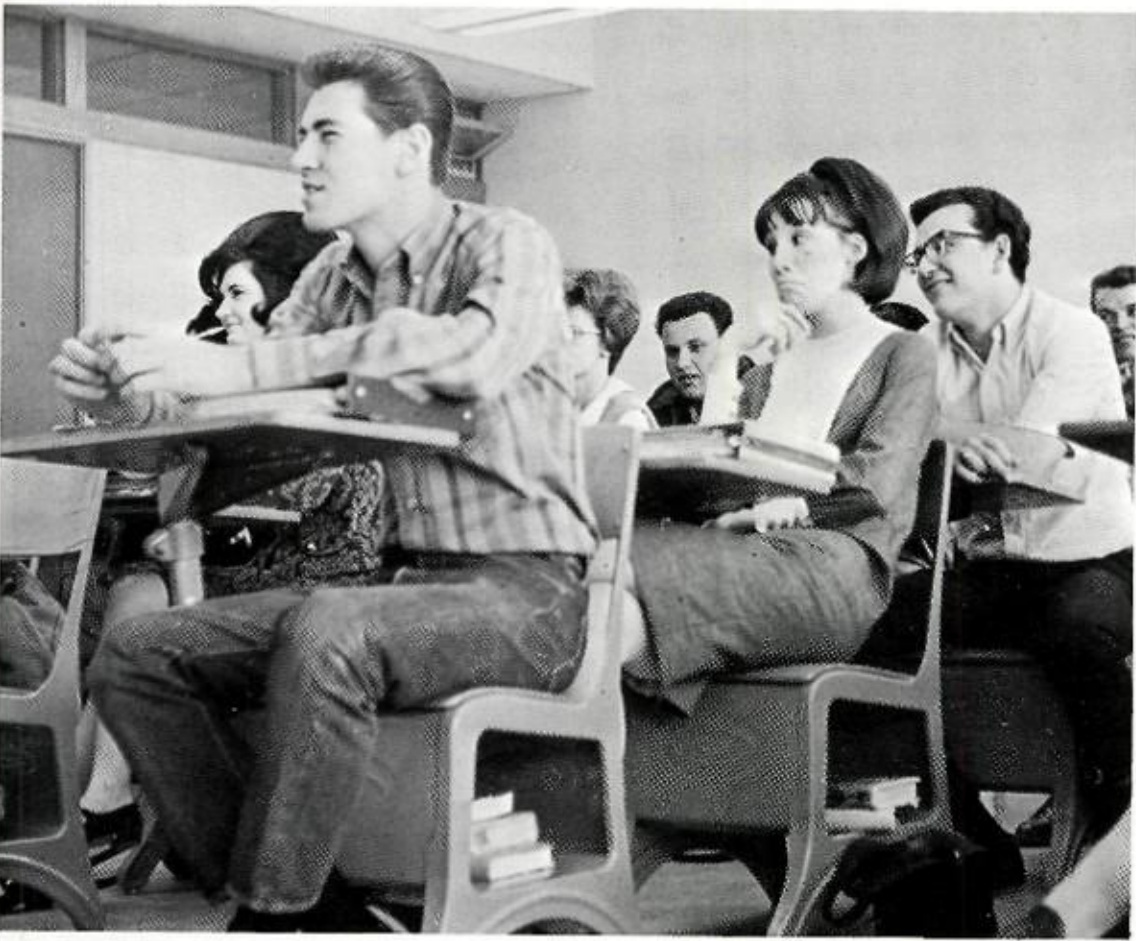

Shop students in the metal department load the bicycle racks they constructed for delivery to Irving's elementary schools.

An essential part of practical knowledge in cooking is eating what you prepare, as demonstrated by Linda Bates.

In metal shop, Larry Turner uses the vise so he can file on his project.

Sometimes facts are not easy for students to accept, and Ronnie Hale, Bonnie Brietler, and Don Sheffield seem to be carrying on the tradition.

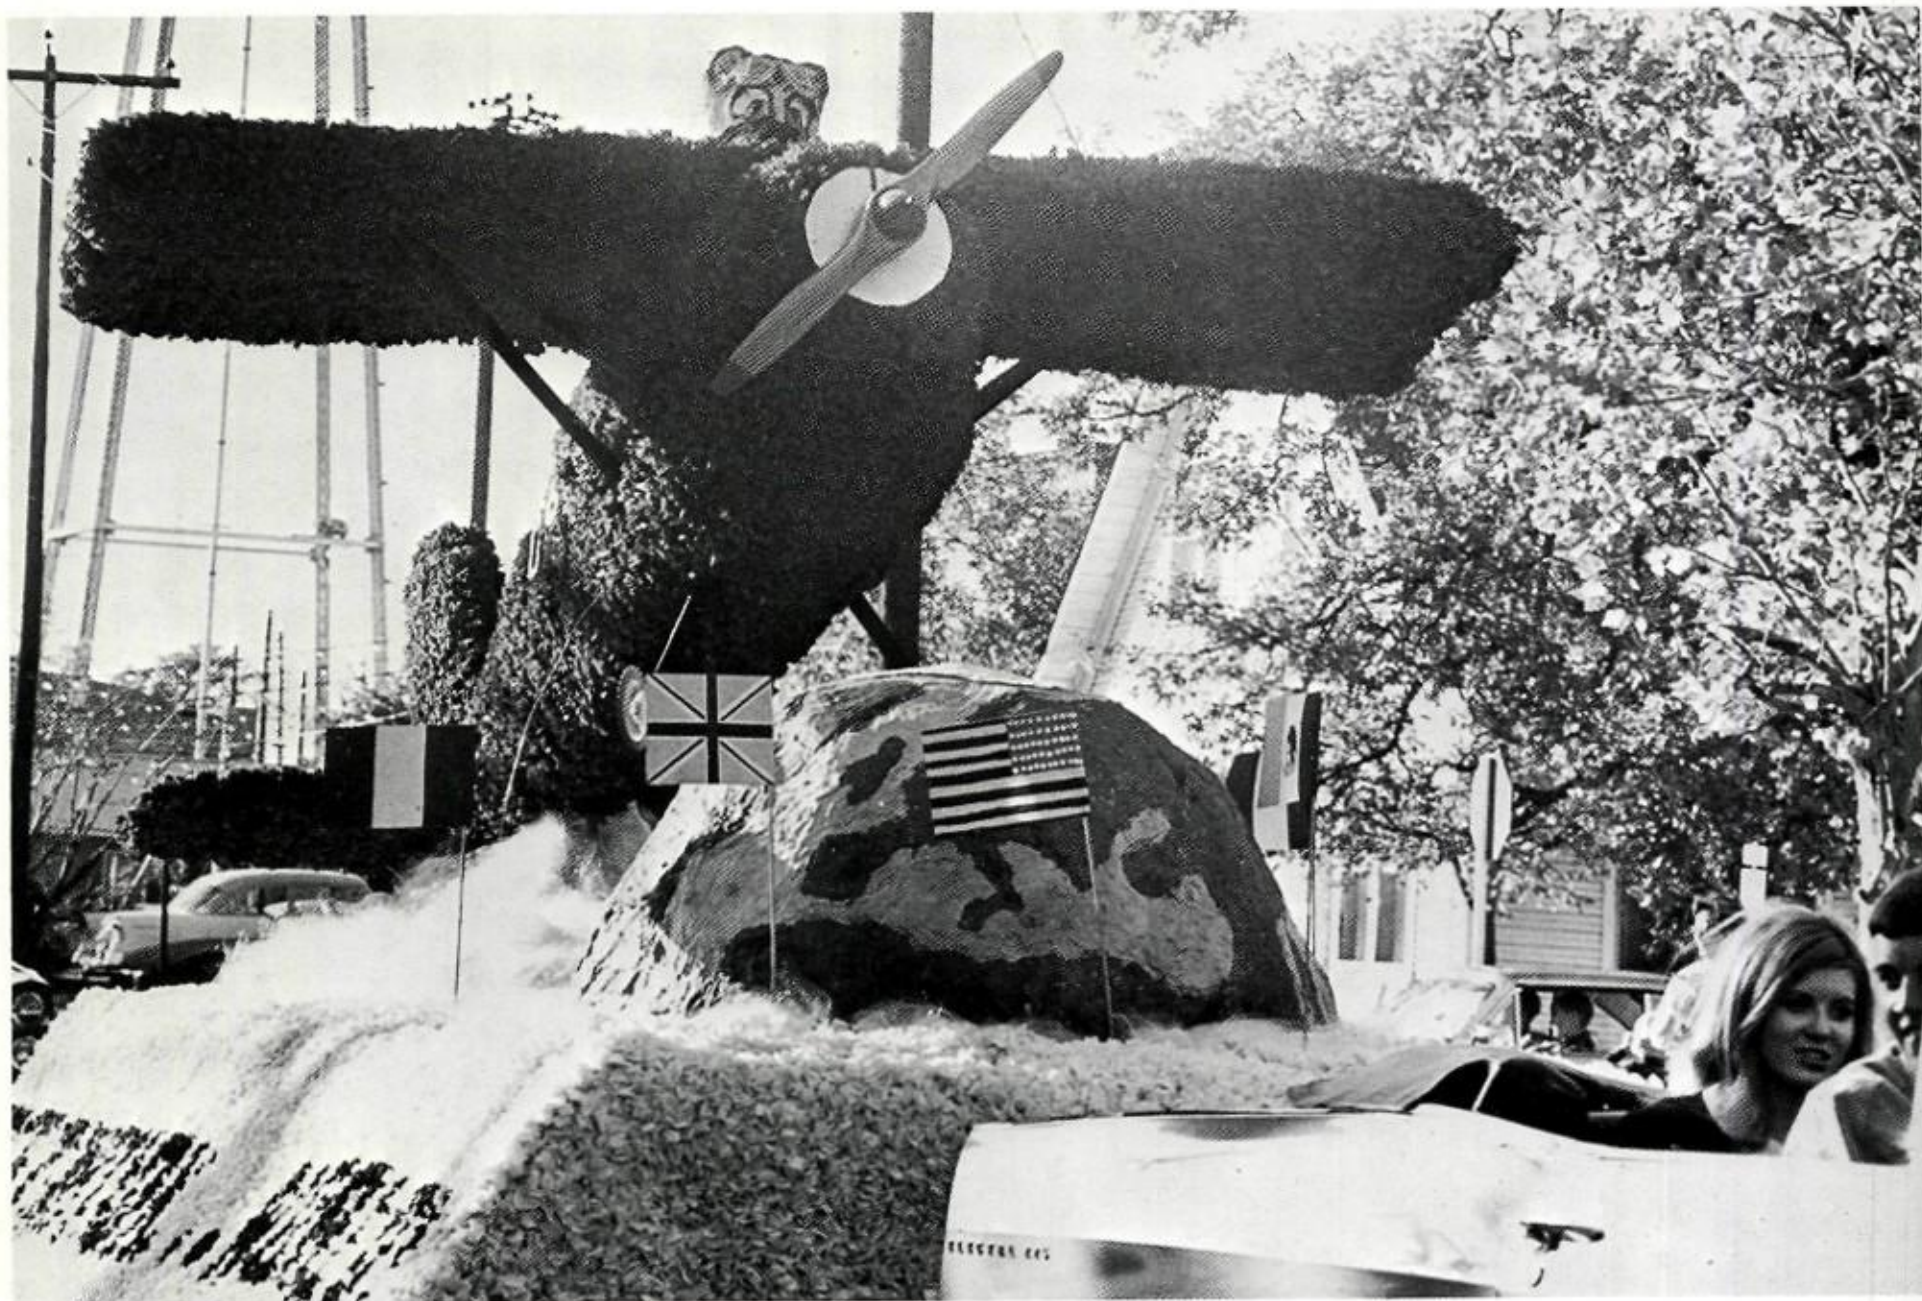

Scope of Students Includes Varied Scholastic Activities

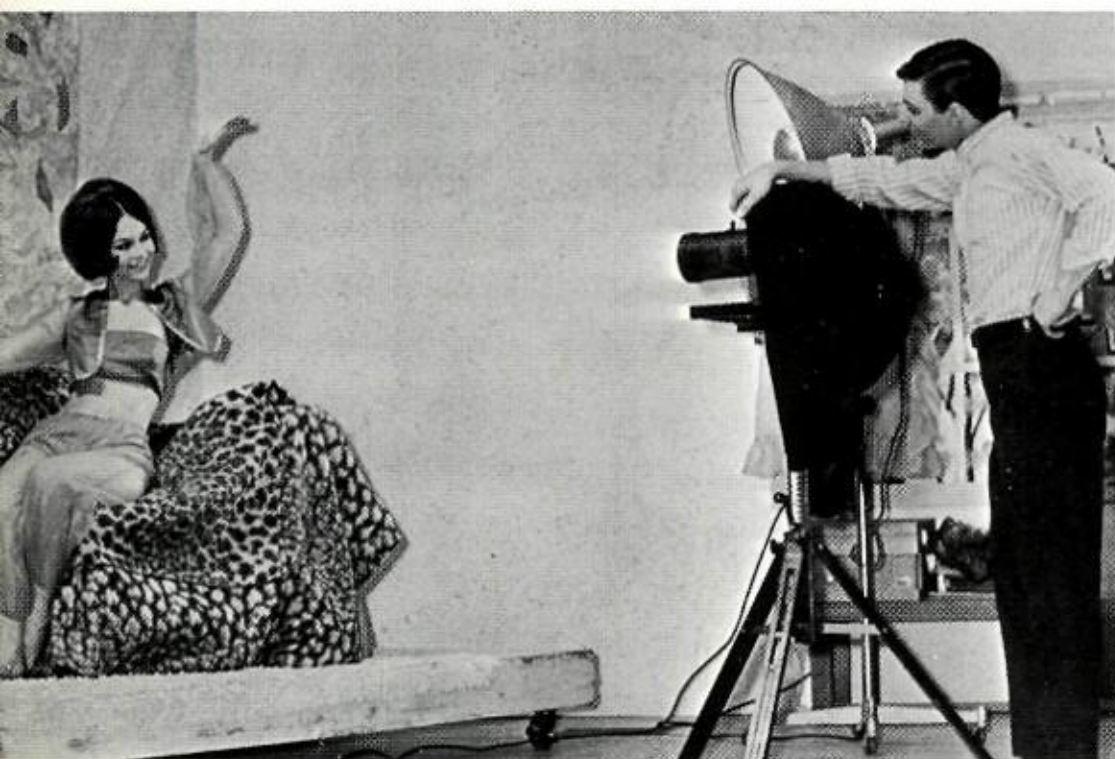

Student teacher Bonnie Cheves finds American History is often a nerve-racking subject.

Students quickly learn the trials of a normal day at the ever-busy A-hall intersection.

The tiger, piloting the seniors' "Spirit of '67," is flying high in the Homecoming parade.

Explaining to Europa (Linda Moffett) that she does not have the right pose, Gene (Terry Littleton) gives up in frustration in the senior play.

Urging 100% backing of the football team, Senior end Dennis Stephan boosts Tiger spirit with a speech at the Homecoming pep rally.

'67 SENIORS, Smallest Class at IHS, Proves Most Active

Adding finishing touches on a goal post banner for a pep rally is senior art student Mike Stark.

Kelvin Korver enjoys being a little boy as he and Chris Walker make the most of the senior costume party.

After making her final payment, Linda Miller receives her senior ring from Mr. Kelly Shyro.

Spring Ushered In By Sports, Drill Team, Parties

Along with sunshine, wind, and that end-of-school fever, spring brought more sports and activities to IHS. In preparation for the half-time of the annual Black and Gold game, Mrs. Casey worked with new Toy Tigers and leaders. Irving was well represented both in and out of town through track meets, golf matches, and baseball games.

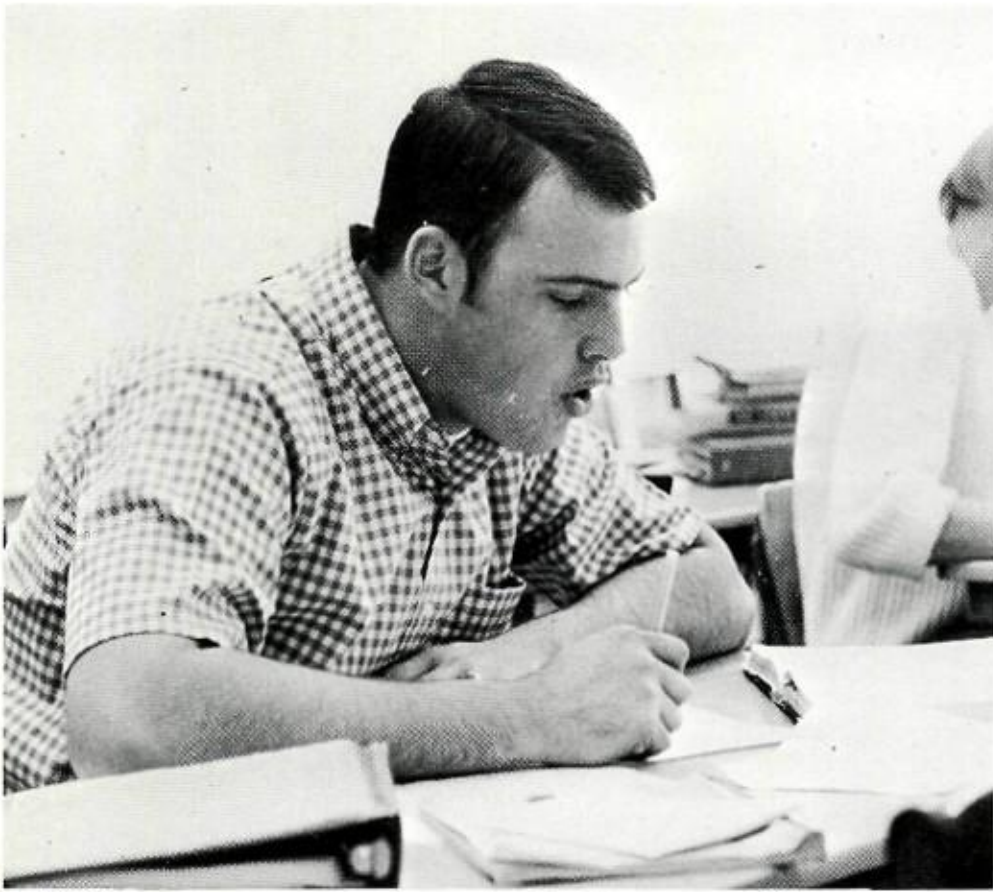

A discotheque party was held by the juniors, and the seniors portrayed "L'il Abner's and Daisy May's" at their Sadie Hawkins party. As things began to grow calmer, the spring formal, sponsored by the Student Council, was held in April. May, the month of seniors, brought the long-awaited prom and final farewells at graduation.

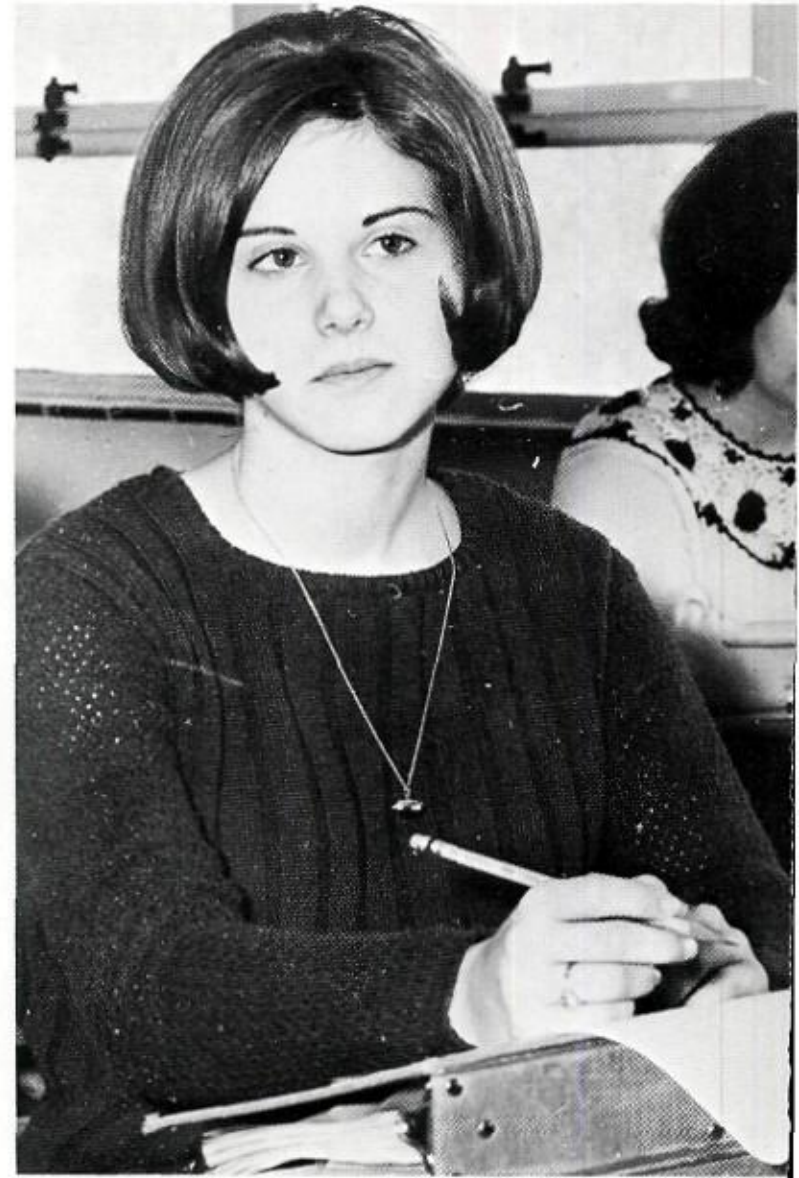

After many hours of practice and try-outs, Terry Withers, Sherry Bailey, Donna Beavers, Ginger Caldwell, Judy Brem, and Becky Melton are chosen as the new drill team leaders.

Junior rightfielder Ricky Harris steps into the pitch in front of the open mitt of catcher Pete Womble.

A two year varsity member and tri-captain of the Tiger football team, Bill Hasting was elected Toy Tigers Tiger.

Elected by the varsity football team as the '66-'67 football sweetheart is senior Carolyn Williamson.

The honor of Top Toy Tiger was given to Cindy Russell who was also president of the drill team.

Elected in the spring to serve as Band Sweetheart is senior band student Nancy McHorse.

Groups Honor Outstanding Students

Linda Harlin smiles at the students as she is announced as the '66-'67 basketball sweetheart.

Each year many students receive awards for outstanding leadership in an organization, sweethearts and beaux are elected, and banquets are held to celebrate a long year's work.

Unfortunately not all of the honors can be acknowledged in the LAIR because so many announcements are made in the late spring.

Elected by members of the respective clubs and organizations, the following were honored at special events: Carolyn Williamson, football sweetheart; Phyllis Roland, choir sweetheart; Bill Hastings, Toy Tigers' Tiger; Cindy Russell, Top Toy Tiger; Nancy McHorse, band sweetheart. Congratulations go to these people!

Phyllis Roland, accompanist for the A Cappella choir, was announced as choir sweetheart at their annual banquet.

One of the most important parts of any school is its faculty, supervisors, and maintenance crews. The wide range of curricula at IHS have brought together instructors of varied backgrounds. Office personnel keep the school running smoothly, while supervisors coordinate all phases of its activities. Maintenance crews are continuously busy with the upkeep of school facilities.

Board of Education Meets Twice

Important decisions concerning Irving High School have been left to Board of Education members and superintendent of Irving Public Schools, W. T. Hanes. The ability of these men has been shown by the steady pace they have kept while planning Irving High School's curricular activities.

Board members and Superintendent Hanes banded together during the 1967 school year to keep the operation of IHS on a strict balanced budget.

Meeting bi-monthly, the city administration created plans to better the Irving Public Schools System and carry them out as well. Purchasing land for future institutional sites also was an important item of consideration to board members.

Mr Norman Hughes Serves Fifth Year

As principal of IHS Mr. Hughes takes an active interest in both students and faculty. He is a graduate of Fort Worth's Paschal High School. He received his B.S. and M.E. degrees from Texas Christian University, and came to Irving in 1957. He has since been a coach, a biology teacher, a principal at Bowie, and finally principal of Irving High. Mr. Hughes has a wife, Dorothy, and two sons.

The great amount of time and energy expended by Mr. Hughes to the office of principal has earned him a sincere respect from everyone associated with IHS

Secretaries Keep Attendance Records

Keeping IHS organized meant much to the smooth operation of Irving High this school year. With the efficiency of the office personnel, the steady pace kept by all remained unbroken.

The attendance office demanded skill and effectiveness in keeping records of attendance throughout the year. Attendance office secretaries handled enrollments, withdrawals, and daily attendance. A statistical report was due from the secretaries at the end of each six weeks to prepare report cards.

Collecting data for the Data Management Center, Mrs. Bettye Tompkins prepared IBM cards for students' schedule changes.

Clinic Provides Medical Assistance

Student welfare is the major concern of the school nurses, who deal with all injuries contracted by students during the school day.

Dealing with sicknesses ranging from minor cuts to fainting, the nurses must constantly be alert to all school accidents. Being responsible for the students, the nurses work in modern facilities, including areas of rest for students with minor illnesses.

The capable staff is headed by Mrs. Lois DeAndrea, who has been with the school for eighteen years.

English Department Adds New Teacher

When Mr. Nathan Tinkle resigned his position as English I instructor to accept another position, more than one hundred students were left without a teacher. The vacancy was soon filled, however, by Mrs. Charlene Terry, who became the English department's newest teacher.

Literature, composition, and grammar are the basic elements taught in the English department at IHS. Knowledge and experience are acquired through studies of techniques and styles of many different authors. A term paper is required of all junior and senior students, which teaches the skills of research and advanced composition. Practical English classes are offered for those senior students not planning to attend college.

Mrs. Doris Hostad instructs students in Elementary Analysis, a new course demonstrating the principles of college algebra.

College-Bound

One of the new courses offered this year under the direction of Mrs. Doris Hostad was Elementary Analysis. Because it is a higher form of algebra, it enabled many college-bound students to become acquainted with the more complex problems in college algebra.

Another new offer in the field of math was the slide rule class. Since it was held both before and after school, many more students were able to attend. Under the instruction of Mrs. Carol Olt, many students learned to operate this instrument rapidly and accurately. Although the slide rules were expensive, they were a benefit to all for quicker, more precise calculations.

Homemaking Classes Have Style Show

Working together as a team, the fine arts classes—band, art, choral, and homemaking—produced many interesting programs.

Introducing the new styles of spring and summer, the homemaking classes presented a fashion show in the IHS auditorium. With the assistance of the art department, which designed and painted the backdrop for the show, the latest fashions were revealed.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas, the band and choirs displayed their musical abilities in two programs. Again, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Odom, the art classes created the background scenery.

Poise and grace are important qualities demonstrated to Linda Hunter by Sanger-Harris fashion model, Rosemary Lovell.

Practicing every morning, members of the girls' choir work to improve their performances.

Ricker Directs Construction of House

Interests were found through the new courses offered on vocational education this year. Building a house was an unusual project sponsored by the woodworking classes. Under the direction of Mr. Roy Ricker, junior and senior boys constructed a brick home on Grauwylar Road. While earning credits the boys gained experience as carpenters.

Another course, Vocational Office Education, or secretarial training, taught girls how to operate various office machines. After attending school until noon, the girls worked for business firms and learned the techniques of office professions.

Mike Willingham

Receiving the most votes for Top Tiger is Mike Willingham. In four years at IHS, this Senior has won many honors. Mike has been in the National Honor Society for two years and served as vice-president this year. He also held the office of class president as a freshman and a junior. In addition, he has earned the honor of Who's Who in Drafting.

But Mike's ability does not end with academics. The I-Association is proud to claim him as a member. He earned his letter in golf, having played on the team for four years. Mike's creative ability can be seen by glancing at the sports section of this book. He served as section head on the Lair with no previous experience. The Spanish club and Drama club are also on Mike's long list of activities.

Well deserving the honor of Top Tigerette, Linda Moffett has been active in school organizations and activities since her freshman year. Linda was a Big Irvi Keeper for three years and a member of the Toy Tigers for two. She joined the Drama Club as a sophomore and became a National Thespian this year as a result of her parts in "Skin of Our Teeth" and the Senior play, "If A Man Answers". She was Class Beauty as both a junior and a senior.

Linda has been on the Lair staff for three years and has been section head of Academics and Activities. As a student Council member, she represented her class for two years, and served in the capacity of reporter-historian last year. Also keeping Linda busy were Spanish club, Future Teachers of America, and National Honor Society.

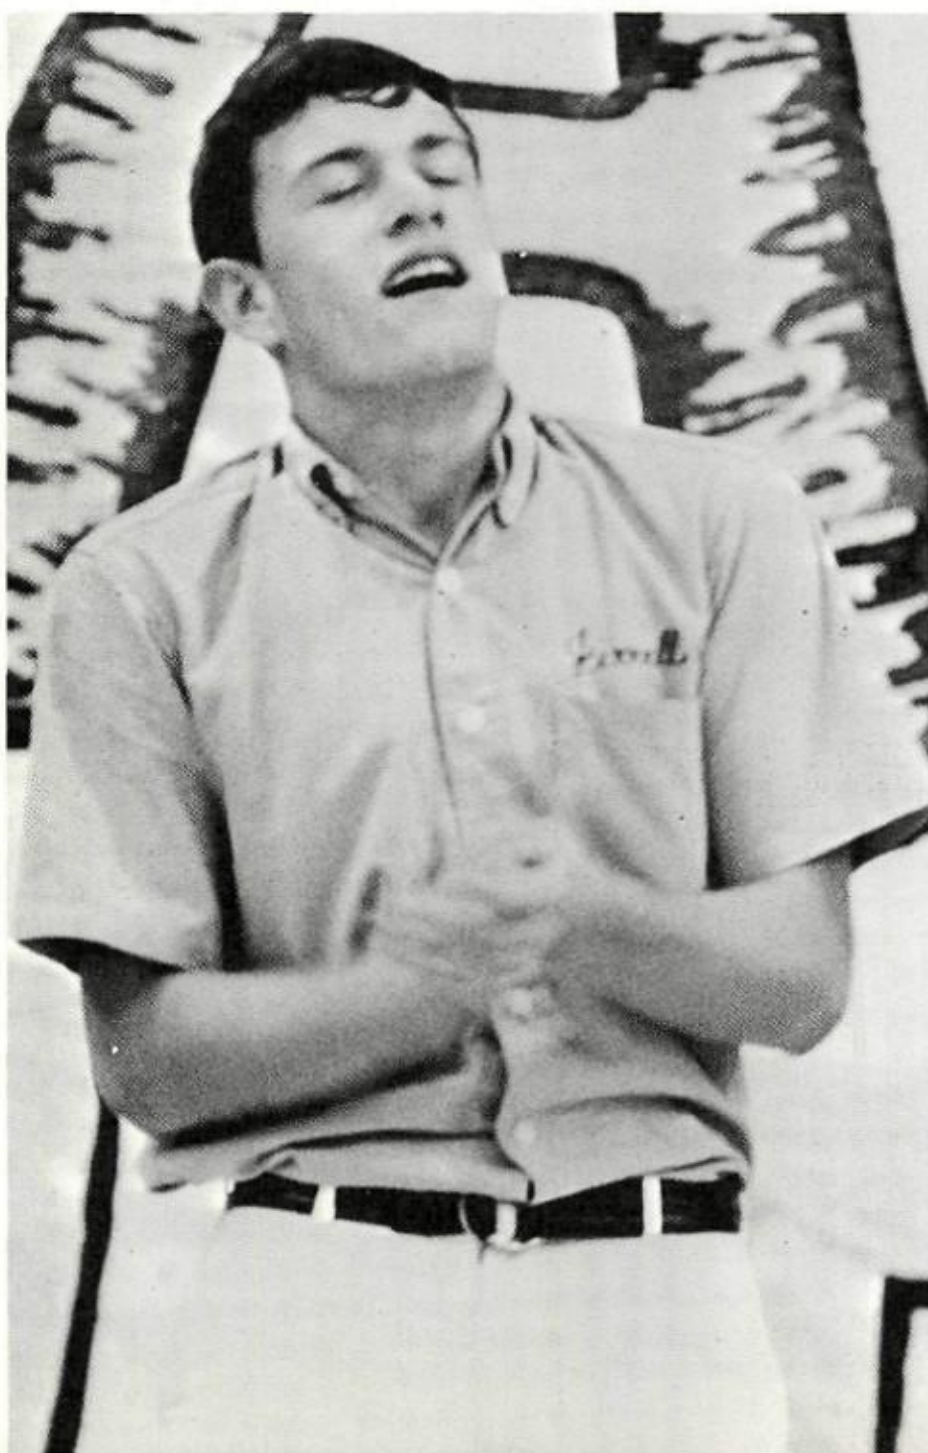

Linda Moffett

Lair Salutes

Selection of Lair Salutes this year was based on nominations made by the presidents of the organizations of IHS. The Lair staff, by secret ballot, narrowed down the field after reviewing each nominee's qualifications. Final selection was made by a committee of fifteen, including six senior students, six teachers, and three administrators. The committee members were supplied a ballot which included a resume of each candidate's qualifications. Voting was done independently.

Members of the committee were: Rusty Wright, Ann Sparks, Pete Wagner, Alicia Plaski, Ronald Keeney, Helen Upton, Mrs. Lynn Wilson, Mrs. Anne Pfaff, Mrs. Doris Hostad, Mr. Jon Leffingwell, Mrs. Josephine Samuel, Mrs. Ben Hines, Mr. Wayne Martin, Mr. Guy Harrison, and Dr. Harold Watkins.

Lair Salutes . . .

Mr. Norman Hughes

Although Lair Salutes are traditionally presented only to top students of the Senior Class, the Lair staff felt that this year an exception should be made.

Mr. Norman Hughes has been principal of IHS for five years and in that time many students have come to know and respect him. His familiar grin and warm personality have welcomed many to IHS; his dedication and willingness to help anyone with a problem has endeared him to all.

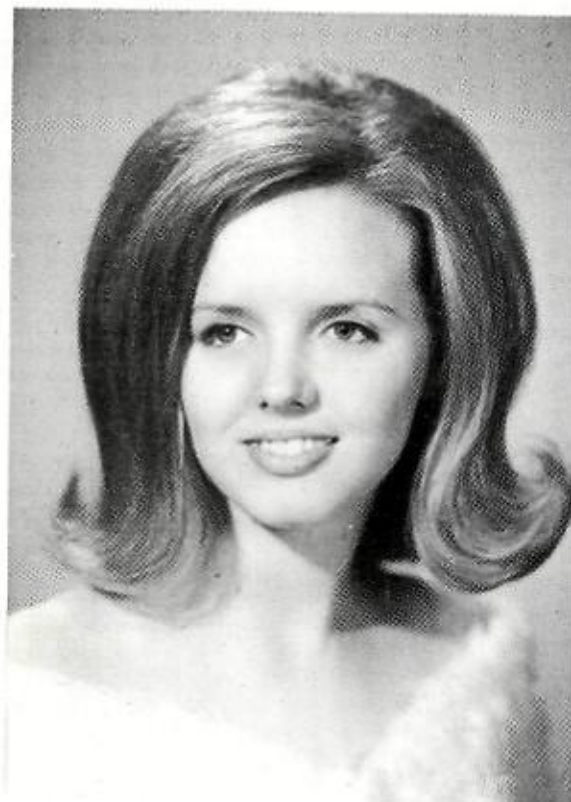

For these reasons, and countless others, the Lair awards its first Special Salute—to Mr. Norman Hughes.

The formal judging was held in the auditorium on November 17. Poise, personality, charm and appearance were the factors determining the selection of the girls and boys from each class.

Who's Who

Each year certain students show outstanding capabilities in various areas of their subject matter. The Lair recognizes these students as Who's Who. Each department is allowed to select one student (or in some cases two) to represent that department. The basis of selection is determined by the department heads after consultation with other members of the department.

CATHY TURRENTINE had four and a half credits in math at the end of her Senior year. Because of her keen interest and excellent grades, Cathy is this year's WHO'S WHO in MATH.

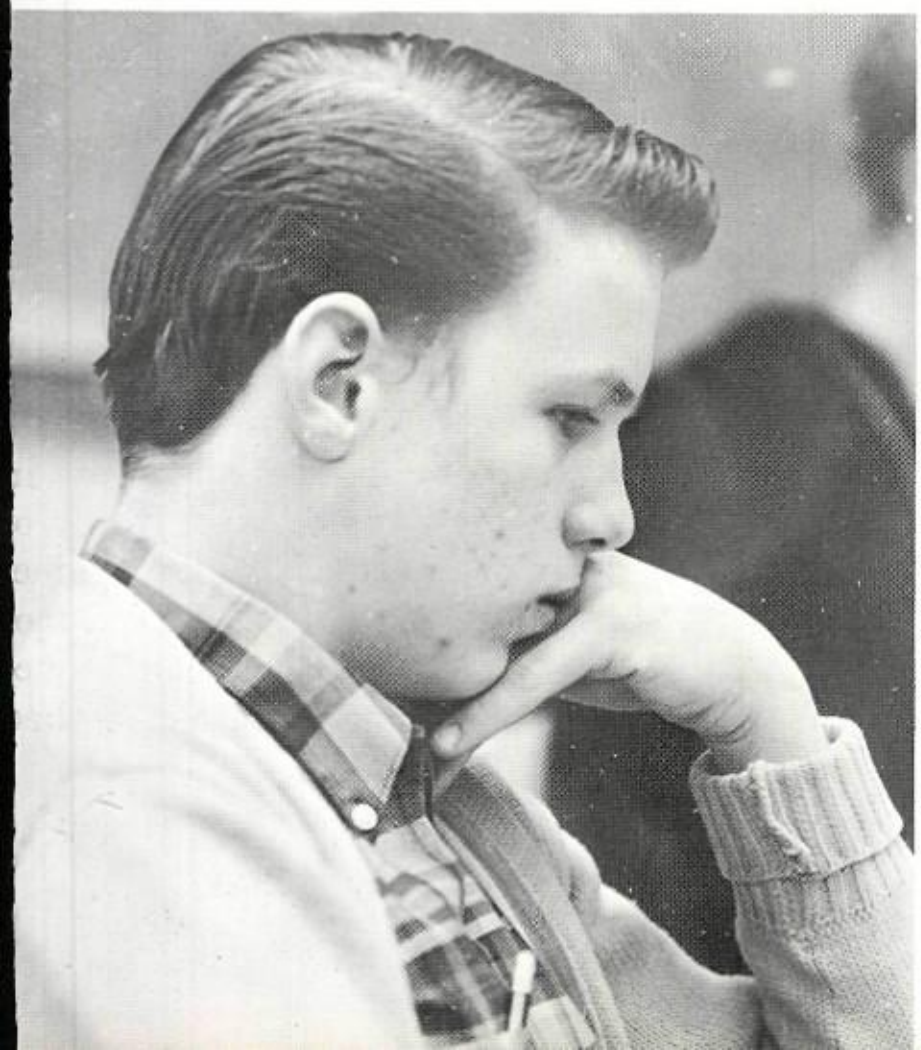

DANNY ALSTON, a four-year participant in STS English, wins the honor of WHO'S WHO in ENGLISH. This Senior now has three Who's Who awards to his credit, including Spanish and Science.

JAN COLEMAN'S cooperation, interest, and willingness to work on extra projects and activities gained her WHO'S WHO in ART. Jan took art for four years and maintained an A average in it the entire time.

JANICE MOYER shares the honor of WHO'S WHO in JOURNALISM. She has worked three years on the Tiger Rag Staff and is editor this year. Jan also helps write "Tiger Tales," the weekly column about IHS that appears in the Irving paper.

WILLIAM SHELTON, a four year member of the Flying Tigers, has mastered difficult stunts on the mats, high bar, and parallel bars. His hard work and pleasant personality have earned him WHO'S WHO in BOY'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

DONNA CHAMPION and SUE HODGES share the honor of WHO'S WHO in JOURNALISM. They have served as co-editors of this year's Lair. Sue has worked on the staff for three years and Donna has worked for on the staff for two years. Both students are officers of the National Honor Society this year and are both second year members. In their junior year, Sue was a National Merit Finalists and Donna received Who's Who in History. Donna is a two year member of the drill team and Sue has been a member of the French club for two years.

JAN LONG, a senior and third-year Spanish student, is the winner of WHO'S WHO in SPANISH. With an A+ average, Jan has shown great interest and ability in all phases of foreign language learning.

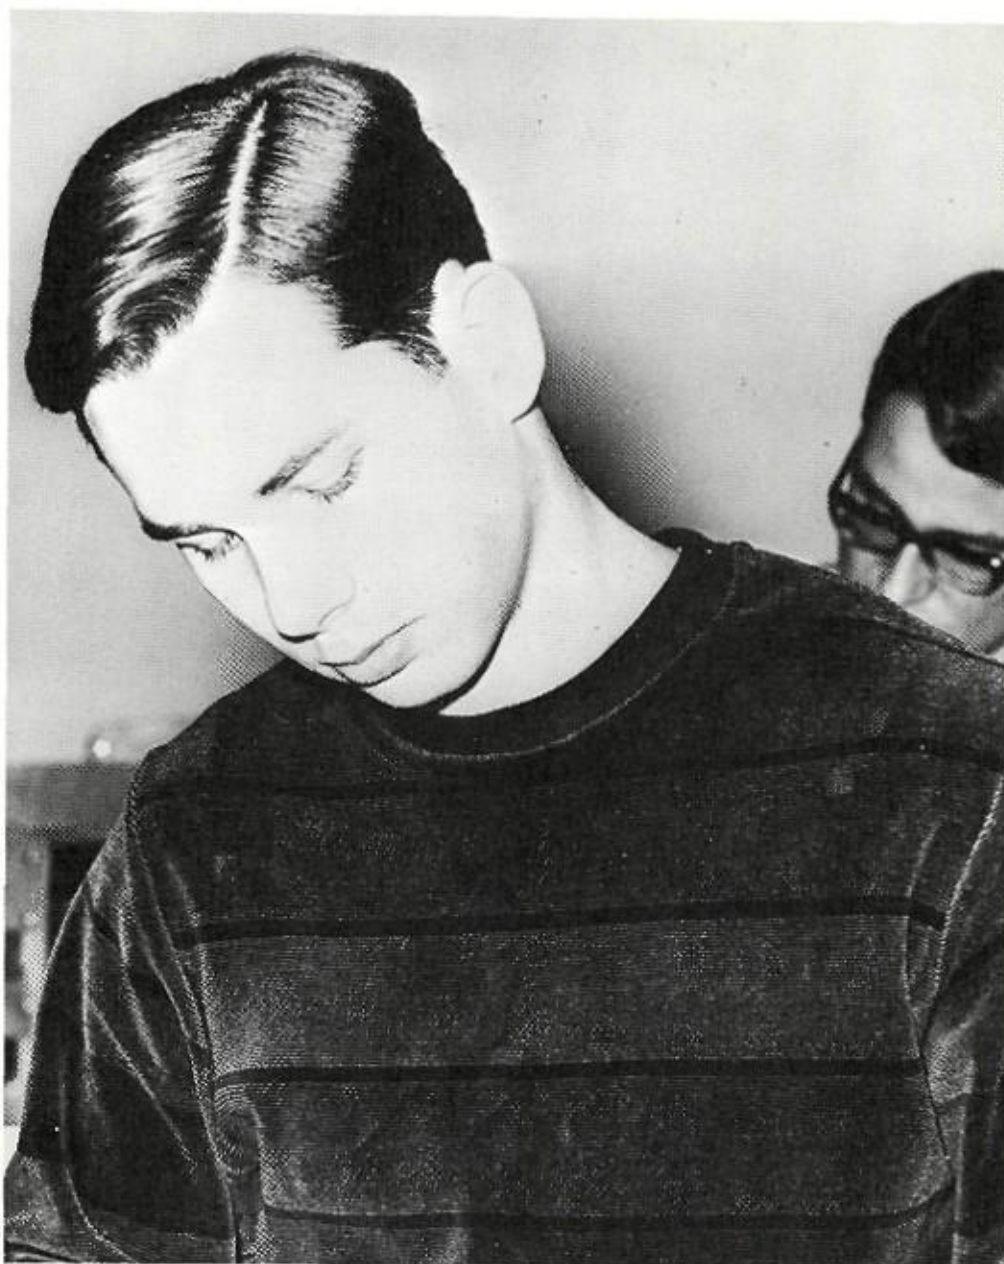

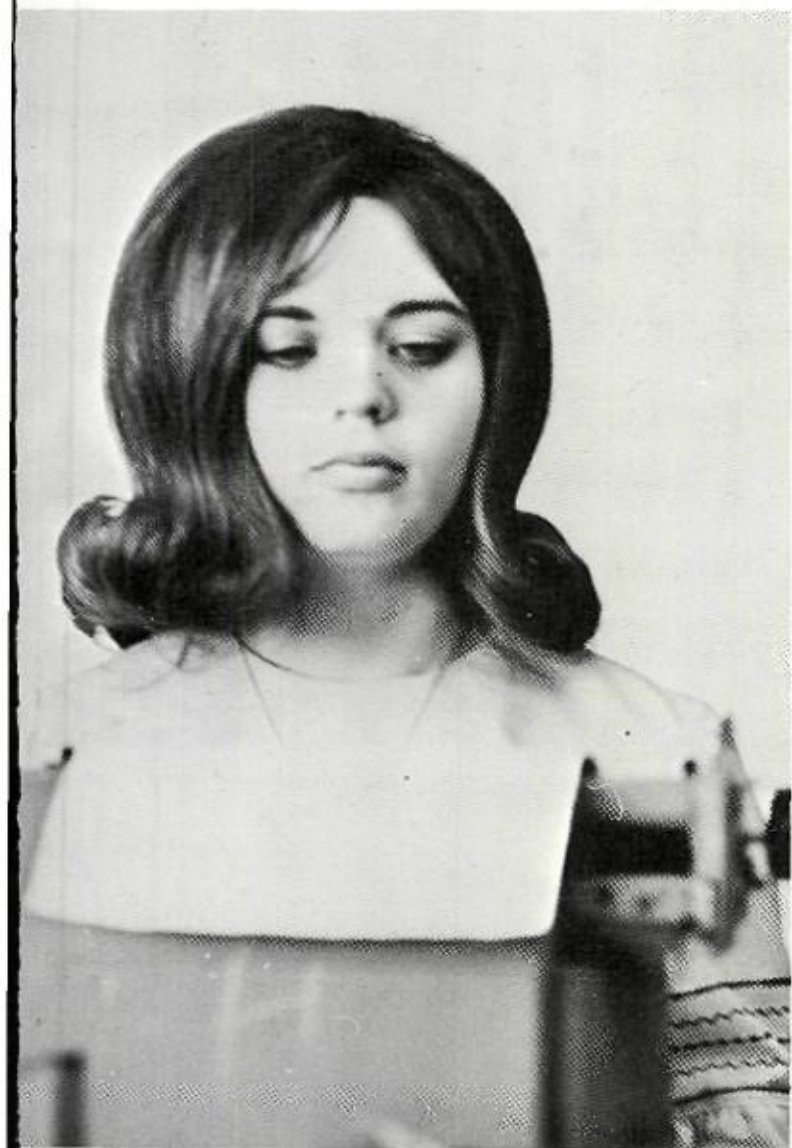

BRENDA RUSSELL, who has worked at Peck's for two years, has been named WHO'S WHO in DISTRIBUTIVE EDUCATION. Brenda is president of the DE Club and was a delegate to the Leadership Conference.

BILL BARNETT is WHO'S WHO in VOCATIONAL DAY TRADES. He plans a career in engineering and drafting and is president of the Drafting Club.

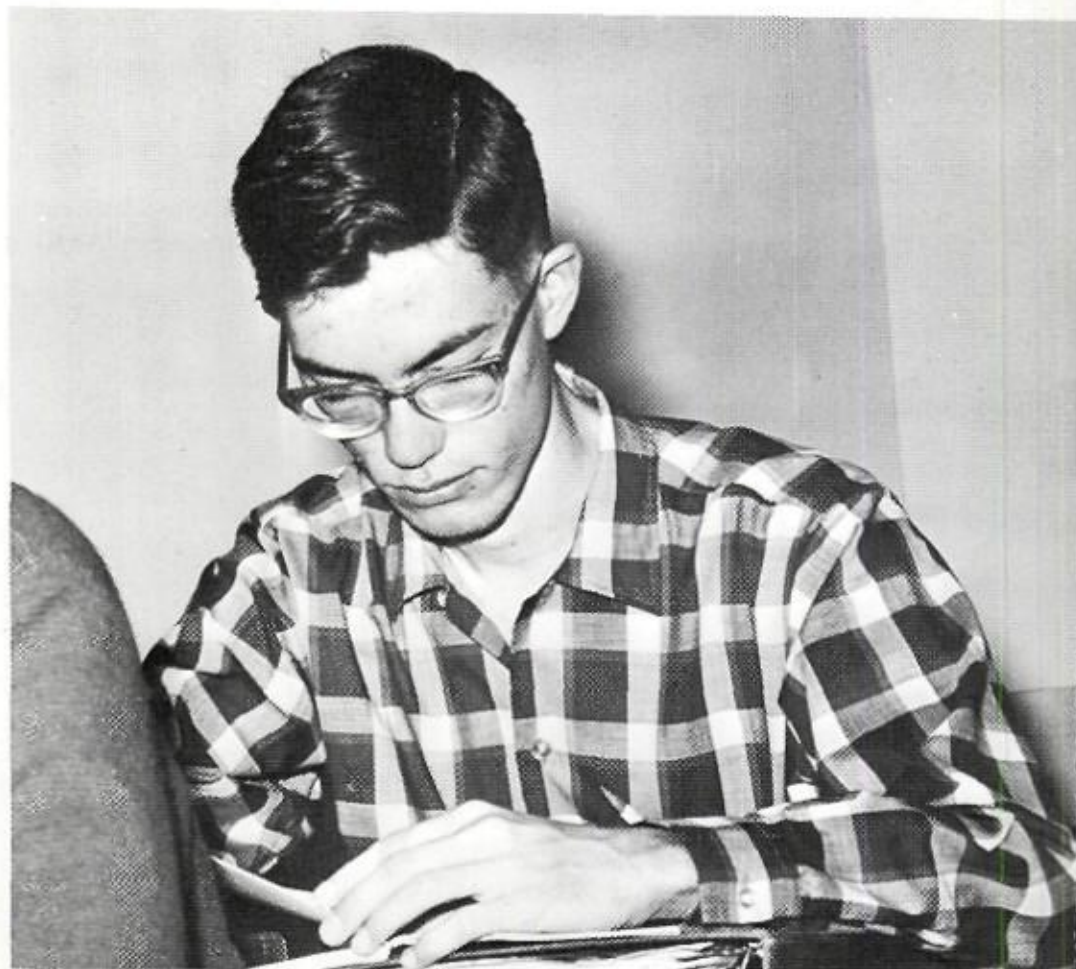

GAIL TODD AND DANNY ALSTON share the honor of WHO'S WHO in ENGLISH. Both have taken STS English and have maintained high averages. The selection was made by a committee of four Senior English teachers, and was based on grades, aptitude and English achievement tests.

MARSHA CARAWAY has earned the honor of WHO'S WHO in VOCATIONAL OFFICE EDUCATION. Her excellent shorthand and typing qualifies her for her job as clerk-typist at George's Furniture. Marsha represented the Texas VOE club at the DECA State Leadership Conference. She plans to specialize more next year to become a legal secretary.

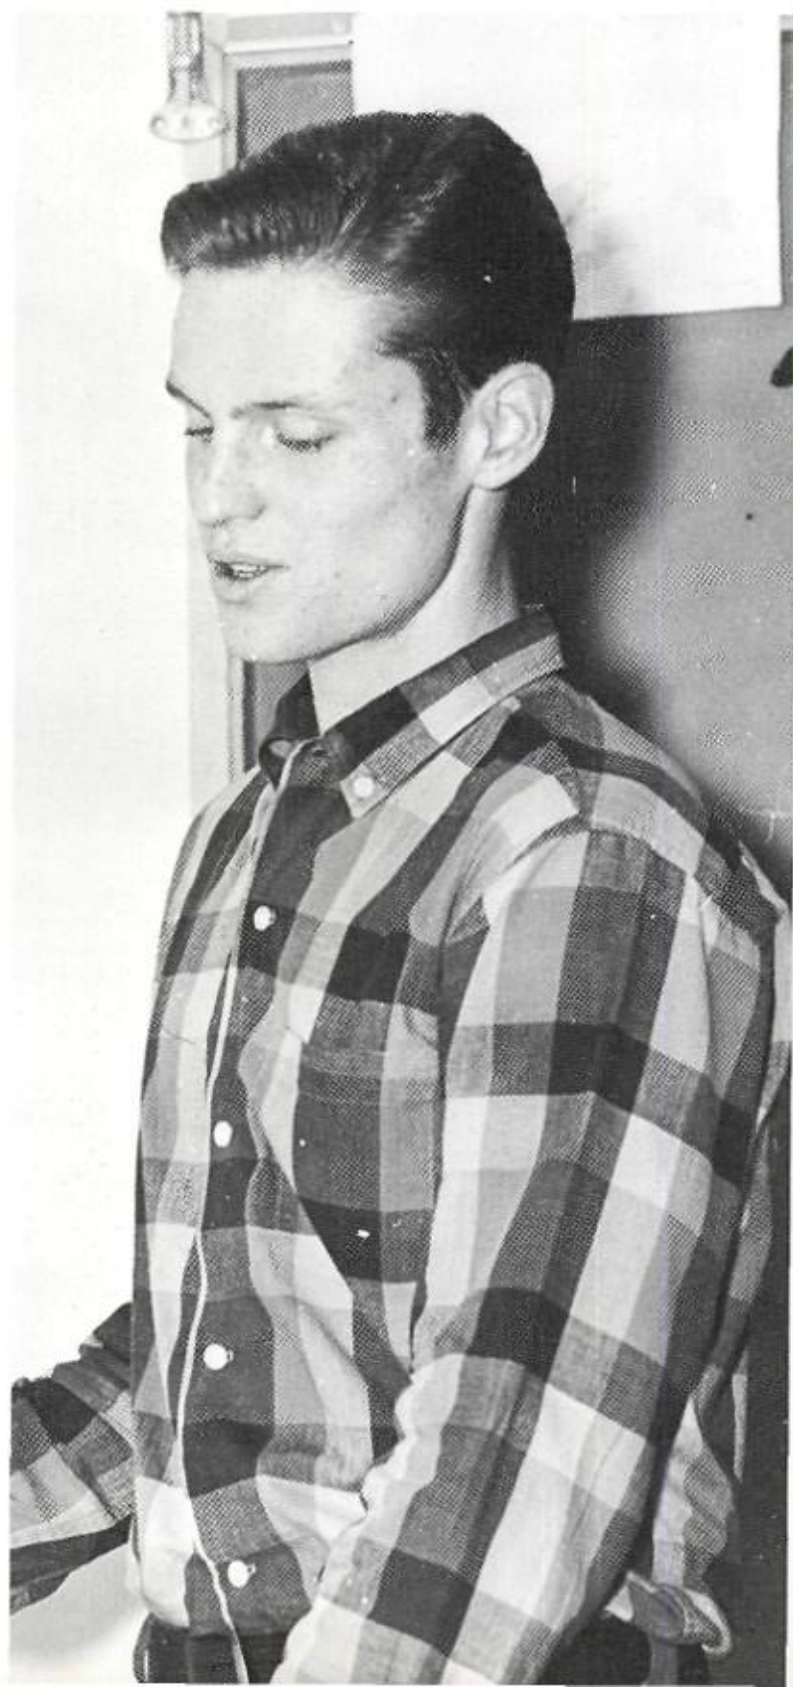

MIKE KELL was unanimously selected as HISTORY WHO'S WHO by a faculty committee. The judging was based on extemporaneously written essays. In all, eleven students, recommended by their teachers, participated in the competition.

CHERYL SZATKOWSKI is awarded the WHO'S WHO in FRENCH because of her outstanding achievement in the four areas of language learning: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Cheryl kept an A+ average in three years of French.

ANSEL GREER, a junior, is selected as the recipient of this year's WHO'S WHO award in LATIN. He has maintained an A average through two years of the course.

ANN SPARKS, a straight A+ student in P.E., excelled in trampoline and tumbling, volleyball, archery, tennis, and other courses. She well deserves the title of WHO'S WHO in GIRL'S PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

ELAINE ROBBINS, a four-year member of the A Capella Choir, is CHORAL WHO'S WHO. She is also a member of the All Region Choir and of the Texas All-State Choir. Elaine has won first division awards in UIL solo and ensemble competition.

HELEN UPTON, a Senior and three-year member of the German Club, is GERMAN WHO'S WHO. With ready answers and a thorough understanding of the German language, Helen has contributed greatly to class discussions.

RONALD KEENEY, WHO'S WHO in BAND, was a consistent First Division award winner in UIL solo and ensemble contest activity. Twice selected for the All Region Band, he was equally capable on dance band drums as well as legitimate percussion instruments.

DONALD WISE combined natural ability with a willingness to work and won the Wood-working WHO'S WHO.

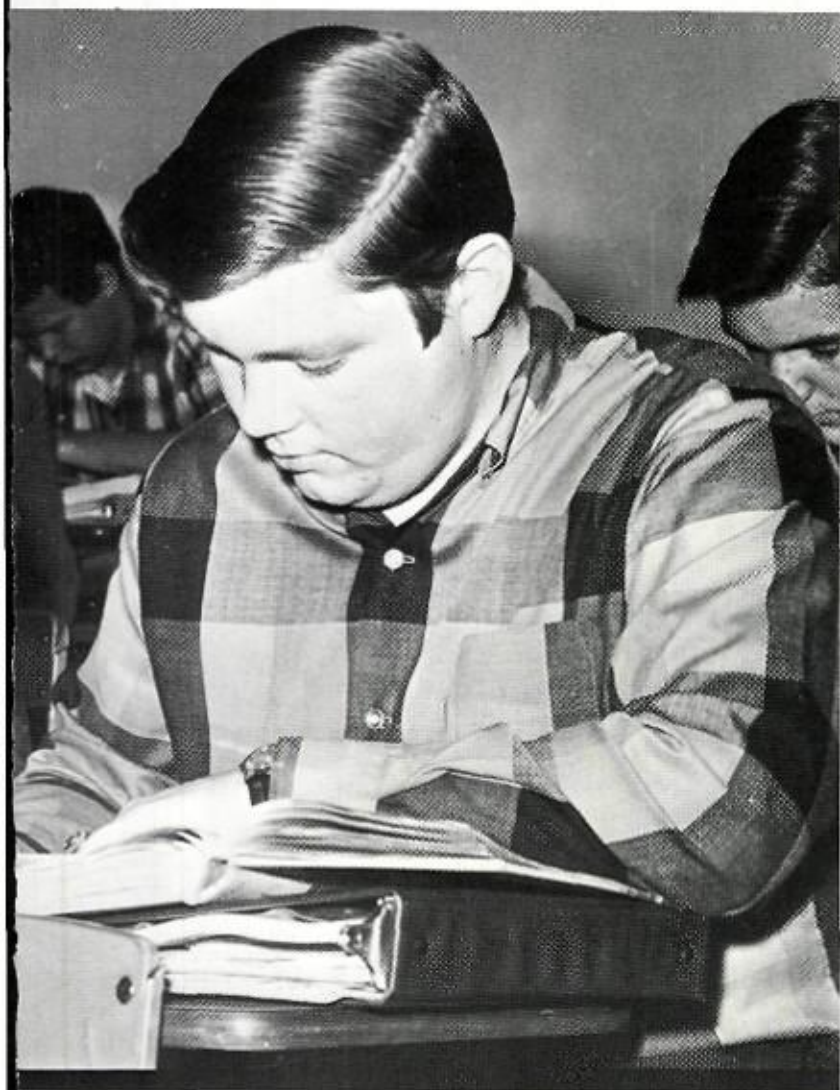

MIKE WILLINGHAM, who is planning a career in architecture, is this year's WHO'S WHO in DRAFTING. He has taken general drafting, pre-engineering drafting, and architectural drafting I and II.

LINDA JOHNSON has made rapid progress in her ICT training and has earned recognition as WHO'S WHO in INDUSTRIAL COOPERATIVE TRAINING. She is presently training for a full-time job as dental assistant in the office of Dr. R. E. Faulds of Irving.

DAVID HILL, a senior with four plays and several speech tournaments to his credit, is named SPEECH WHO'S WHO. David had lead roles in "The Bad Seed" and "If a Man Answers". He was also a member of IHS's debate team.

DOROTHY HOLT successfully combined skill and experience in home economics with a broad range of accomplishments in other subjects to gain a WHO'S WHO in HOMEMAKING. To achieve her goal of becoming a home economics extension agent, Dorothy plans to major in some area of home economics in college.

Organizations are the part of IHS in which the greatest number of students participate. The wide variety of clubs gives each student a chance to pursue his own interests and to share these interests with others. Whether a student's interests be in teaching, acting, or speaking a foreign language, he can find an organization at IHS to meet his needs.

More Students Join in Spanish Club Projects

Along with an Irving Tiger, two señoritas, Helen Becker and Debbie Medland, salute Spain while riding on the Spanish Club car.

To bring about more recognition of the Spanish language and its people is the main goal of the Spanish club. The organization informs others of the habits, customs, and idioms of the Spanish speaking people. Members know these facts because they are required to either be taking or to have taken Spanish I, which includes the study of culture in Spain and Mexico.

At monthly meetings, members vote on the social events for the coming year. Some of these events are the decorating of the Spanish Club car at homecoming, the Christmas party complete with pinata, and the Spanish Club Banquet held in December, where they installed the officers.

The Handclasp of Friendship represents the club at IHS. To illustrate this symbol, members are hospitable to Spanish speaking persons and cooperative while taking part in club activities. The Spanish Club adds more activities each year as the club attendance grows larger and larger.

American Heritage Club Engenders Civic Awareness

As the result of requests from a group of patriotic pupils, the American Heritage Club was formed in 1961. Good citizenship and an appreciation of our American way of life are emphasized by the group. At the beginning of each school year, a campaign is started to catch students' interest and enlist more members.

In the past, members have contributed much to the school. They have held informative programs pertaining to history, a display is arranged in the showcase once a year, and to stimulate interest in things historical, the A. H. C. sponsors an annual contest and presents an award for the most outstanding essay on American history.

The club motto is "Look to the past, look to the present, and look to the future," which illustrates the anticipation of national progress according to past happenings.

Talent Show Sponsored by Jr. Red Cross

Spring marks the annual talent show sponsored by the Junior Red Cross Club. It affords students a chance to present their talents. Musical abilities of the school combine to present a wide variety of acts. In the past, there have been barbershop quartets, popular music, and folk tunes. Although the club charges no admission for the program, it accepts any contributions to the Red Cross.

Mr. Greene and Mr. Lewis, club sponsors, also supervise the annual visit to the Veterans' Hospital in Dallas. At Christmas and Easter, members distributed gift boxes of canned food to underprivileged families. The club also decorated a car for the homecoming parade at the end of football season.

Club co-ordinators are sponsors, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Green, and Benny Griffin, president, and Jeanetta Mosher, vice-president.

oy Tiger — Band Banquet Honors oy Tigers' '66 '67 Choices

Practice begins early in the summer for fall performances of the Toy Tigers. The girls add color, beauty, and entertainment to the half-time shows at Tiger football games. Fans also enjoy the drill team's routines at basketball games and pep rallies.

To be a Toy Tiger, a junior or senior girl must maintain a near perfect attendance record and a high academic standing. The girls must be willing to devote much time and effort to perfect marching and dancing.

Elections of the Top Toy Tiger and Toy Tigers' Tiger are made through nominations of the drill team. The honored girl is not chosen simply for her performing abilities, but for her devotion and contributions to the group. The Toy Tigers' Tiger is a student or teacher at Irving High who has helped and encouraged them through the past year.

The Top Toy Tiger and Toy Tigers' Tiger officially receive their honors at the Toy Tiger and Band Banquet held in the spring. The Banquet also honors other members of the drill team and band.

As Toy Tiger sponsor, Mrs. Casey works many hours.

Officers of the Toy Tigers include, Brenda Holland, reporter; Gayle Evans, vice-president; Kathy Dingus, secre-

D.E. Students Gain Training for Careers in Selling

Actual employment and on-the-job training in wholesale, retail, and service selling occupations are features of the Distributive Education Club. This organization is a group restricted to students employed in the distribution field. The program enables its students to attend morning classes and receive training at work in the afternoon. Members may avail themselves to a preparatory background in marketing, advertising, and stock control.

DECA, or Distributive Education Clubs of America, maintains the position of being the only national youth organization operating through the public schools to attract young people to careers in marketing and distribution. The club emblem is diamond-shaped with the words "Distributive Education Clubs of America" surrounding a wrapped package, symbolizing the close co-operation of student, parent, teacher, and merchant in assisting D.E. students to acquire a well-rounded education and leadership development.

D.E. Club officers are: Mickey Patrick, president; Brenda Russell, treasurer; Randy Hearndon, vice-president; and Pat Warren. Secretary.

Club sponsor, Mr. Stice, instructs D.E. students in the basic fundamentals of selling.

Brenda Haymes, Mary Hubbard, and Bobby Morrison, distribute boxes of fruit cake to be sold by the D.E. Club as a money-making project.

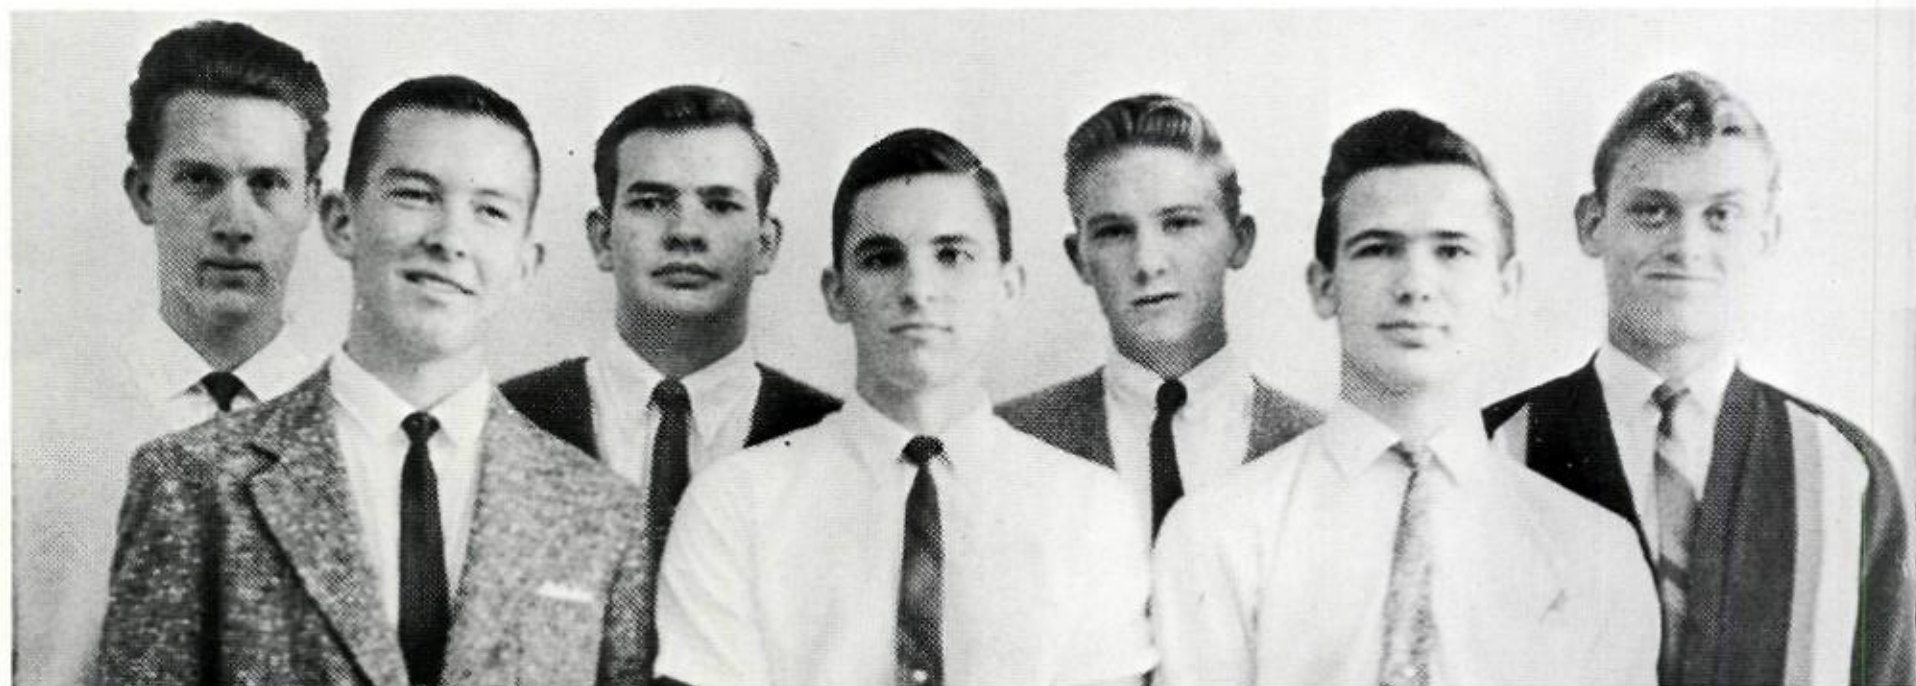

V.I.C. student, Mike Havins, learns the "tricks of the trade" in electronics.

V.I.C.A. Serves As Key to Vocational, Industrial Trades

Students who wish to learn a vocational trade while in school comprise the Vocational Industrial Club at Irving High. These pupils attend morning classes, one of which is a regular V.I.C. class, and then go to their jobs in the afternoon. Individual study of each student's particular trade is offered in the classroom, and the study is put to use in training on the job.

Industrial Co-operative Training is a section of the Vocational Industrial Club. Through the I.C.T. program, students are employed by a training sponsor, referred to as a co-op, where they work as a trainee. This club meets with the V.I.C. at regular monthly meetings, but holds its own meetings twice a month. The club also participates in the district meet held in Greenville, where V.I.C. members are given a chance to compete in different contests of industrial skills.

Enjoying the I.C.T. picnic are Mr. Cadar Parr, vocational director, Mr. Vurl Smith, I.C.T. co-ordinator for IHS, and Mr. Forrest Percy, I.C.T. co-ordinator for MacArthur.

Riding on the Drama Club car, Pam Murphy, Tina Neff, Rick Huebner, and Cindi Dixon display friendly waves and smiles to observers.

Membership of Drama Club Soars to 250

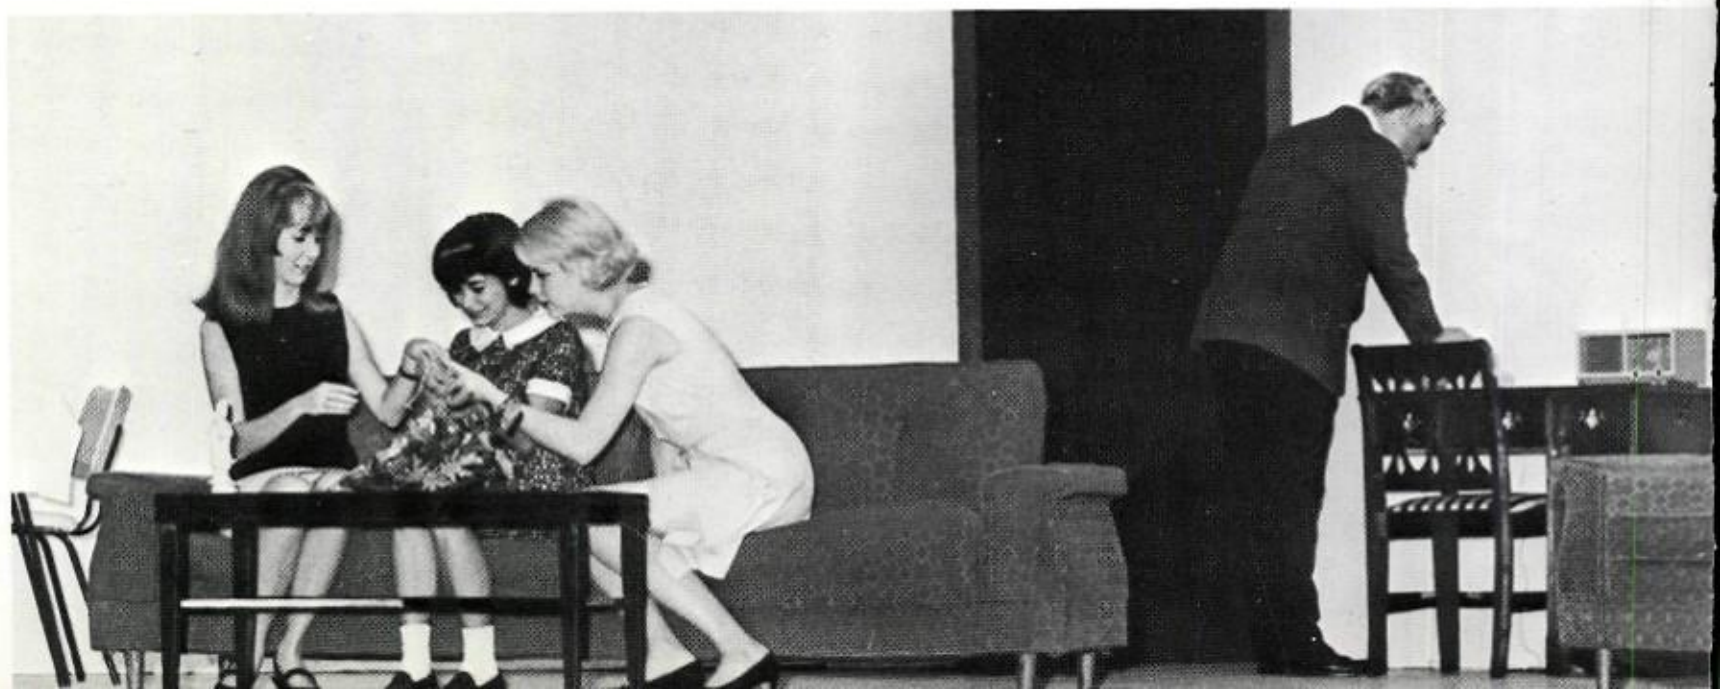

Acting, directing, and stagecraft are talents put to use in the Drama Club. Because the club's purpose is to give students a closer understanding of the theatrical arts, members take part in various plays. Valuable experience is gained during long working hours devoted to the plays. The Thespian play this year was "The Bad Seed". Along with the Thespian performance, members may also try out in the District One-Act Play Competition.

Numerous social events occur during the year. A party was held after the Thespian play for the cast and stage workers to celebrate the play's completion. This year club members also attended several plays, one of which was "Spoon River Anthology" given by the Arlington State College Drama Department.

Drama Club officers include Pam Murphy, treasurer; Darwin Slaughter, vice-president; Vicki Jones, secretary; David Hill, president; Debra Black, scribe.

Cast members Cindi Dixon, Tina Neff, Vicki Jones, and Barry Sprouse rehearse scenes from the play, "Bad Seed".

'Classics' Recognize National and Public School Weeks

Another name for the Irving High Library Club is "The Classics." This group represents one section of the Teen-age Library Association of Texas. All Library Clubs encourage students to learn more about library procedures and techniques than English classes are able to offer. By practice in library service, opportunity is provided for vocational exploration for each member.

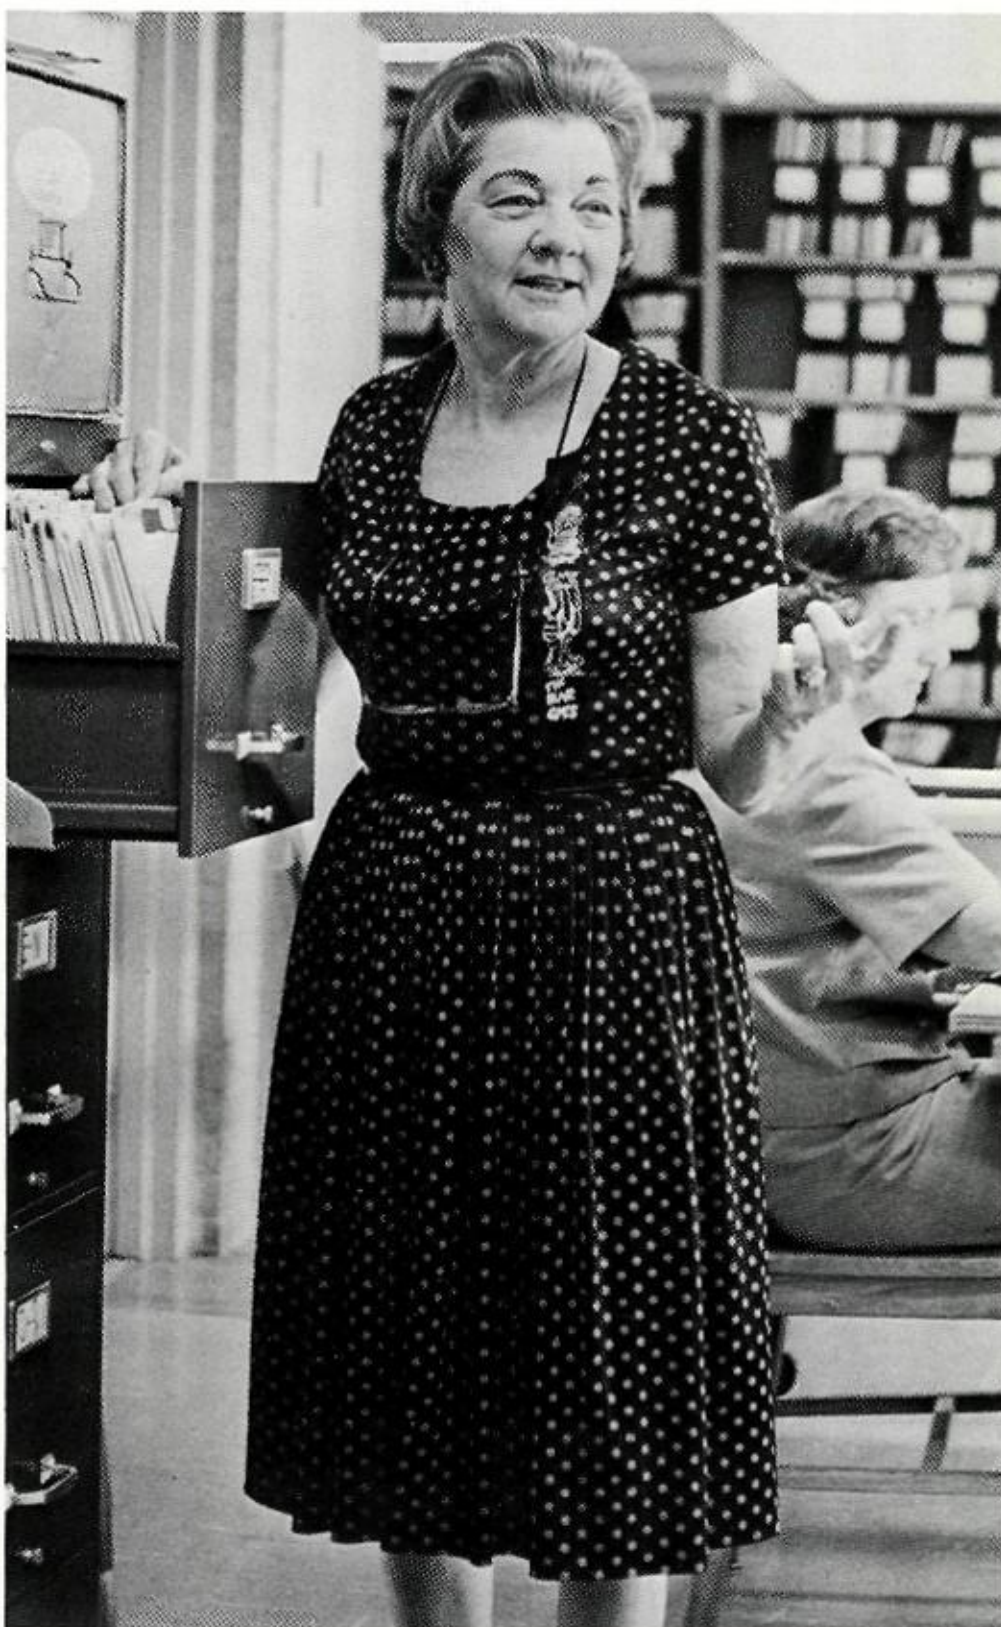

To popularize reading among all students is the goal of the organization. At the beginning of each school year, club officers are elected. Social events are discussed, and educational programs, such as reviews of new writings in the school library, are planned for each month. They also decide on activities for the coming year, such as taking part in the Homecoming parade. The organization recognizes National Library Week, Book Week, and Public School Week and participates in them.

At a Library Club meeting, Linda Johnson and Connie Kemper discuss plans for the coming year.

Library Club sponsor, Mrs. Conover, instructs pupils on library aids.

Irving High Tiger Band takes a break from its busy schedule to pose in concert formation for the LAIR.

U.I.L. Contests Demand Band's Best

Various activities of the Tiger Band begin early and continue feverishly through the school year. Performances entail playing and marching at all football games, pep rallies, and special assembly programs. The band is also involved in such competitive events as University Interscholastic League Marching, two festival competition events for the Dallas-Fort Worth area, and Playing and Sight Reading contests. Optional participation in some events like U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble contests and All-Region State tryouts is available. Besides school hours, Tiger Band pupils give a sizable amount of their time to meet the demands of outside performances, as the Band represents Irving High in several ways.

Band officers include Nancy McHorse, secretary; David Cooper, drum major; Vick Cox, parliamentarian; Kenneth Morrison, vice-president; Randy Necessary, chaplain; Dan Housewright, president; Marilyn Barnes, historian.

Secretarial Skills Studied by V.O.E. Club

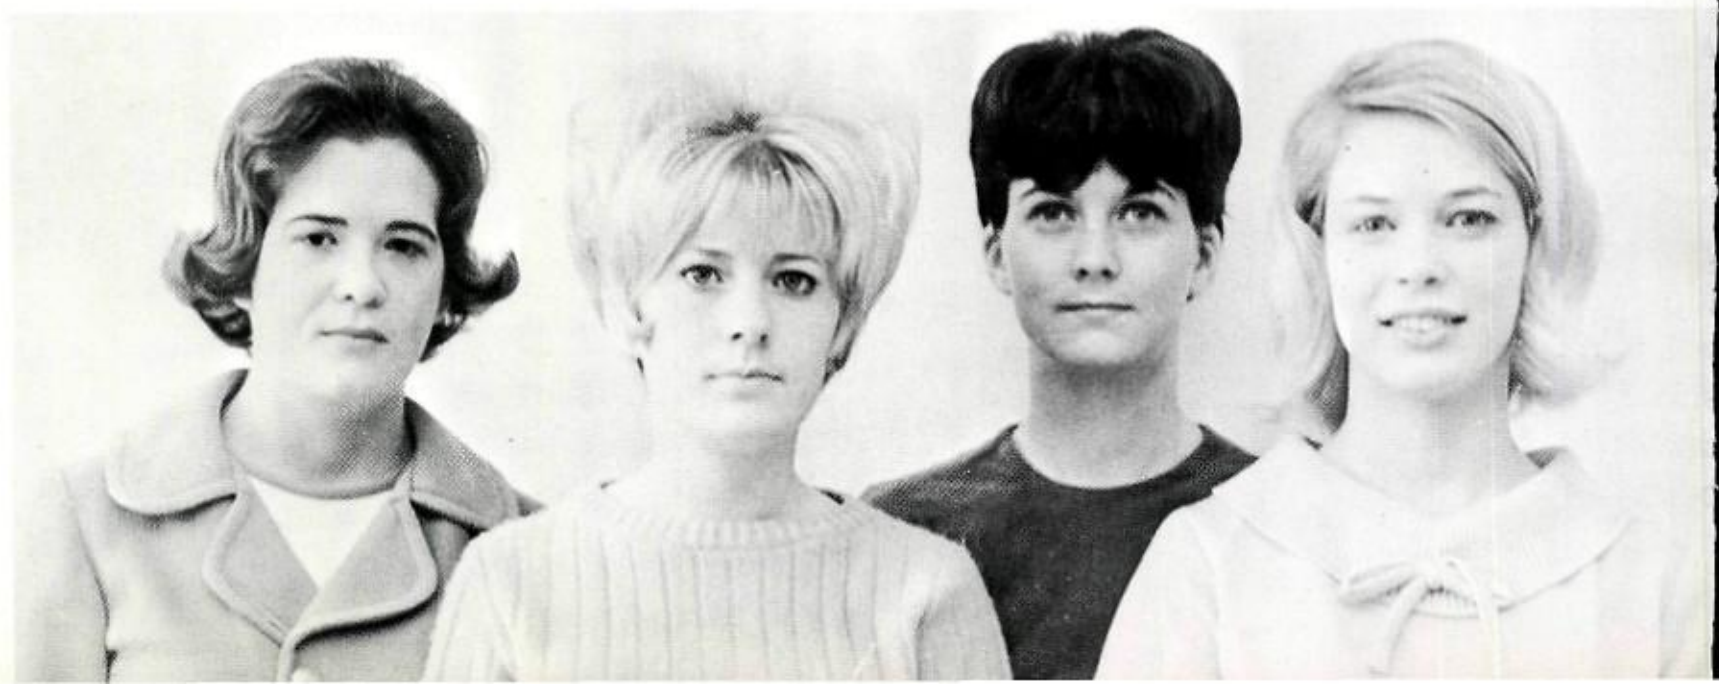

Membership of the Vocational Office Education Club is limited to senior girls enrolled in the V.O.E. classes. This year marks the birth of the organization at Irving High. The girls are in class until noon and then go out to training positions in the community in the afternoon. As preparation, each pupil studies basic skills in business subjects, such as bookkeeping, typing, shorthand, and filing. These are offered in the morning V.O.E. classes to aid the students in their secretarial jobs.

Club officers were elected during the first six weeks of the school term. At monthly meetings, educational and social events are planned for the coming year. Members attended a picnic at Fritz Park given by all the vocational classes in October.

Mary Autry and Joyce Moore practice typing at new desks in V.O.E.

Officers of the V.O.E. club are Margaret Hensley, Diane Bradford, Karen Brown, and Janet Pope.

Houston Is Location of VID Convention

To give students the opportunity to develop leadership through participation in vocational activities, the Vocational Industrial Drafting club was organized. Students not enrolled in all V.I.D. classes are not eligible for membership in the club. Local chapter meetings are held monthly. Speakers from various industrial companies give lectures to members on the advancements in drafting.

A leadership training course for officers and advisors was held at Sulphur Springs. For the vocational teachers, there is an in-service education class at Kilgore College. Irving High's V.I.C. teachers attended in February.

The district meet of the V.I.C. of American Contest was held at I.H.S. in March. Awards are presented for the most outstanding display of architectural drafting. Advisors plan the program for the state convention in Houston, where trophies were given to the winners of the district meet. Members stay at the Rice Hotel for the week-end, and have a banquet to conclude the ceremonies.

Officers are: Lester Bowers, secretary; Phil Pond, parliamentarian; Joe Keese, treasurer; Greg Turner, Bill Barnett, president; Dan Benton, vice-president; Ronnie Robinson, sergeant-at-arms.

Prior to the election of council officers, presidential candidate Al Anderson delivers his campaign speech to the student body.

Student Council Slates Schedule Of Social Events

To create citizens with high standards of conduct, scholarship, and school spirit is the goal of the Student Council. Ten members are elected to represent each class. Serving with the group is the Advisory Council which consists of one student delegate from each homeroom.

Publication of the school directory and several school functions are directed by the Council. One service which the group sponsored was the Thanksgiving and Christmas Welfare Project. With the aid of a city agency, students distributed canned goods which were collected at school, to underprivileged families. One other civic aid of the S.C. was the publicity program which advertised the weekly dances at the National Guard Armory sponsored by the Irving Jaycees. S.C. members put up posters and made announcements during the week. Proceeds went to the Irving Garden and Arts Center.

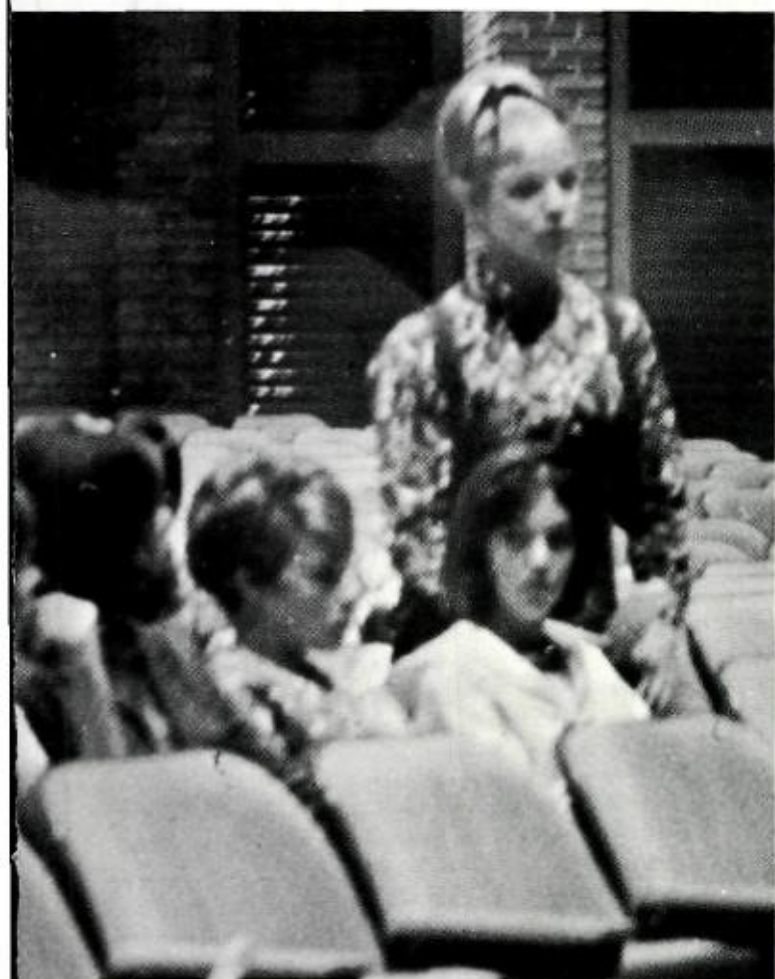

At an after-game sock hop sponsored by the Student Council, IHS students did the Wildwood flower to the music of the Pennymen.

F.H.A. Club Sews Up Successful Year

Dorothy Holt and Linda Thompson prepare for the F.H.A.'s twenty-first anniversary.

Girls who have taken or are taking Homemaking are eligible to join the Future Homemakers of America. This club helps members to develop an appreciation of the homemaking field. To emphasize the importance of a well adjusted home life is a purpose of the F.H.A.

Annual activities included a "Howdy" Party early in the school year, which welcomed new members. Another occasion was the Mother-Daughter Banquet, which was held at Youngbloods. Guest speaker for this event was Mrs. Don Boucher, who lectured about the two years in Chile she served for the Peace Corps. There was also a Tea, honoring senior members, outgoing officers, and including the installation of new officers.

In connection with the emphasis on home life, members had a "Daddy-Date" night. Each girl came with her father and brought a box supper.

Mistletoe Party Acquaints F.T.A. Club Members

Students interested in a teaching profession comprise the Future Teachers of America Club. This group gives an insight to pupils planning a teaching career.

"Teachers International" was the theme for the F.T.A.'s entry in the homecoming parade. Members, dressed as teachers from foreign countries such as Switzerland, Hawaii, and Japan, rode in the club car.

In December, a "Mistletoe Party" was held at the First Presbyterian Church. Holly and mistletoe provided a Christmas atmosphere as members danced and played games.

Officers attended a workshop at Bell High School, where they learned new ways of increasing membership and raising funds. Three Irving F.T.A. representatives attended a state conference at San Antonio, where state officers and Mr. and Miss F.T.A. were elected.

Each member of the F.T.A. is planning a teaching career. Members of the club are: Front Row: Connie Boyd, Pam Turrentine; Second Row: Pam Nichols, Diane Janicek, Deona

1966 U.I.L. Selects U.S. Foreign Aid As Debate Topic

To keep students informed of current national and world affairs is the main purpose of the Debate Team. Debate contests provide training for the basic skills of democratic leadership. Although debate may be taken as a subject, there is no prerequisite for the team.

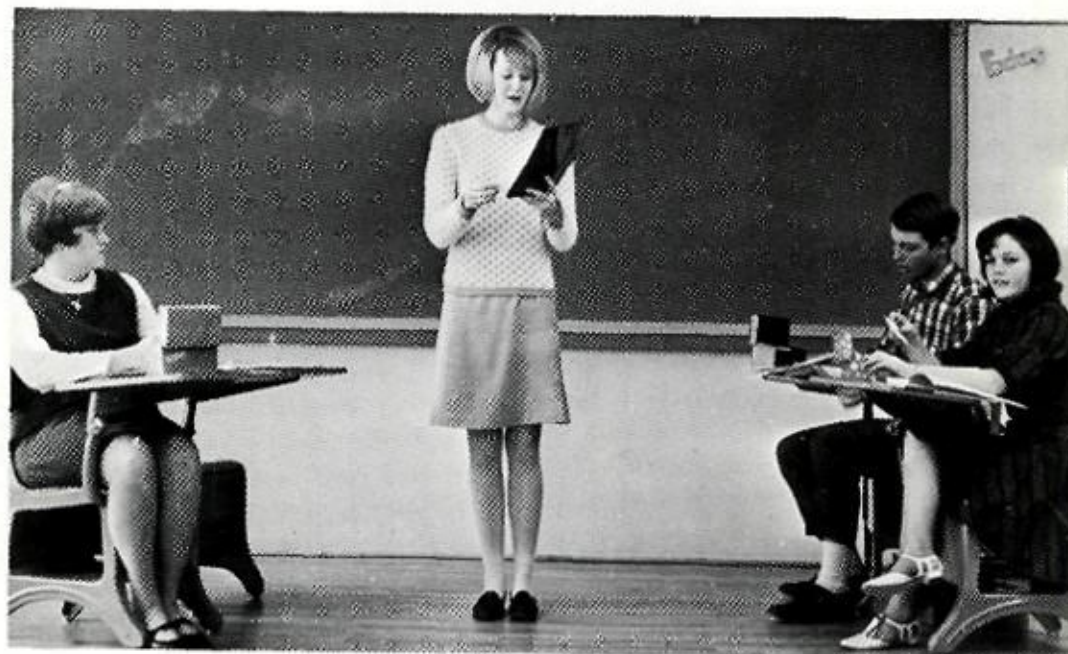

Each year the team is given a topic which they debate in Interscholastic League competition. The proposition for the '66-'67 school year is whether the Foreign Aid Program of the U.S. should be limited to non-military assistance. Students from several schools enter the U.I.L. meets to debate the given subjects. Tournaments are held at Sunset High School, Bryan High School and North Texas State University.

To compare notes on debating, members hold workshops in their homes. People who gather information for the debates and those who compete receive pins for their work.

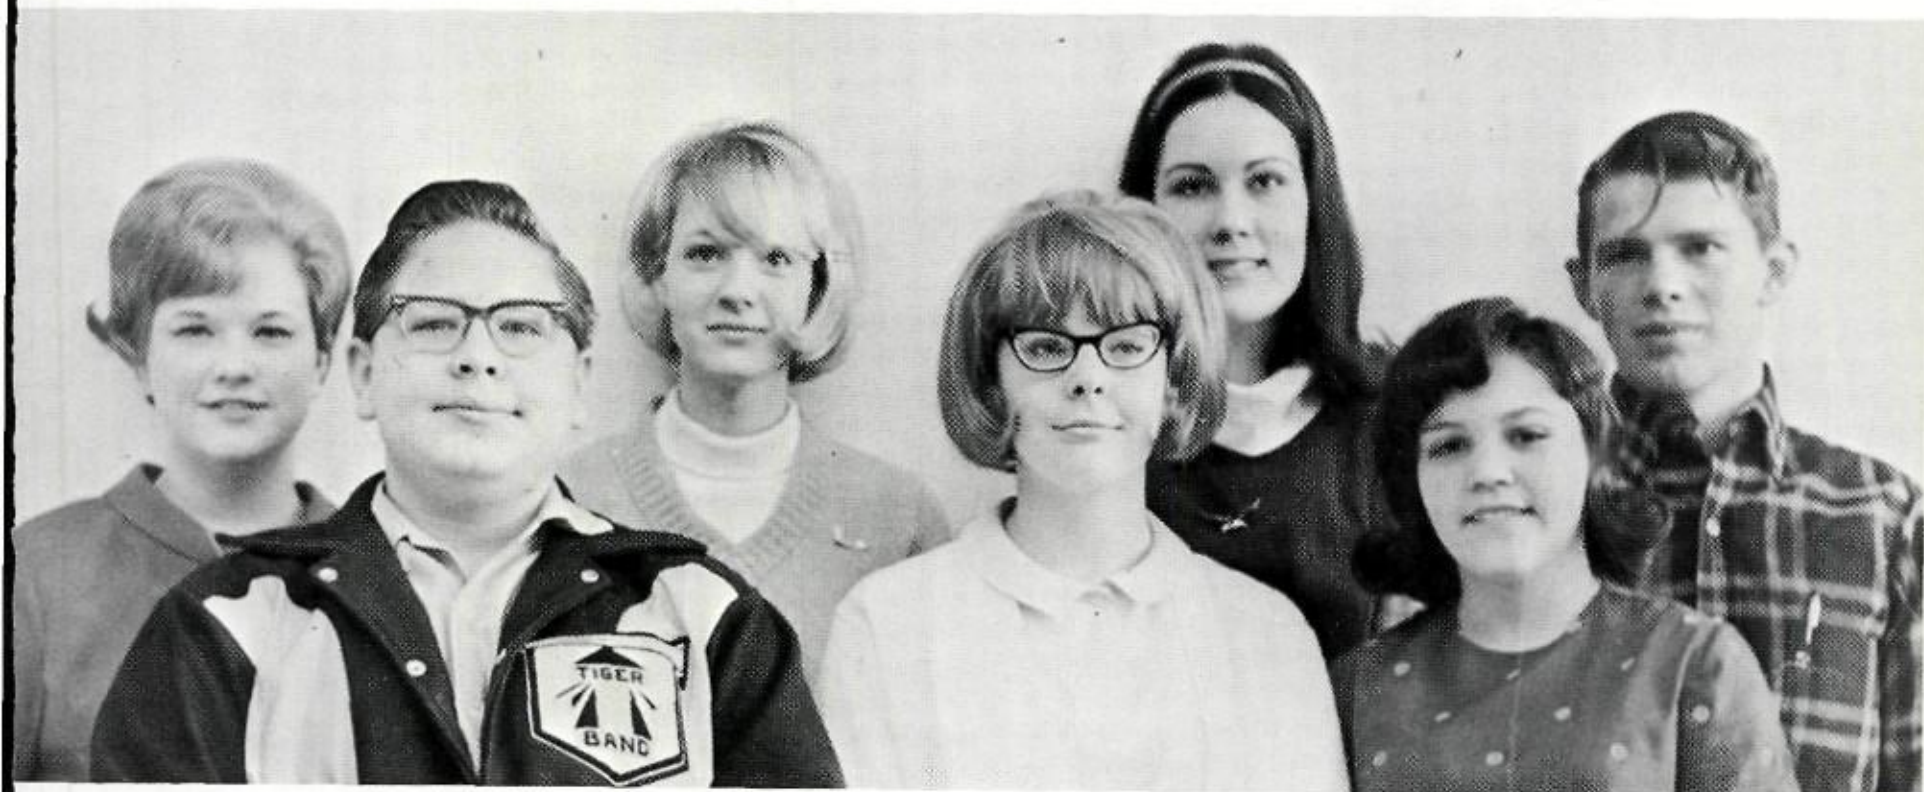

To gather data on future contests and to compare notes, debaters often hold after school "brainstorming sessions."

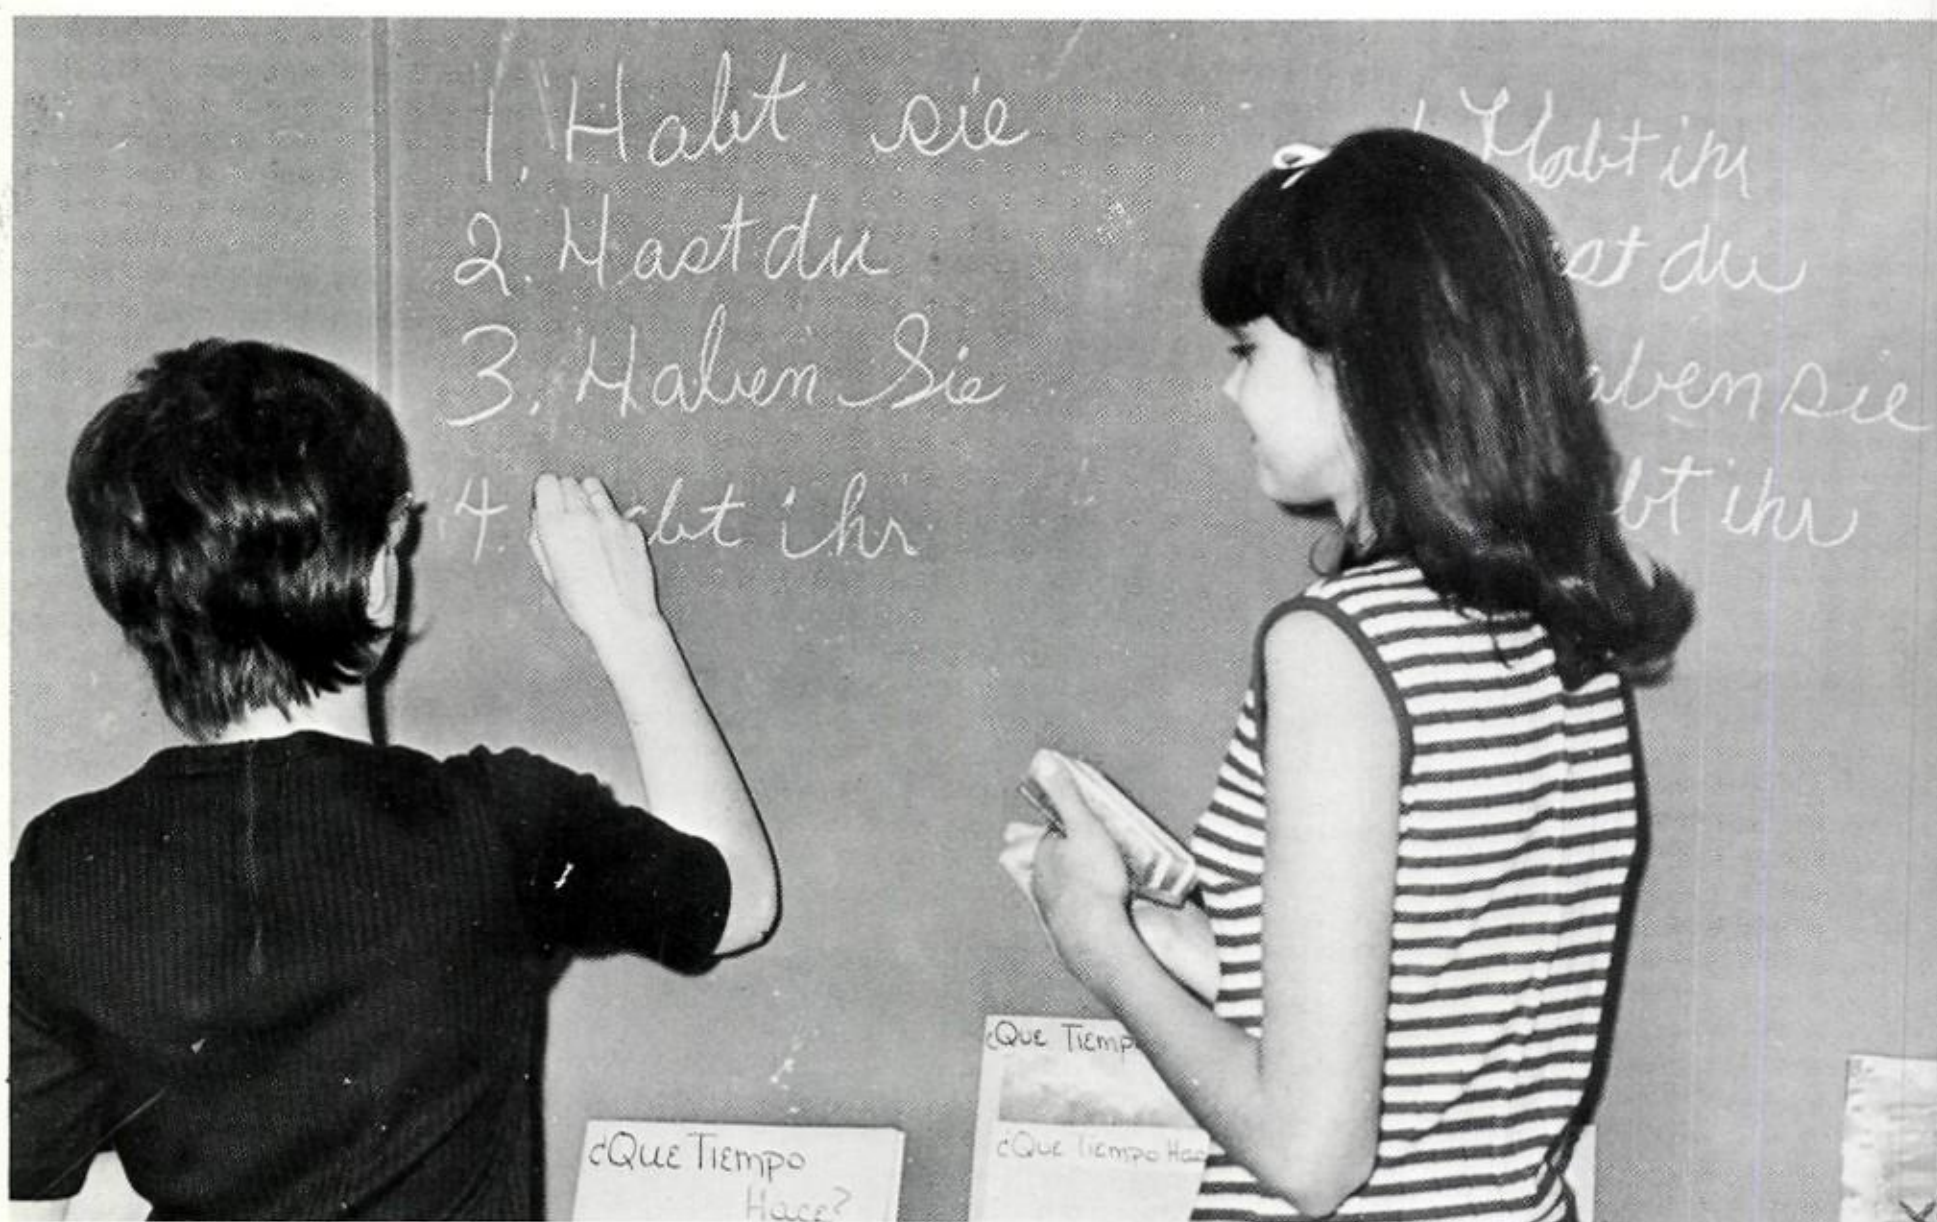

Before joining U.I.L., members practice speaking their cases on the subject.

German Club Joins in Costume Festival

Pondering the conjugation of a verb, Denise Beavers pauses from her work.

To aid students in gaining knowledge of Germany's people, language, and their customs is the purpose of the German Club. Any IHS student is eligible for membership without having taken the language.

The Timbers Apartments' recreation room was the site of the annual "Get Acquainted" party this year. Another occasion was the Christmas Party. Besides celebrating, the club aids a needy family for Christmas.

In the spring, there were several functions. Officers who were elected in April were installed at the Spring Banquet. Later, there was an informal picnic. Uniting with the other three language clubs, the German group joined in the Mardi Gras, a costume party. To represent each club, there was a booth displaying articles from the various countries.

FBLA Messengers Deliver Special Valentine Telegrams

Development of character and competent business leadership is sought by the Future Business Leaders of America Club. During the school terms, speakers from different phases of the business world familiarize club members with the aspects of various professions. They also visit with merchants and tour local office buildings.

In February the club sponsors a Valentine Telegram project. A student may purchase telegrams to send to his friends. Club members type the messages on Western Union stationery, and deliver them on Valentine's Day. This project provides money to finance the club's activities.

Club delegates attend the District V Convention held in Arlington. Here they learn new techniques of business administration and better understanding in the intelligent choice of occupations.

IHS Lettermen Qualify for Membership in Association

Students who have lettered in a sport at I.H.S. make up the I Association. To win a letter an athlete must play a required amount of time, which is set at the beginning of each year. Members include lettermen of such sports as football, basketball, baseball, track, golf, tennis, and weightlifting. Free letter jackets are awarded to the lettermen in the winter.

Officers of the I Association include: Dennis Stephan, president; Bobby Baker, vice-president; Rusty Wright, treasurer; Damon Reeves, secretary.

N.H.S. Sponsors Scholars' Annual Of Arts Publication

To be a member of the National Honor Society requires good character, leadership, service to the school, and scholarship. This organization is unique in the fact that it is the only school-sponsored group that formally invites students to join. Those invited into membership constitute ten per cent of the junior class and fifteen per cent of the senior class.

Monthly meetings are held to plan service projects and social activities. The National Honor Society at Irving is known for its tutoring service, and publication of the Scholars' Annual of Arts. Including poems, essays, short stories, and illustrations done by students, the magazine is released for sale in early spring. An informal dinner is held for the production staff.

One of the few social events of the group is the annual spring picnic. The highlight of the afternoon is the announcement of the officers for the coming year.

Officers of the NHS are Front Row: Donna Champion, Treasurer, Brenda Holland, Parliamentarian, Cindy Russell, Secretary, Sue Hodges, Reporter; Back Row: Larry Jamieson,

One duty of a National Honor Society member is to tutor students; here Ann Sparks aids Jeanne McManus with algebra homework.

Besides her regular biology classes, Mrs. Yates devotes extra time to sponsor N.H.S.

New members of the National Honor Society are addressed by University of Dallas professor, Dr. John Broadhurst.

Choirs Tune Up for Spring Concert

Representing the IHS Girls' Choir at civic and church programs was a group consisting of nine members, called the Girl's Ensemble. Membership was obtained through auditions to the Choir director. For contest, the group separated into three trios.

Members of the Girl's Choir studied advanced vocal techniques and tone production in preparation for the concerts and contests. Results of the hours of practice were shown during programs presented at school assemblies at Thanksgiving and Christmas. In the spring, members competed in University Interscholastic League at S.M.U. Sight-reading and concert were the two events which comprised the contest.

At the Spring Concert excerpts from different popular musicals were presented. Several students also sang solos.

Choir Displays Note of Excellence

Members of the A Capella Choir spend much of their class time rehearsing on the risers to insure successful performances.

Mr. James Moore directed the A Capella choir through many appearances. Included in these were Thanksgiving and Christmas programs for the school and P.T.A.

Tryouts by audition were held in the spring of the preceding school year. The choir consisted of both boys and girls and sang a variety of music. At the programs, spiritual, classical, and popular selections were presented.

After the school year started, auditions were held for the Madrigal singers. This group combined two singers from each section. They performed at civic functions throughout the city.

Both the A Capella Choir and the madrigals competed in the annual University Interscholastic League Contest at Denton. Some students sang solos, duets, and others in various ensembles.

B Band Participates In Mass Band Tribute to Texas

Serving to prepare members for the Tiger Band is the goal of the B Band. They performed at functions, both school and civic, that the Tiger Band did not attend.

Besides marching in the Homecoming Parade, the B Band performed at two pre-game programs. Included in the performance was the Tiger Band, Toy Tigers, B Band, and Band and Cardettes from MacArthur High. This mass band presented a tribute to the state of Texas.

In the spring, members of the band participated in the University Interscholastic League. As a group, they competed in the playing and sight reading contest. Different students also performed in ensembles as well as in solos.

Following the motto "Practice Makes Perfect", Janet Bates works diligently on her bass fiddle.

Hayride Introduces Eventful Year For Latin Linguists

Students of Latin classes have a chance to assemble at the monthly Latin Club meetings. To give an additional understanding of the language and associated subjects is the purpose of the club.

At the beginning of the school year, a hayride was held at Flag Pole Hill to acquaint prospective members with current members. A banquet held on March 15 began the activities for the Ides of March Week. Something different took place every day celebrating old Latin customs. This included a slave sale, a skit on the death of Caesar, and another party. In the spring, a picnic was held to reminisce the activities of the '66-'67 school year.

At Christmas and Thanksgiving members of the Latin Club supplied underprivileged families with holiday dinners.

Preservation of the school spirit of Irving High Students is the aim of the Tiger Spirit Association. To achieve this goal, members publicize all athletic events by placing victory signs and banners throughout the school. The members also combine their spirit and talent to create the Homecoming signs. Leading cheers, singing victory songs and plastering the halls with signs of school loyalty were some of the activities of this group. A car was decorated by the T.S.A.-ers to present their spirit to the spectators of the Homecoming Parade.

For a fund raising project, students chose to sell yellow and black miniature Tiger Footballs. Members have also sold booster buttons in past years. Proceeds from these sales went for materials for the many signs. Members include anyone wishing to spread Tiger spirit, and dedicated workers are awarded jackets.

J.T.S.C. Aids Jaycees Annual Teenage Rodeo

To cause students to become more aware of the need for safety in driving was the goal of the Junior Traffic Safety Commission. Accenting caution and precise driving habits, the J.T.S.C. hung various posters throughout the school as reminders.

Because the club functions as a civic aid group, the members participated in several events. They washed car windshields at Plymouth Park to further the idea of accident prevention. In May, members assisted in the Irving Jaycee's Annual Teenage Rodeo. They published and attended the activity. J.T.S.C.-ers also awarded good driving citations to students with courteous driving habits.

Officers of the J.T.S.C. are Cindi Dixon, secretary; Jerry Skinner, reporter; Carol Smartt, president; Martin Johnsen, treasurer; Pat Ingram, vice-president.

French Club Seminar Is Held at S.M.U.

Following the basic rule of the language clubs at Irving High, the French Club consists of students who are taking or have taken French. This group, organized in 1960 meets monthly to plan future events. To encourage students to learn more of the language, its value in today's English, and its origin is the club's purpose. A member may mail in his name to a world-wide organization for a pen pal in France or Belgium.

In October the group attended the formation of the Texas Association of Students of French at S.M.U.'s Fincher Hall. Entertainment at this meeting included plays and French songs. Once each year this Association will meet to hear lectures on life in France.

The Irving High Club has an ice skating party in January. In the spring, the French Club Banquet is held to award pins to members having the required number of points.

As our image of IHS begins to take shape the part of athletics becomes more evident, Athletic contests train young athletes in sportsmanlike conduct and self-discipline. The excitement generated by each game is a wholesome outlet for the inexhaustible energy of teenagers.

1966 Tigers Set The Stage

Irving was endowed with a strong young team in 1966. However, since only three lettermen, Bill Hastings, Larry Nolen, and Damon Reeves, returned from the 1965 Tiger team, Irving clearly lacked experience. Besides their own win over Irving MacArthur in the season's first game, the Tigers acquired victories from district opponents Bell and Haltom to finish fourth in zone play. The Tigers will definitely miss senior all-zone stand-outs Bobby Baker, Larry Nolen, and Dennis Stephans. To combat these losses the Tigers will return almost a full eleven of lettermen. So, we can clearly see that the Tigers will undoubtedly have one of the best teams in the district in '67.

Gains such as this one, allows fullback Don Croft to become the leading rusher in Irving's win over MacArthur.

Tigers Trump Cards 20-14

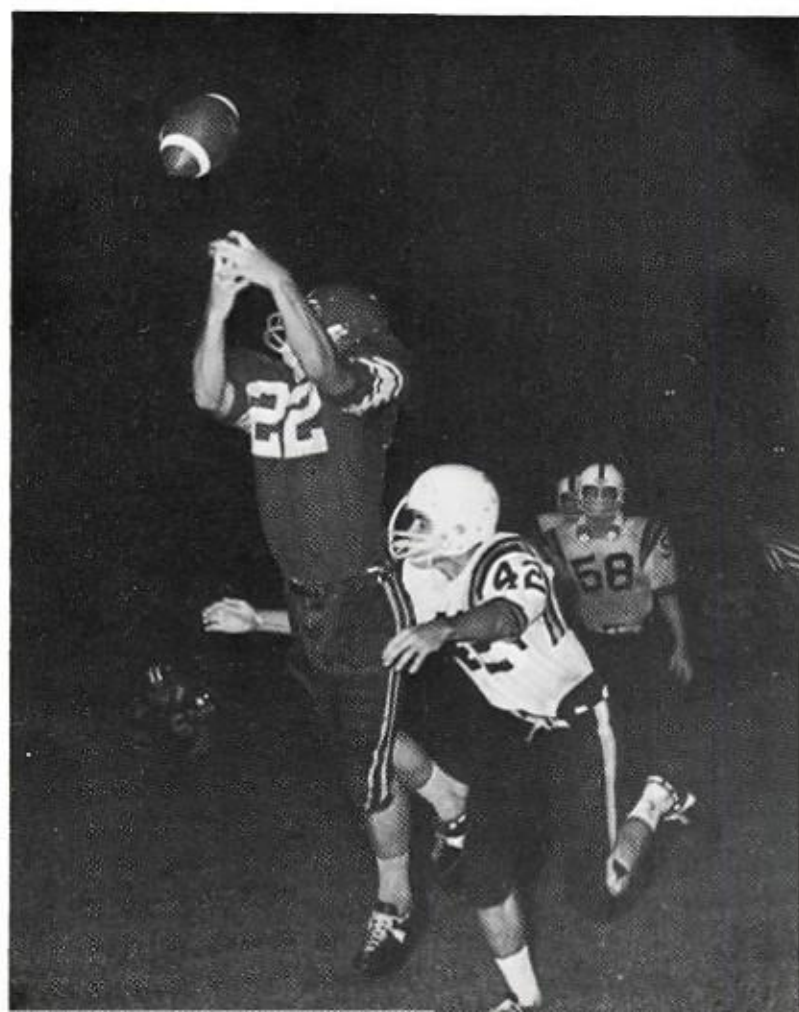

Dennis Stephan's alert recovery of an Irving punt early in the initial quarter led to the game's first score. Wingback Phil Riddle banged his way in from the two-yard stripe to place Irving ahead 6-0. MacArthur dominated the majority of the first half with two touchdowns in the second quarter. Irving came to life in the second half and showed its rushing prominence. Fullback Don Croft bulled his way across, first from the one yard line, and then from the two. With this determined comeback, Irving defeated its crosstown rival in its first encounter.

Both quarterback Alan Lowry and Cardinal defender Greg Parr are getting set for a head-on clash.

As Rodney Owens (58) watches, Jerry Dorety (42) holds MacArthur's Kenny Seastrunk to a minimum gain.

Tyler Topples Tigers

20-6

Fumbles stymied the Irving offense and Tyler Lee gained a 20-6 victory. The Tigers showed a single spark of life in the second quarter. After Alan Lowry fumbled the snap from his quarterback position, Wayne Dickson, realizing the miscue, snatched the ball and threw to Benny Collier. Collier went over untouched for the only Tiger score. Tyler Lee countered with scores in the second and fourth quarters to ease past their foes.

Even the determination of quarterback Alan Lowry (15) proved insufficient to halt the Highland Park Scots.

Scots Scoot By Irving

27-7

Grinding out 349 yards on the ground for four touchdowns, state-ranked Highland Park defeated Irving 27-7. In the second quarter with the score Highland Park 13, Irving 0, the Tigers drove to the Highland Park three yard line. Quarterback Wayne Dickson tossed a pass which was picked off by a Scott defender. Then, even a touchdown by fullback Chuck Green with one minute and eight seconds remaining in the game, could not dent the Scotchmen's spirit.

Irving's only score against Highland Park is made as Chuck Green (30) goes across with 1:08 seconds left.

After Irving's lone tally against the Scots, Don Croft boots the extra point while Alan Lowry holds.

Tigers Ring Bell 7-6

When the Bell Blue Raiders failed in their attempt for two points, they awarded a 7-6 victory to the Irving Tigers. On the fourth play after Alan Lowry's 37-yard punt return, tailback Gary Grider scored Irving's only touchdown of the game on the five yard line. Don Croft's boot placed the score at 7-0. Then, even a 99 yard Raider pass with minutes remaining could not surmount that one point, as Irving held on for the victory.

Tigers Wayne Dickson and Gus Barbosa surprised this Bell Raider back and threw him for a substantial loss.

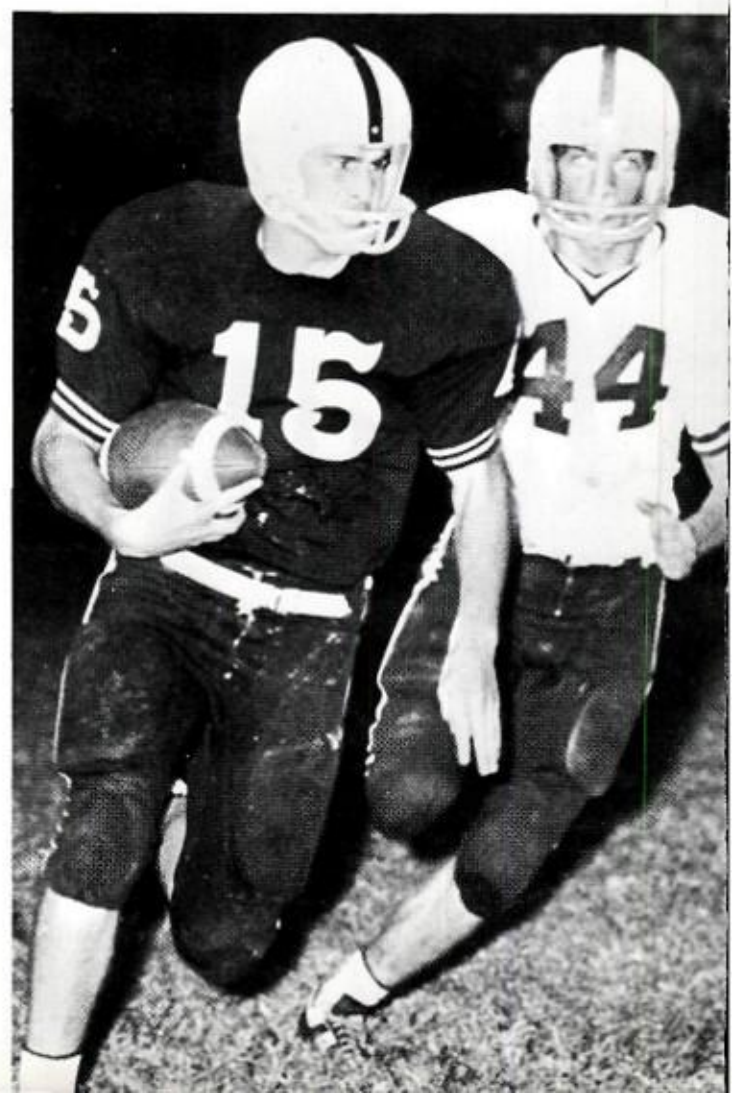

Bearcats Claw Tiger 30-7

Irving's Tigers played one of their best games of the season, but lost to the Bearcats of Sherman 30-7. Failure to score doomed the Tigers' efforts. Only a 56-yard romp by junior fullback Chuck Green kept the Tigers in the game. At halftime the score was 17-7. Sherman gained two touchdowns in the last stanza to end the battle for the night:

Tackles similar to this one thrown on tailback Benny Collier allowed Bell to stay close in their losing battle with Irving.

Had it not been for this Bell defender Alan Lowry would have scored another touchdown for the Tigers on their play.

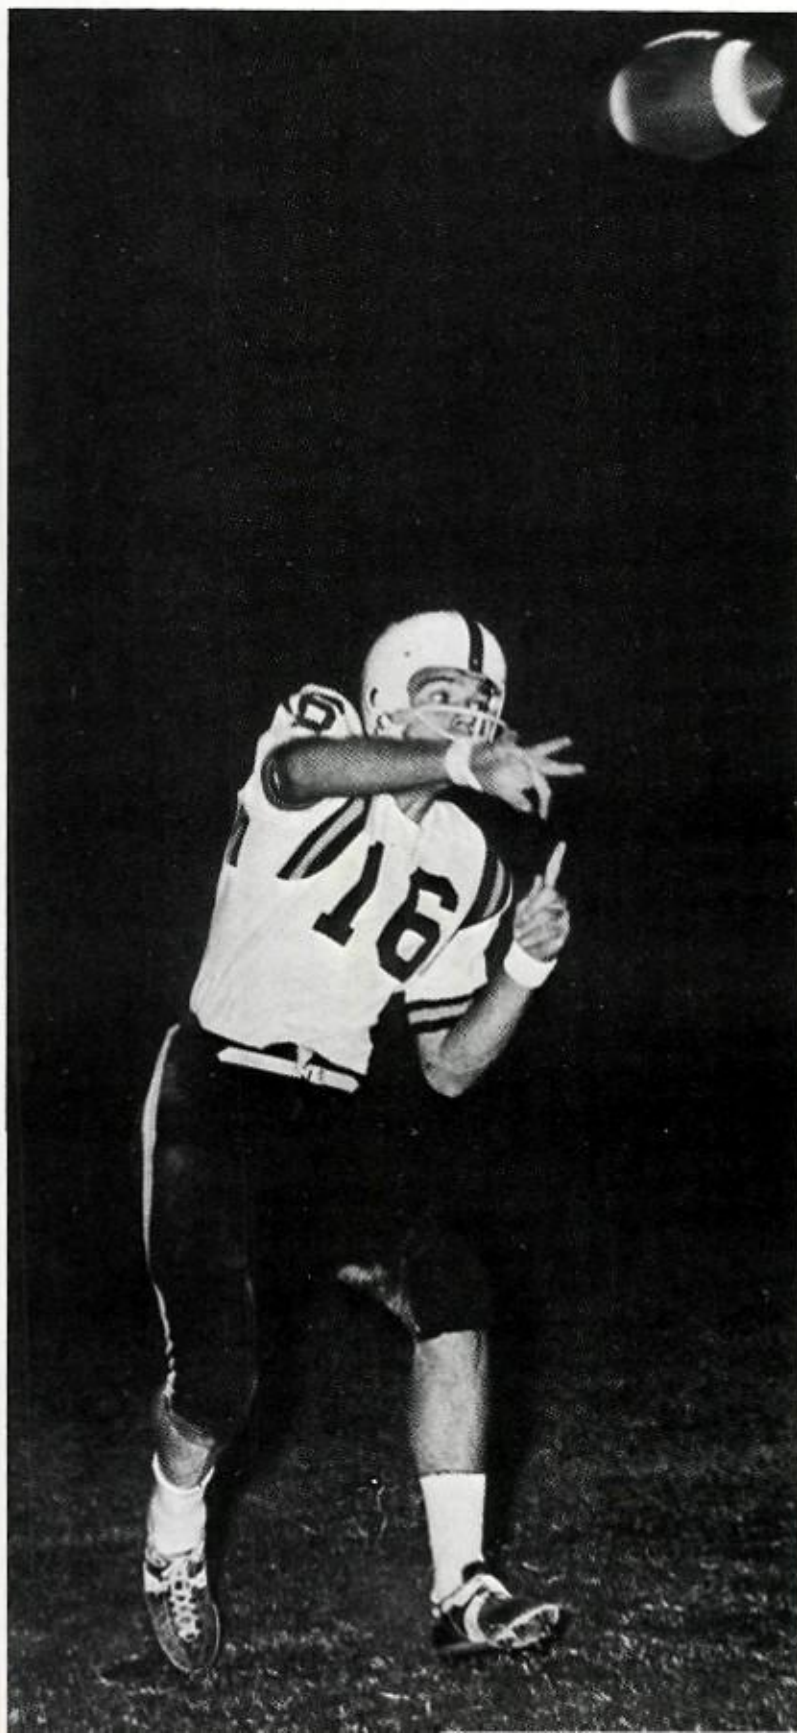

Rebels Repel Tigers

Wind and cold seemed to stall the Irving Tigers each time they reached Richland's 20 yard line. However, Richland summoned a 74-yard run from fullback Joe Walker to etch out a 6-0 victory. When Don Croft was stopped short of the goal line on a fourth down play, the Tigers lost their best chance for a victory. Both teams stayed mainly on the ground in accordance with the weather. However, the Rebels gained just enough yardage, while the Tigers fell an inch short.

Passes were few and sparse against Richland, but this one by Wayne Dickson added extra yardage.

Tailback Benny Collier eludes this Wichita Falls defender to chalk up a sizable gain.

Richland Rebels unsuccessfully try to snatch the ball from quarterback Dickson.

Coyotes Cage Tigers

34-14

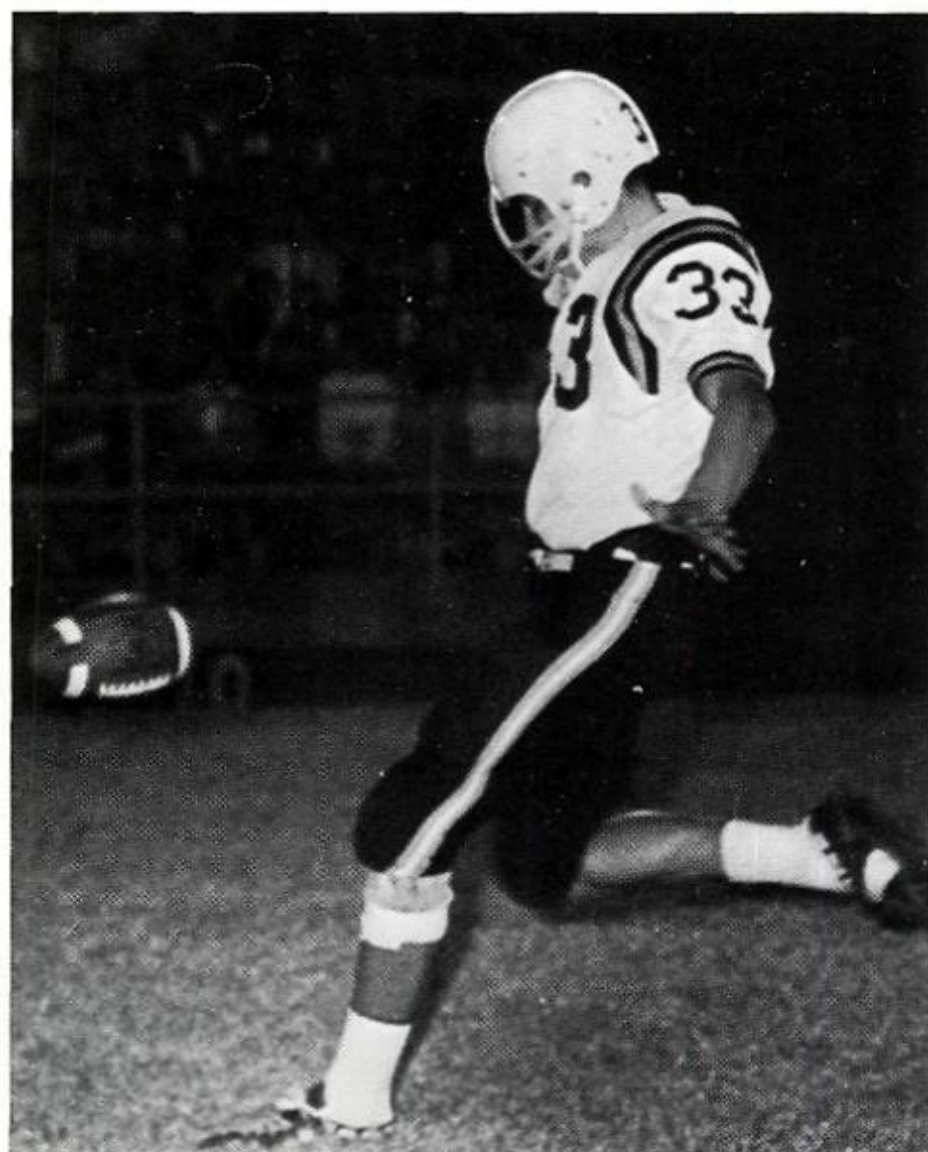

For the first time this season, Irving's passing attack began to click. Quarterback Alan Lowry fired a 58-yard touchdown pass to tailback Benny Collier. All was for naught though, as Wichita Falls scored four touchdowns in the first half to put the game on ice. Although the Tigers summoned a 7-7 tie in the second half the lead of the Coyotes proved to be insurmountable. Collier's second touchdown, a ten-yard run, helped to sooth the loss to one of Irving's greatest rivals.

Colts Say Neigh 21-14

Fighting back from a 14-point deficit, the Irving Tigers knotted the score with Arlington 14-14. Sophomore quarterback Alan Lowry tossed a 7-yard touchdown pass to Senior end Dennis Stephan. Then fullback Don Croft churned out a 60-yard run from scrimmage. The Colts were not to be denied though, as they mounted a 67-yard drive for the game's final score.

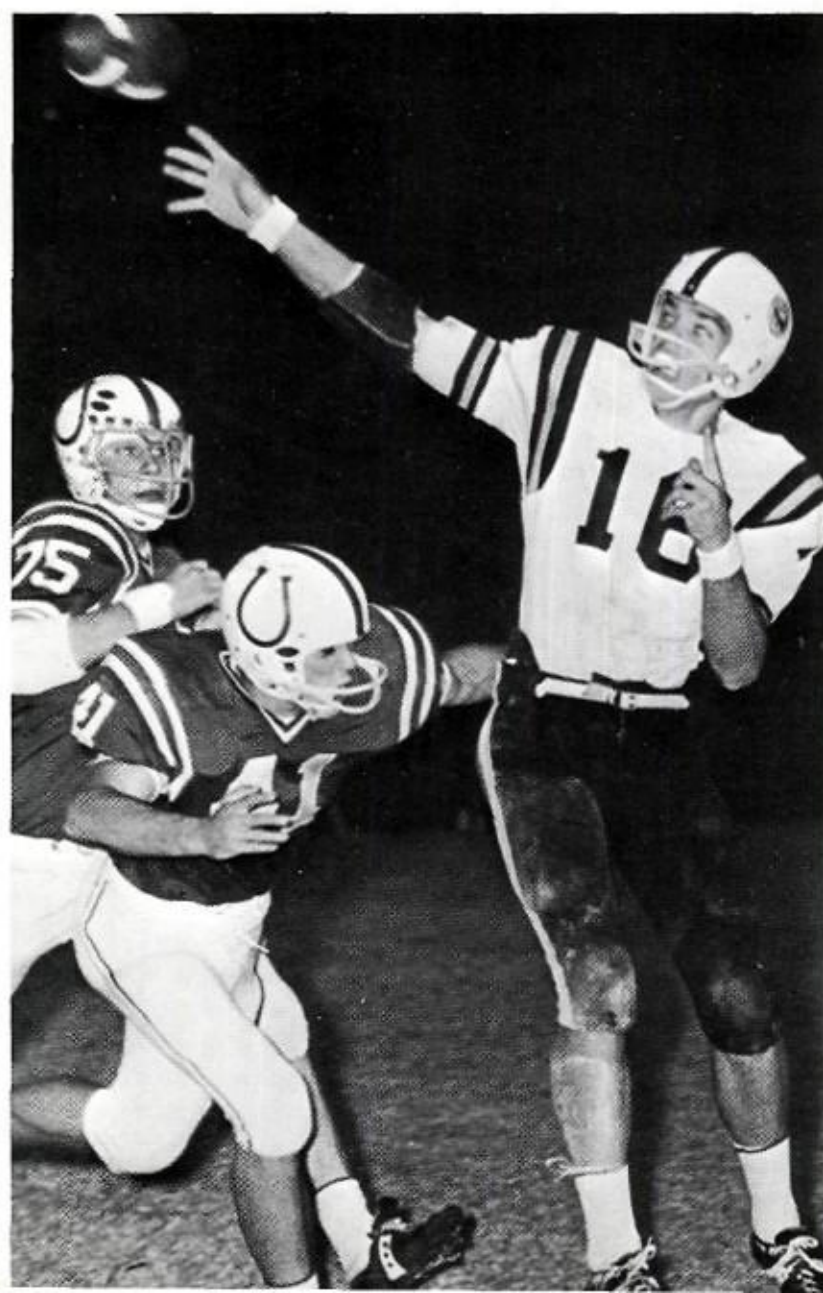

Arriving just in the nick of time, Senior Phil Riddle foils an Arlington pass play.

Grace, form, and finesse are displayed in the fluid motion of a booming punt by Tiger kicker Don Croft.

Before being corralled by these two Colt defenders, Wayne Dickson lofts his teammates a completed aerial.

Tigers Butcher Buffs 27-0

Haltom never had a chance as Irving took a 21-0 first half lead, and then settled back to a 27-0 shutout. Quarterback Wayne Dickson started the fireworks with a one-yard run in the first quarter. Then, in the second stanza he threw a 40-yard bomb to tailback Benny Collier. Shortly before the half, fullback Don Croft rolled for 32 yards for yet another score. Chuck Green scored from the one to end the Tiger's scoring rampage.

Gophers Gnaw Tigers

Spurred on by a hopeful Homecoming crowd, the Irving Tigers won the battle of the statistics with the Grand Prairie Gophers. Unfortunately for the Tigers, the Gophers won the battle of TD's to take a 35-16 victory. Grand Prairie tailback Glynn Seeton scored four touchdowns; that was the game! Not to be wholly denied, Irving scored two touchdowns of its own late in the game. Quarterback Alan Lowry rifled touchdown passes to senior end Larry Nolen and tailback Benny Collier. Lowry then passed once and ran another time for four added points.

Skirting around left end, Tiger Benny Collier fights for three yards before being upended.

Bottled up by the defensive talents of the Gophers, Wayne Dickson signifies the Tigers' Homecoming fate.

B-Team Backs Up The Tigers

In playing a full ten-game slate, the B-team bengals contributed victories over McKinney, Lake Highland, and Haltom. The team consisted almost wholly of sophomores except for the presence of four junior players. The Irving bombers defeated Haltom by 24 points, but never lost a game by more than 14 points themselves.

With the offensive line opening holes like this, B-team backs had little trouble gaining substantial rushing yardage.

Richland's safety stops this Irving back, thus saving a touchdown.

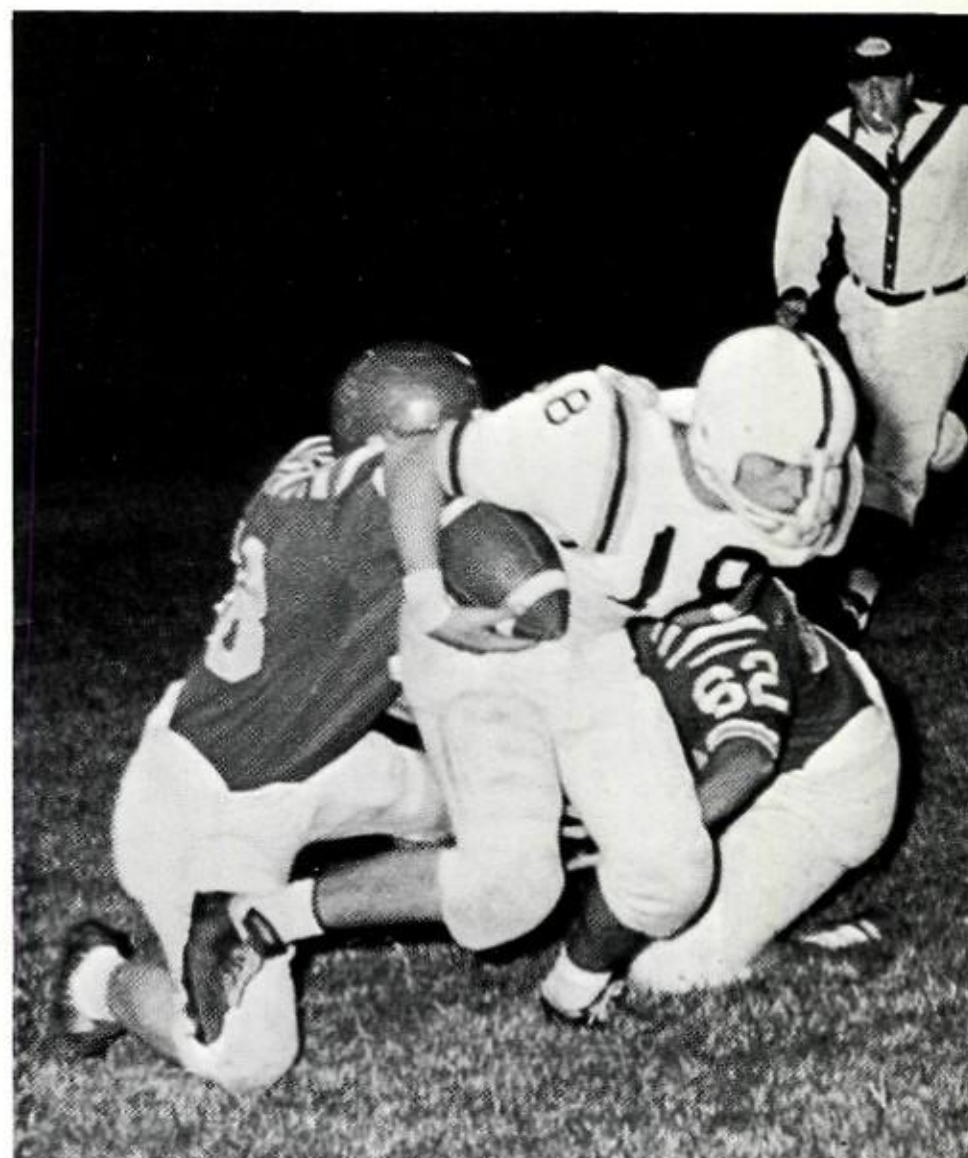

Irving's B-team gains a first down in a battle with MacArthur via the rushing route.

Stalwarts on defense drop a MacArthur back behind the line of scrimmage deep in their own territory.

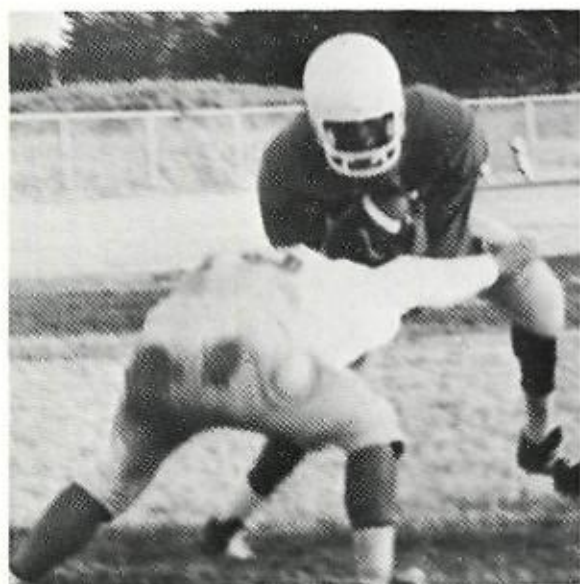

More than one man was necessary to throw this B-teamer for a loss of five yards.

In combating opponents' offenses, the Frosh used an equally solid defense.

Frosh Split Schedule

Two Irving Freshmen teams combined to complete their 14-game season with a record of 7 wins and 7 losses. Both rushing and passing were equally used to combat the opposing offenses. Over fifty boys competed for starting positions.

Sheer determination combined with extremely hard running, provided the Frosh many victories.

Edition Of Irving's Round Ballers

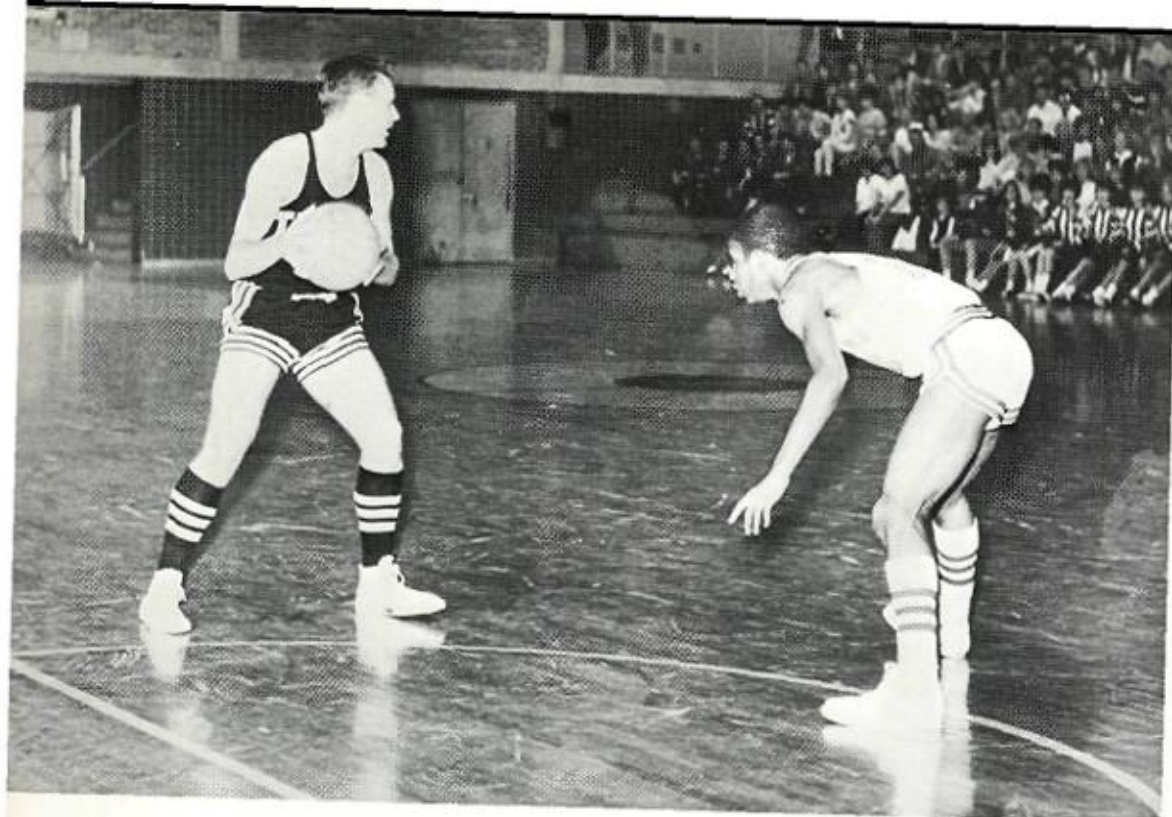

Valuable as a playmaker and steady as a scorer, Senior Larry Jamieson spurs the Tiger attack.

Among the eight senior members, guards Larry Jamieson, Tommy Powers and Jerry Lynch and forward Fred Palmer were repeaters from last year's squad. Lynch was the team's leading scorer and Jamieson was the team's top play-maker. Palmer averaged in double figures in point total while contributing eleven rebounds per game. In addition to his regular guard position, Powers contributed part-time duty as a forward. Throughout the season, seniors Kelvin Korver, and Robert Hagan played valuable roles as rebounders as well as shooters. Both Dave Bentley and Rick Conoley contributed important supporting roles to the '67 team. Jamieson, Korver, Lynch, and Palmer received district honorable mention in varying polls.

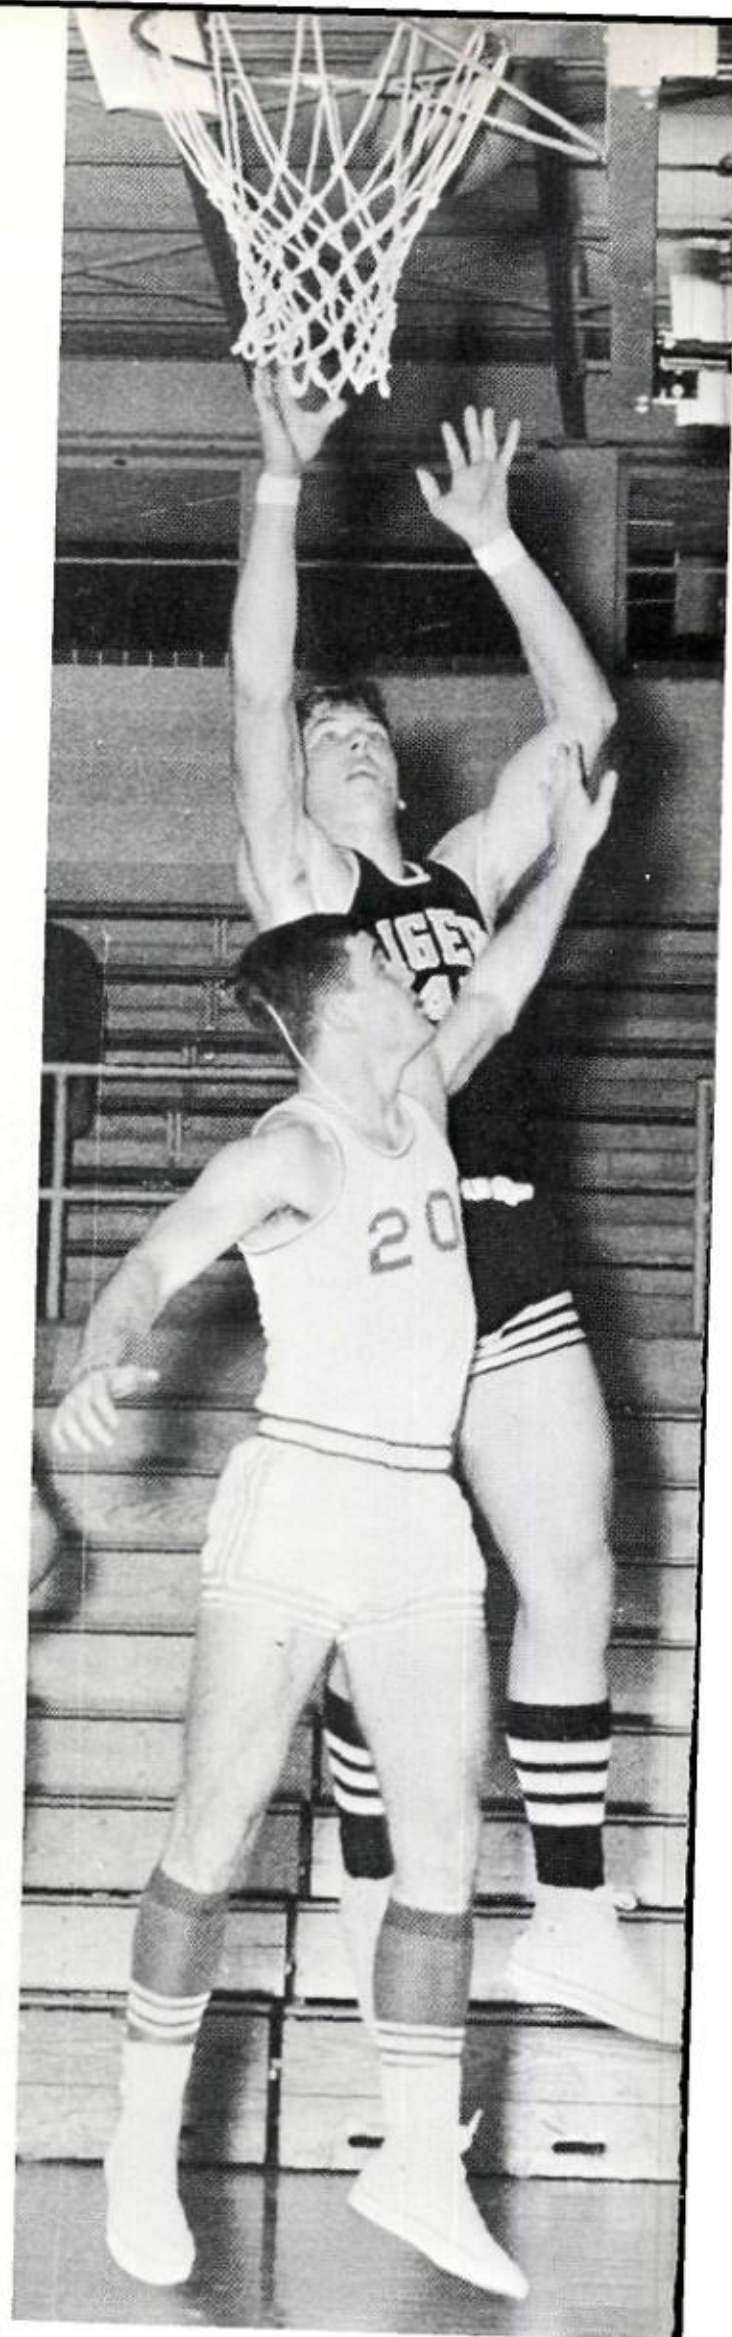

Coach Paul Ingle

One of Irving's leading scorers, guard Jerry Lynch, shows why he is able to break loose for open shots.

Working the Tigers' primary set play is Irving forward Wayne Dickson.

Over the outstretched arm of a defender, center Kelvin Korver shoots for two points.

Junior Rodney Owens provided many moments of thrill and humor for basketball spectators.

Irving Tiger '67 Basketball Season Comes to a Close

Although three underclassmen contributed major roles in the 1966-67 edition of the Irving Roundballers, the team was composed mainly of seniors. Highlights for the season included a second place finish in the Irving Invitational Tournament, and a third place finish in the Alamo Heights Tourney. In district play, the Tigers achieved victories over Arlington, Richland, and Haltom. One of the big wins for the season was a win over St. Marks in a highly exciting game played in Tiger Gym. One very disappointing loss was to the regionals' winner Grand Prairie, 55-52.

Over the outstretched arm, Fred Palmer fires for what became two points as Larry Jamieson needlessly awaits the rebound.

B-Team Captures Second in District

Winning eight games while losing only two, the B-Team Cagers captured second place in district standings. The two losses were to district champs, Grand Prairie. In season play, the team, fashioned a 16-5 record. Leading scorers for the year were Doug Haak and Alan Dunaway.

In a game which the B-Tigers won over Wichita Falls by a score of 66-42, Bob Joden reaches for a jump ball.

Tracksters Vault to Dashing Heights

Many strong individual performers and a good solid team have helped to make the IHS tracksters contenders in the race for the district crown. Last year high-jumper Kim Sutton, discus and shotputter Kelvin Korver, and 880 specialist Larry Turner went as far as the regionals in track competition. These three should be strong contenders in district as well as state competition. Vaulter Bobby Willingham should also show strength in district and possibly even in the regionals or state. The Tigers, winners of the Idabel, Oklahoma, relays last year, should be strongly rivaled in district by Grand Prairie as well as by Arlington.

Irving's Kelvin Korver practices one of the eternal symbols of track competition—the discus.

Circling the track in an early season practice meet is Robert Armstrong followed by Doug Van Ostrand.

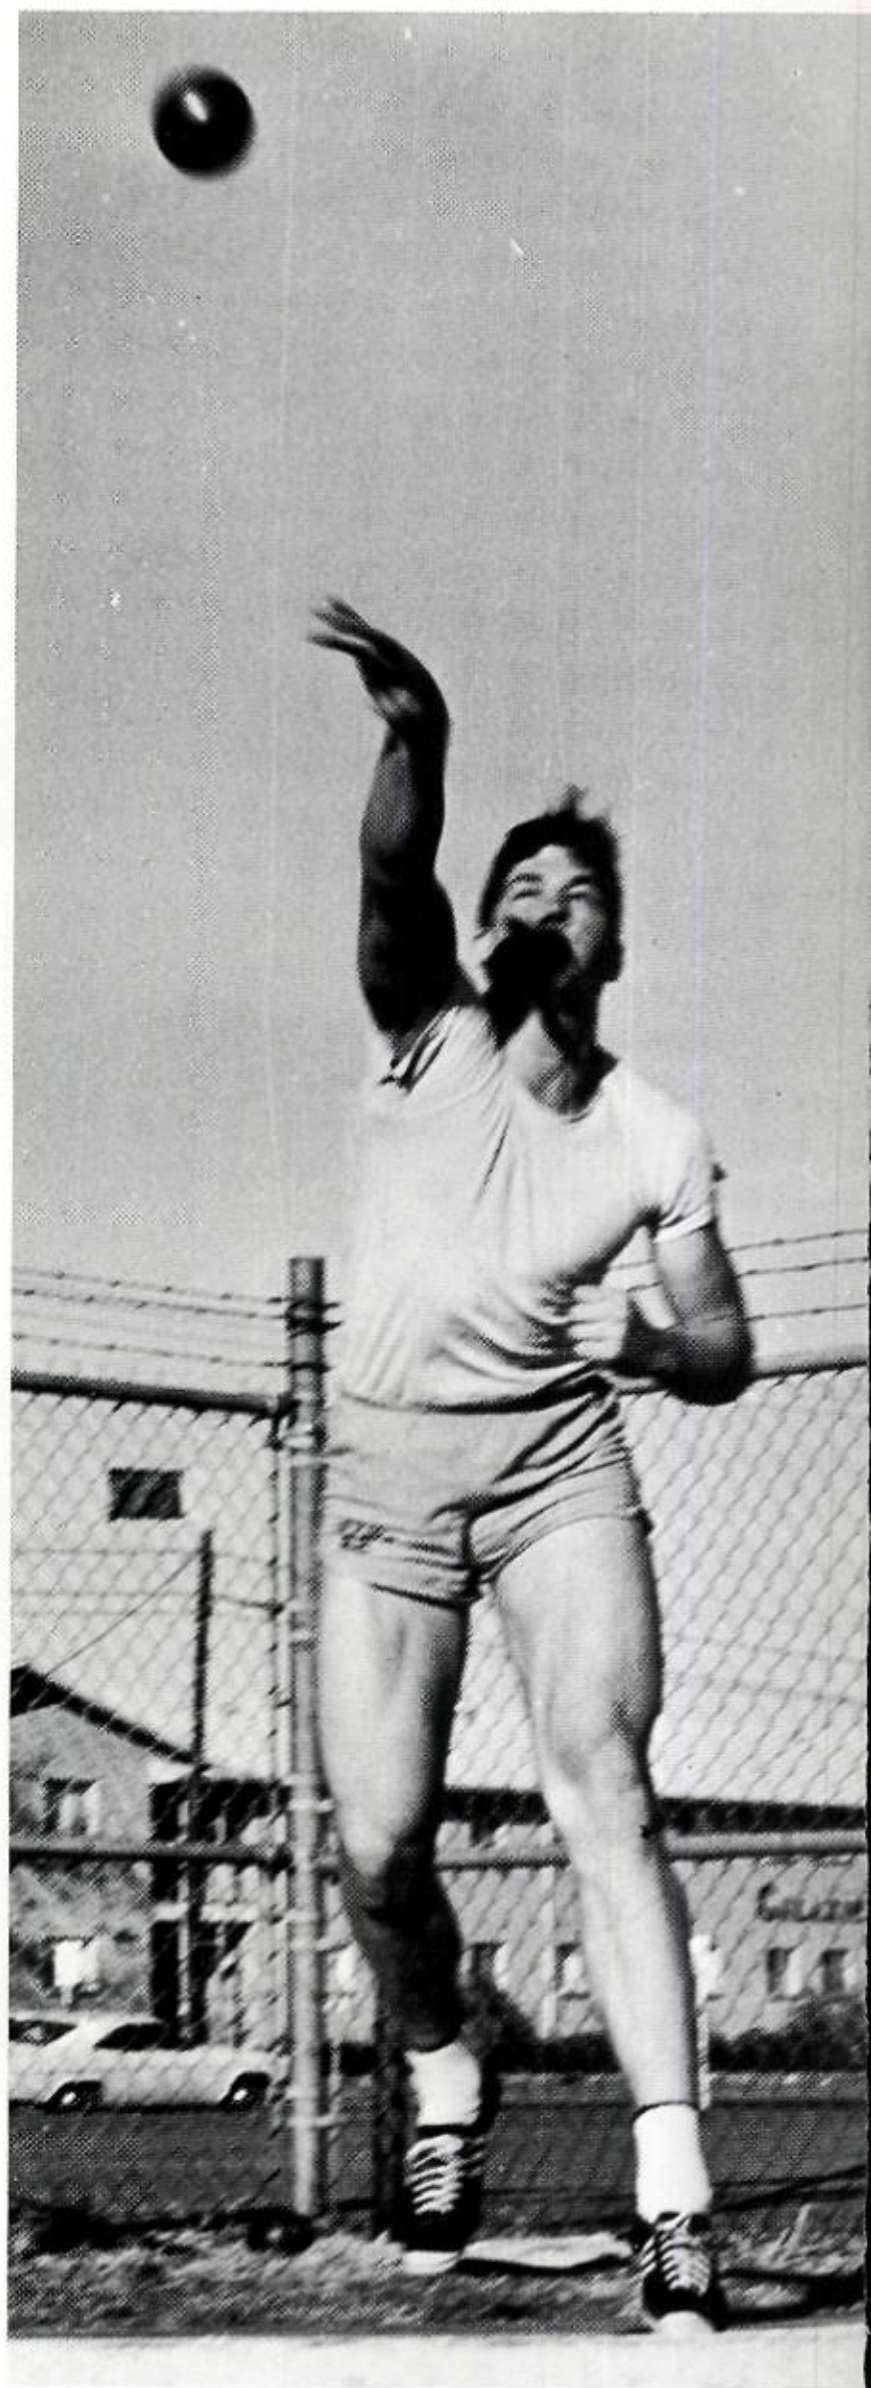

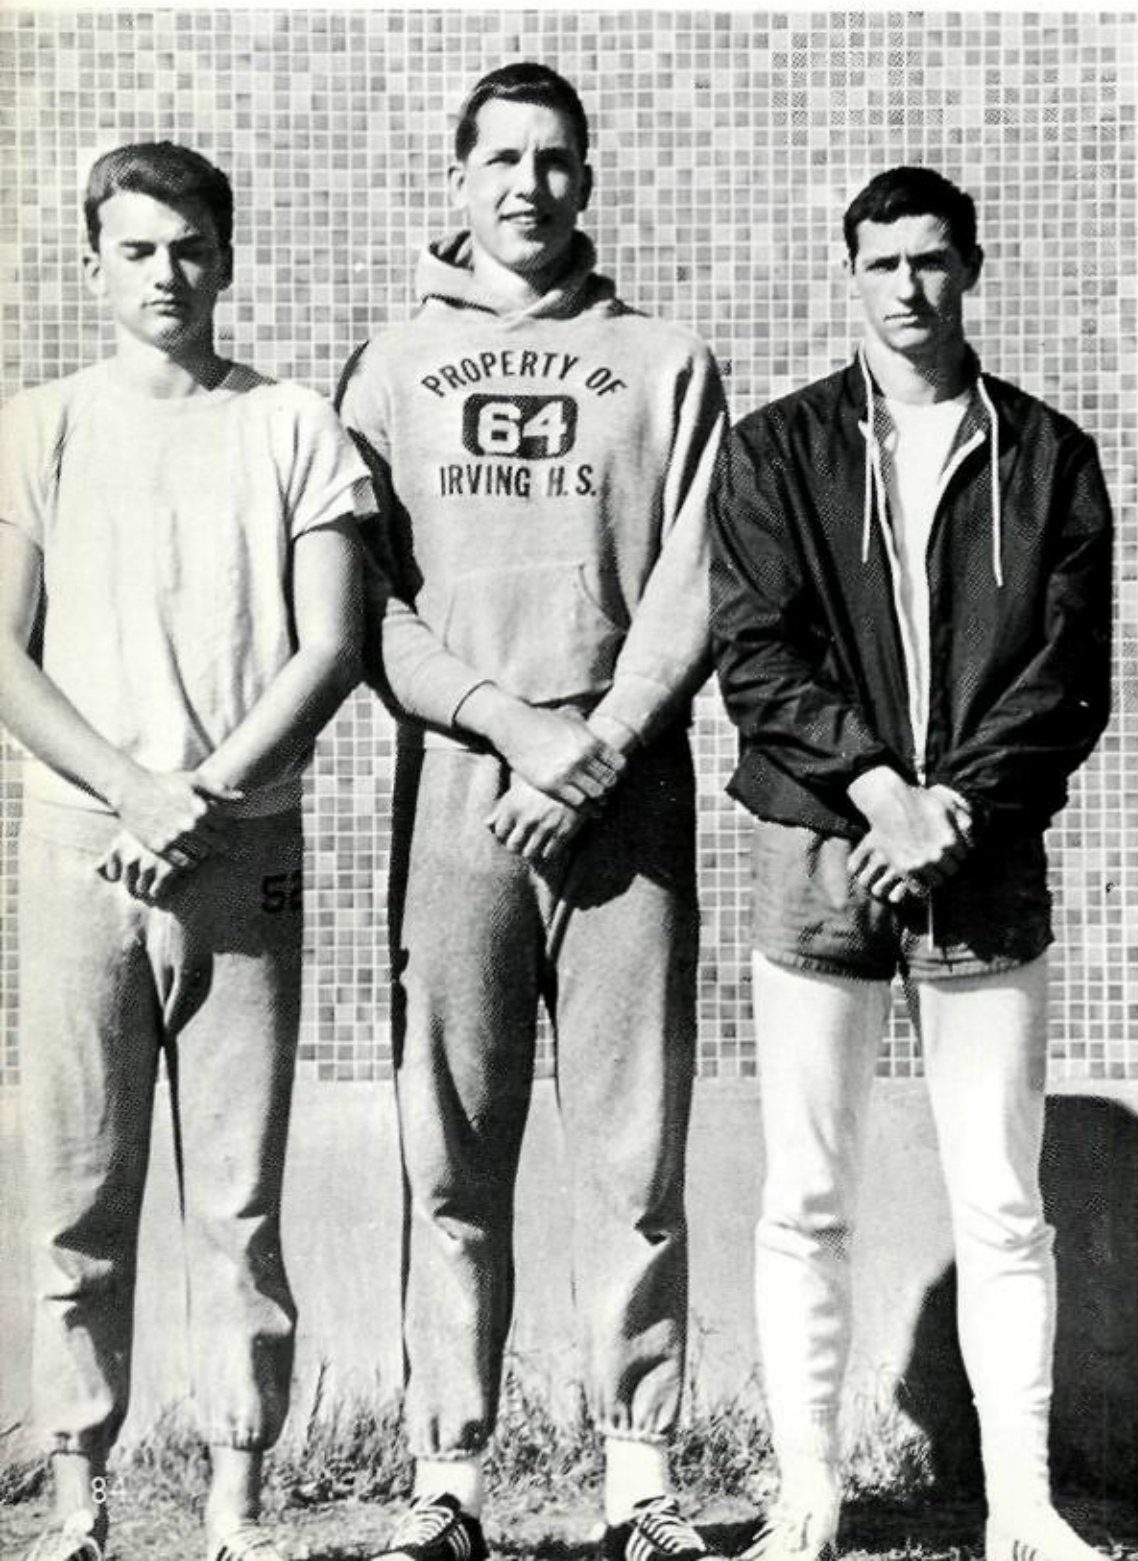

Carrying Irving's hopes in the relay are Kim Sutton, Larry Turner, Bill Zimmerman, and not pictured, John Banks.

Showing why he is the best high jumper in the district, Kim Sutton clears the bar at six feet in a practice session.

Tigers Kim Sutton, Kelvin Korver, and Larry Turner last year entered regional competition after winning in district.

Shotputter Kelvin Korver has lifted the team's hopes for district and state competition.

Baseballers Are Returning Co-Champs

ounding first and going for a double is baseballer Ricky Harris.

Tiger baseballers are again looking forward to a great season. Last year the team gained co-champion status with Grand Prairie in Zone 2 of District 4-AAAA. The fate of another good season rests in the development of the pitching staff. New head coach Paul Ingle has returning lettermen Ronnie Foster, Rusty Wright, Jerry Lynch, Dan McCurdy, Charles Yelvington, David Green, and Larry Duke to assure district foes that the 1967 Tigers will defend the standards of last year's team.

Baseballers Bill Rutherford, Pete Womble, and Charles Yelvington seem to have found an amusing moment at practice.

Sophomore catcher, Pete Womble, provides the necessary know-how for Tiger pitchers participating in district 4-AAAA play.

"Ye Olde" hurler, coach Paul Ingle, pitches during batting practice at a Tiger workout.

Andree; Third Row: Don Sheffield, Lonnie Barrett, Marc Ponce, Darrell Endicott, Mike Whisenant, Bruce Irving.

Weightlifters Are One of Nation's Best

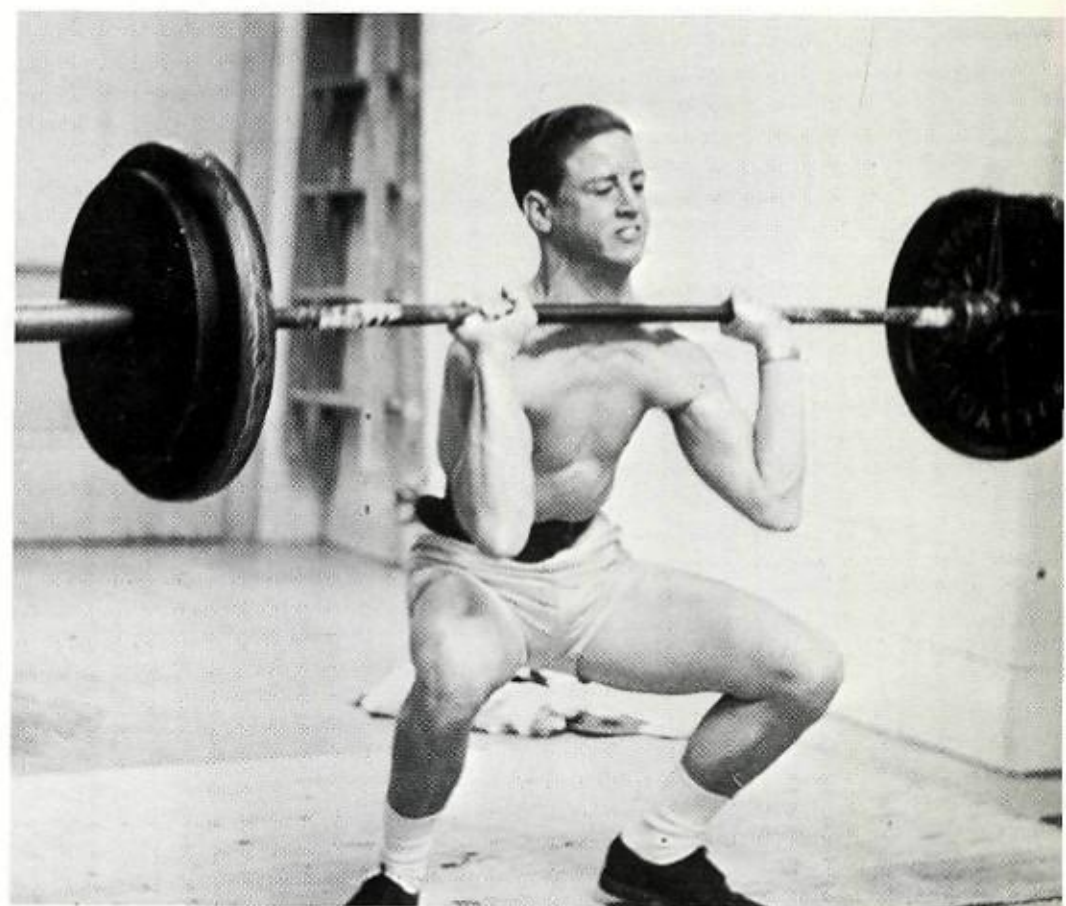

Weightlifter Bill Stanley concentrates his efforts for an attempted press at a daily morning practice session.

Coach Stan Cason's highly respected weightlifting team is this year composed of 17 lifters and four returning lettermen. Darrell Endicott, Eric Inmon, Bill Stanley and Roger Black lettered last year on the team, which has been ranked in national polls. Over the past three years the Tigers have lost only one meet; that meet was with the University of Southern Louisiana. Besides Inmon, Black, and Endicott, other seniors in the group include Mike Whisenant, Bruce Irving, Lonnie Barrett, and Don Sheffield.

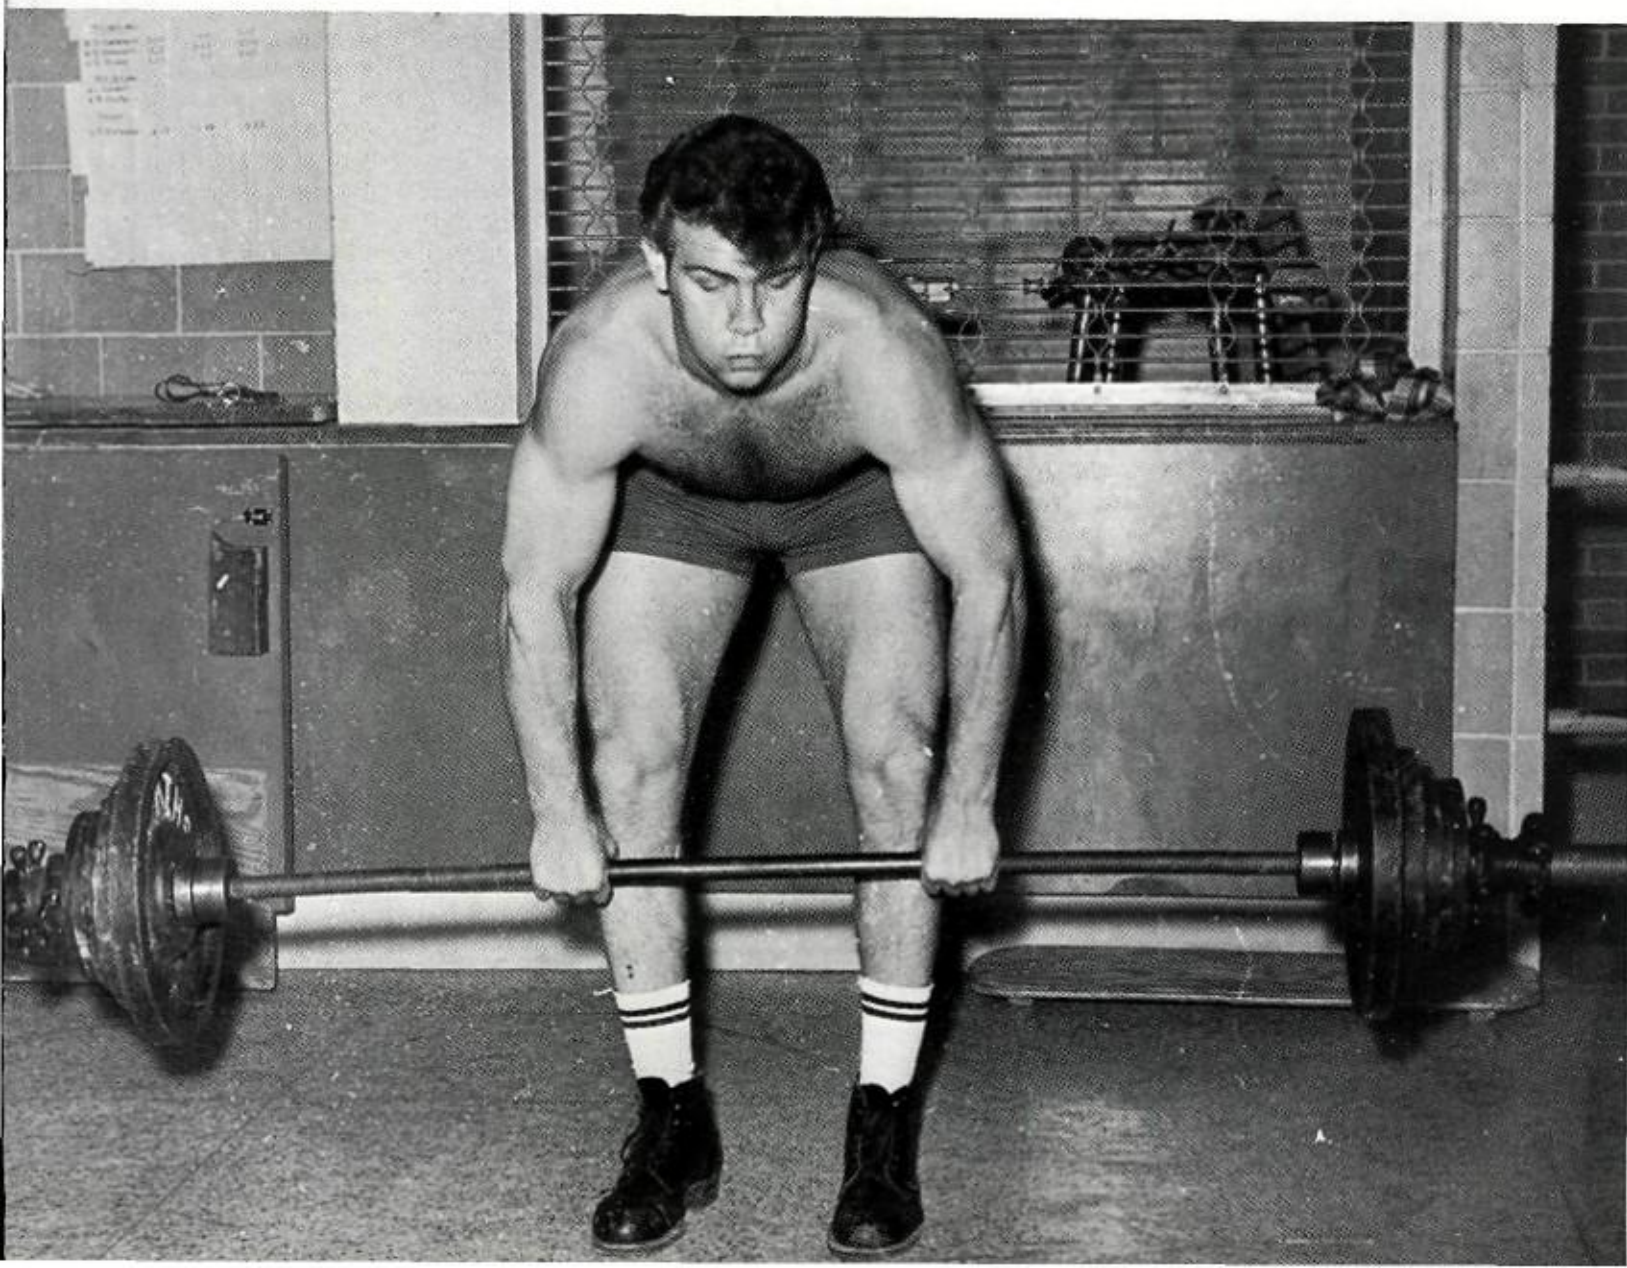

No, weightlifter Don Butler is not in the parking lot; he is merely outside the gym for a morning workout.

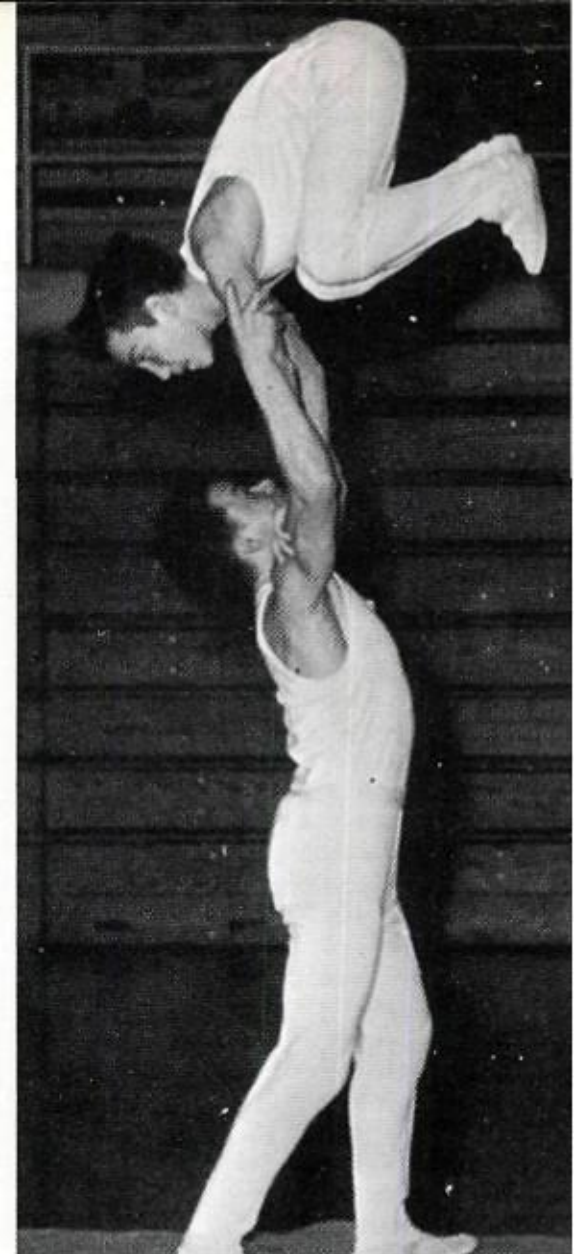

Grimacing, straining, and hoping for a successful lift is junior Tiger weightlifter, Ron Chitty.

Senior Darrell Endicott is in the process of pressing a mighty weight without the usual warmup.

Faithful Fans Flip Over Fluttering Flying Tigers

Every year the Flying Tigers provide many enjoyable moments for fans during halftime at basketball games. This is in addition to the amateur athletic meets in which the team participates. Coach Earl Rhodd expects stellar performances this year from senior Bill Shelton and juniors Chris Schacht and Steve Graves. The team should do well in individual departments of district competition in building a strong future team. Among other events, vaulting, tumbling, parallel bars, and high bars are frequently entered by team members.

Lifting Fred Kemper, Paul Skinner executes an arm to arm hand stand.

ham, Fred Kemper, Paul Skinner, Jeanette Hyatt, Sandra Watkins and Coach Earl Rhodd.

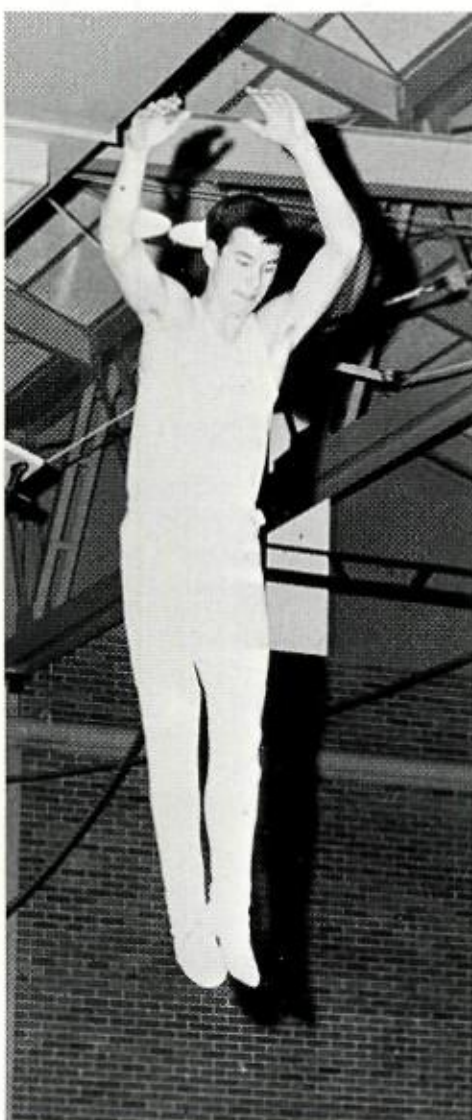

Flying tiger Steve Graves executes a forward flip as his teammates take precautionary measures.

Golf Team Is in the Swing for 1967

Irving's returning lettermen David Allen, Bobby Cornett, Tommy Powers, and Mike Willingham led the way for the Tigers in early matches. Irving did not lose a pre-season match. Other members on the 1966-67 team included Steve Jarrard, Kenny Hubenak, Lynn Leslie, and Kenny Wright. The team finally came of age and promised this year and next to be of the strongest in the district.

Brent Haley, Pat Cofer, Larry York, Rod Green, David Collier
Fourth Row: Chuck May, Bill Flynt, Ricky Ingram, Steve Blaylock, Rusty Shelton, Rickie Craft, John Canady, Lindsey Horton, Clark Armstrong.

Netters Hopeful of Many Victories

Strong overhead smashes to opponents should bring many victories to Ingrid Schmidt.

Miss Joan Young combined the top six boys and the top six girls to form her "A" tennis squad. This year the top six boys in order were Larry York, Ricky Craft, Brent Haley, David Collier, Pat Cofer, and Rusty Shelton. Girls in the select group included Debbie Wahlstrom, Virginia Bauer, Denise Batchelor, Carla Vestal, Cathy Wallace, and Monica Mote. The four big tournaments of the years were: the Garland Tournament, the Wichita Falls Tournament, the Bell Festival Tournament, and the East Texas State Tournament.

Holding down the third spot on the Irving High Girls' tennis team is Denise Batchelor.

Without a reliable serve, as exhibited by Rusty Shelton, one cannot be a strong competitor in tennis competition.

It's the art of practice, such as Ricky Craft's backhand stroke, that makes a team successful.

Pictures of individual students are a fitting way to complete the portrait of IHS. Though clubs, sports, and parties are more often talked about, it is the attitude and the initiative of each student which determines whether a school will be a hardship, which must be endured or a challenge, which can be met with sincere effort and perseverance.

Excited Seniors Receive Class Rings

Having received the official mark of superiority, Senior rings, in the second week of school, the Class of '67 was ready to begin their most important year at IHS.

Being the smallest class made no difference to the mighty Seniors as they backed the Irving Tigers throughout the sports year. To prove their enthusiastic school spirit, the Seniors held an individual pep rally in their traditional section of the gym, with the Senior Cheerleaders leading the yells. Mr. Hughes joined in the fun, and the rally was concluded by a Senior Snake Dance to classes.

With Homecoming arriving, the class decided to combine efforts and construct a prize-winning float. The float's white skirts were accented with "Destination . . . World!" in red lettering and white fringe along the bottom. Clouds of angel hair rose above the world with the artistic red airplane flying through them. Piloted by a paper maché Big Irvi, the plane was entitled "Spirit of '67."

During a class meeting, the Seniors voted to have a Costume Party in December and a Sadie Hawkins Party in the spring. After the Spring Formal, Seniors began planning for the Prom and graduation in May. Tears and smiles, speeches and awards marked the end of the last year at IHS for the Class of '67.

Class Officers Direct Year's Agenda

September marked the beginning of an exciting year for the Juniors. Prestige surrounded the Juniors with their new title of upper classmen. Selling fight ribbons spurred their spirit in backing the Tigers in sports. The class of '68 retained their record by producing a prize-winning float. "Tigers, Gopher Peace" was awarded second place.

The thrill of ordering class rings was even greater this year. For the first time Juniors were able to order Senior rings in January and receive them in May. The annual class party held in the spring carried a discotheque theme and was a smashing success.

At the end of May, Juniors were brimming with anticipation of the coming year.

Sophomore class officers for the 1966-67 school year are Joyce Butts, secretary; Gary Box, vice-president; Ed Kinkade, president; and Geri Harrison, treasurer.

Sophomores began their new year with the election of class officers and representatives. As the year progressed, Homecoming came and brought a trophy winning float for the class. The float had a rotating world with a tiger looking over it and roaring. This carried out the heading of "The Roar Heard Round the World."

Back from Christmas vacation, Sophomore girls began practicing for Toy Tigers. Not long afterwards came tryouts. Following this came the dreaded waiting for the announcement of the new members. In March, the class had its annual party which brought the year to a close.

Leading the '66-'67 Freshman class are officers Beth Nelson, vice-president; Brenda Rizer, treasurer; Lynn Lake, president; and Vicki Adams, secretary.

Freshman Class Officers for '66-'67

With high hopes and loud confusion, the '66-'67 freshman class descended upon Irving High School. Summer orientation helped frosh get "into the swim" with a minimum amount of helpless feeling.

Fall achievement tests added to the heavy work load of the freshmen. Homecoming brought new excitement and privileges as their float "Tiger Travels" placed third in the annual judging.

Anticipating their sophomore year, the freshmen worked diligently the second semester. Concluding a successful year, they held their annual class party in the IHS cafeteria in the spring.

from reservoirs...to report cards

Management Data Center is the region's most versatile electronic data processing and computing facility—in terms of men, machines, and software packages.

Programs currently on the air include: PETROLEUM — engineering and property management; multiple interests accounting and profit disbursement; natural gasoline and by-products processing, reservoir study, development, and control; secondary recovery planning and direction. INSURANCE — rate book data ready for reproduction; terminal reserves, cash values, mean reserves, and associated premiums; complete accounting for general insurance agencies; full-scope service ranging from back-up (to customer's in-house facilities) to total execution of all data processing and computing requirements. SECONDARY SCHOOLS — preparation of master schedules; students class assignments; grade reports and analyses; complete and accurate printed permanent records.

You are invited to call, write or visit MDC facilities and inquire about these and other massive data-handling and retrieval programs presently available.

SCIENTIST, Junior Grade

What makes a clock tick? What makes a bell ring? What makes a motor run? Small boys with large curiosities want to know the answers to a hundred such questions.

Curiosity . . . the kind that's a part of scientific research and development . . . is helping Texas Power & Light Company, and hundreds of other investor-owned electric companies, serve you better.

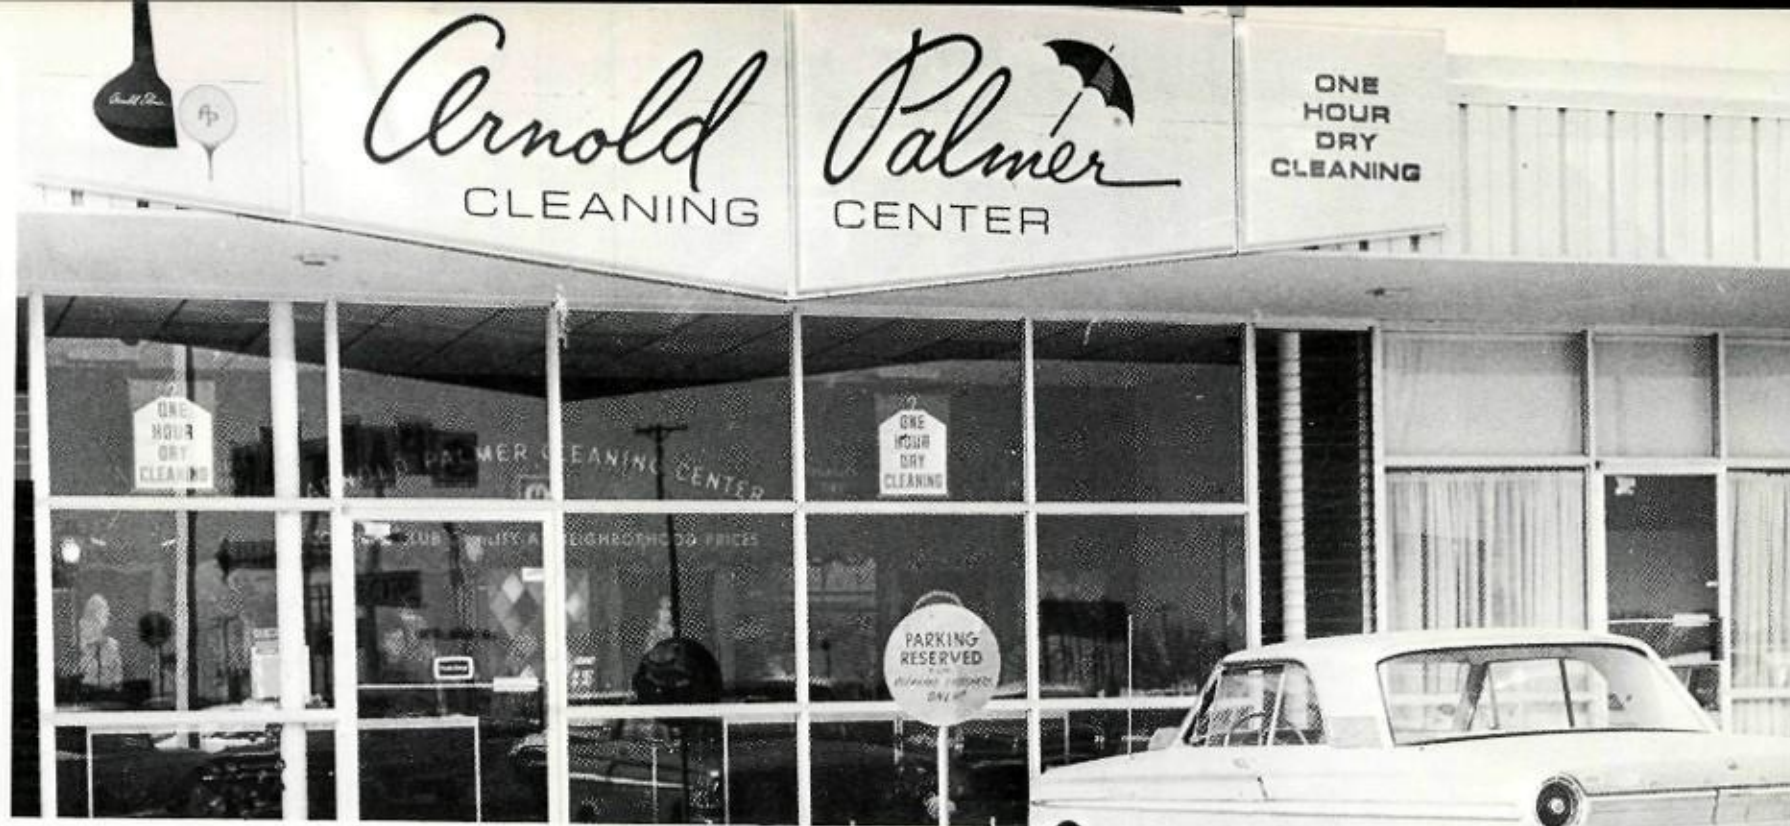

We're constantly looking for ways to produce and supply electric power more efficiently and more economically . . . to attract new industries to the communities we serve . . . and to help our farming and ranching customers increase their production and profits.

Research and development . . . two of many Texas Power & Light Company activities which benefit its customers.

Letter From The Editors

After long hours in late-night work sessions, the 1967 Lair is ready to be published. Each section of this book represents an effort of many staffers working together to present a complete and accurate account of IHS.

For many, life at school follows a familiar routine. We have tried to break away from this routine and show the unusual occurrences as well as review the everyday happenings we will all remember. This is quite an undertaking for 24 people. They have planned, discussed, and argued; they have made mistakes and started over; they have found that some of their ideas are good and some are not. But through many trials and heaven-only-knows how many errors we managed to produce an annual to be proud of. Certainly mistakes can be found; it is to be expected. But we feel we have kept mistakes to a minimum. Last year's Lair had fewer mistakes than any other and tied with Houston Memorial High School for first place award in state competition. We hope that this Lair will do as well. But our greatest hope is that you, the students of Irving High School will enjoy this annual to the fullest—because it was for you that we worked so hard and so long. The 1967 Lair is yours to read and reread as a reminder of a year well spent at Irving High School.

Sincerely,
Donna Champion and
Sue Hodges, editors
